School Overview

"""The PRIDE of Laurelton, going the distance together."" ""Go Lions!"" Queens United Middle School supports our students in all aspects of their lives. Our students build and develop skills to be successful in high school, college, careers, and life through innovative teaching of challenging curricula. Our school focuses on guiding each student to make positive changes in his/her own life and the lives of others by building character and cultivating the values of citizenship. Our school consists of a four-house system where students will create and develop a student government, compete in scholastic and school spirit competitions, and have fun learning and interacting with each other. Queens United Middle School is a learning community consisting of three core pillars: critical thinking, civic responsibility, and academic readiness. ...
