School Overview

Bronx Early College Academy (BECA) is an International Baccalaureate school for the Diploma Programme. Our curriculum meets the needs of highly motivated students through thought-provoking instruction emphasizing international mindedness. In addition to academic coursework, students participate in a range of activities including community service, online learning, field trips, clubs, and the arts. Through full participation in our program, BECA students learn the necessary tools to negotiate the complexities of an ever-changing global economy and gain access to superior post-secondary opportunities.
