School Overview

Our students are comforted by our family environment and enjoy an abundance of emotional support from the staff. Young scholars are immersed in literature, math, and science and have the opportunity to learn through technology tools. Parents are drawn to our school because we foster a sense of community and partnership. School faculty and parents collaborate to make informed decisions about student achievement. The school is a growing resource for students, parents, and families. Our principal is a Cahn Fellow from Columbia University.
