School Overview

Marta Valle High School (MVHS) offers a strong program of academic and character development in the tradition of our namesake Marta Valle, a social worker, youth advocate, and community organizer. Our Core Values – Respect, Leadership, Integrity, Diligence, and Service – are woven throughout everything we do. Our academics are supplemented by electives in the arts. Our students can earn college credit at the City University of New York (CUNY). MVHS is a place where 'Educating Hearts and Minds for the 21st Century' is a reality.
