School Overview

Williamsburg Charter High School provides high school students a small and personalized environment where they can flourish. Our college going, youth development-oriented culture provides students with opportunities for enrichment and intervention. Students are surrounded by a dedicated team of individuals at each grade level focused on their academic, social and emotional success. Our school within a school approach enables students to build a place within their grade community preventing anonymity. All Williamsburg Charter High School students are held to a high standard and all courses require a 70% passing rate, five percentage points higher than other DOE schools.
