School Overview

At Schuylerville Preparatory High School, our aspiration is to graduate disciplined individuals with integrity. Our students leave school with the goal of continuing their education in the service of others and contributing to the common good. Our approach is to take our students through increasingly rigorous phases of learning. In addition to developing our students into college-ready thinkers, our Dream Real Advisory is dedicated to the development of students' professional interests. We assign students to Success Development Coaches who help to identify concrete steps that students must take to realize their goals. This personalized approach offers support to our students with mentorships, internships, and college-level courses.
