School Overview

At the Henry Street School, teachers foster a caring and supportive relationship with students. We create an inclusive environment where students are full partners in learning and problem solving to fully prepare them for higher education. We engage in world issues, languages and cultures to participate as ethical and responsible citizens. Students have the opportunity to engage in a relevant, thoughtful, and challenging curriculum that is standards-based. We offer an advisory program two days a week. This advisory program offers social and emotional support to all middle school students in supporting them as they transition from elementary to middle school. They also enjoy our monthly advisory out-days in which each student goes with his/her advisor and advisory group for a full day of cultural and educational-outing in or around New York City. ...
