School Overview

We focus on providing our students with a challenging and global education designed to encourage each student to strive for his or her highest academic potential while meeting the emotional, creative, and social needs of all students. We focus on critical thinking and problem solving through interactive literacy and math activities, enhanced through an integration of the arts into the core curriculum. We incorporate an interdisciplinary thematic study into each grade's social studies/literacy curriculum. Students learn strategies and styles that tap into their talents and learning modalities. P.S. / I.S. 78 educates the whole child and works toward creating an atmosphere of mutual respect. At P.S. / I.S. 78, parents are actively involved in their children's education and as a community, we share the joys of watching our children grow, learn new skills, and make friends throughout their years at our school. ...
