Dear School Community,

This report provides a view of the arts education opportunities you are providing for your students based on your responses to the Annual Arts Education Survey in May 2015 and includes information from the New York City Department of Education's databases.

The Annual Arts in Schools Report is an important part of the New York Department of Education's efforts to ensure that schools are providing students with high-quality arts education they need and deserve. The report has been created to help school leaders, parents, and teachers understand how they can improve student learning in the arts, building on the Blueprint for Teaching and Learning in the Arts which provides detailed PreK-12 curricula aligned with State standards: http://schools.nyc.gov/offices/teachlearn/arts/blueprint.html.

New York State Guidelines and Requirements for Arts Education

The New York State Education Department (NYSED) has specific guidelines and requirements for arts instruction.

At the elementary level, in grades PreK-6, students should receive instruction in dance, music, theater, and visual arts. In addition, NYSED recommends that students spend a specific allocation of hours learning in the arts.

At the middle school level, in grades 7 and 8, the NYSED expects that students achieve, by the end of grade 8 one half-unit in dance, music, theater, or visual arts, and second half-unit in a second arts discipline.

At the high school level, the NYSED requires that all students graduate having taken at least two credits in the arts (dance, music, theater, and/or visual arts).

School's Arts Program Description

This school has submitted the following description of its arts program:
Brooklyn Institute for Liberal Arts opened in September 2012 and is still in the process of creating a strong arts program. This year, we were able to expand our arts program because we had the budget to hire both an art and a music teacher. During this 3rd year of our program, we offered visual art classes to all of our 9th, 10th and 11th grade students. Students were exposed to a variety of art media and processes: creating 2D and 3D artworks to express ideas and feelings; developing a proficiency in terminology and techniques related to areas of art; developing the ability to understand and use the elements and principles of art and recognizing art as a means of communication. Students created numerous pieces of art, including self-portraits, which we put on display throughout the school. In music classes, students in all grades learned to play a variety of instruments and formed a school band. This band performed at our school concert and will perform in several of our end-of year activities. Students also attended a variety of arts programs at places like BAM and Carnegie Hall. For the 2015-2016 school year, we plan to further develop our visual arts and music program, and create a dance and theater program too. We have applied for grants in hopes of getting funding to enable us to get teaching artists and equipment to support these goals. Our students are eager to be involved with the arts and we hope we get the funding to support their interests and learning.

Notes

- The Annual Arts in Schools Report is based on schools' responses to the 2014-2015 NYCDOE Annual Arts Education Survey as well as from NYCDOE databases.
- Data on arts instruction provided by school-based teachers to students in Kindergarten through sixth grade were retrieved from the NYCDOE Scheduling, Transcripts, and Academic Reporting System (STARS) database.
- Data on sixth through twelfth grade students participating in arts classes; high school sequences; the NYSED middle school arts requirement; and the NYSED high school arts requirements were retrieved from the NYCDOE STARS database.
- Full-time certified teacher data were retrieved from the NYCDOE Division of Human Resources.
- All data are based on arts instruction offered during the school day. This Annual Arts in Schools Report does not report on after school, weekend, and summer arts education.
- Throughout this report, a blank field represents "none" or no data provided.

Definitions

- "Pull-out" programs refer to those school day instructional activities that are scheduled for groupings of students across a grade or grades and not by official class.
- An Individualized Education Plan (IEP) describes the special education and related services specifically designed to meet the unique educational needs of a student with a disability. An IEP is the guiding document for a student's educational program. It includes all of the goals, objectives, present levels of performance and related services that are recommended for the student.
