School Overview

Cypress Hills Community School (CHCS) is a small community-based dual language school where students learn in Spanish and English. The school's mission is for all students to become fully bilingual and bicultural, and to be deeply concerned about themselves and each other, their community, and the world. Native language instruction including Spanish Language Arts, content area instruction in Spanish, and targeted tutoring groups during the school day and after school are offered to all students. The small environment allows students to develop positive relationships with their teachers, where they benefit from both academic and emotional support. CHCS has developed a philosophy guided by Project C.A.R.E. (Communication, Accountability, Respect, and Effort). These core values provide a common language we believe is necessary for fostering and maintaining a peaceful and productive environment. ...
