School Overview

Serving students and their families from the Bronx and beyond, the James M. Kieran School of Arts & Humanities is the place for middle school students who are looking to build or extend their passion for the arts. Through our arts infused literacy curriculum, our students graduate with extensive knowledge of art history, musical literacy, and the ability to defend their opinions with facts from a multitude of primary sources. In place of textbooks, our students engage in dialogue around real texts and resources, furthered through our partnerships with the New York Historical Society, Studio in a School, and the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Additionally, our students learn the "power of the pen," through daily writing workshops, where we write across multiple genres to perfect our craft. At I. ...
