School Overview

We offer a dynamic CTE program focusing on Business, Fashion Design, and Art. High School of Fashion Industries (HSFI) begins to prepare students for college they day they step foot in high school. We excel at guiding students through the college application process including classes during the school day devoted to learning about the college and financial aid, a full-time college counselor, youth leaders who are trained as college counselors, and bridge coaches who support students throughout their senior year into the summer before they enter college. Through our corporate Advisory Board and partnerships, HSFI provides students hands-on experience in the fashion, business, and cultural center of the world.
