School Overview

Intermediate School 230, The School for Civics in the Community provides activities that engage, challenge, and stimulate students. Parents appreciate that we are a nurturing school. Our sixth grade academy is housed in our annex which is located directly across the street from the main building. The main building houses our seventh and eighth grades. The small learning community of the annex provides a very important transition for students entering middle school. Intermediate School 230Q has developed a very positive reputation which is based upon our challenging academic curricula, supportive teachers and safe environment.
