

NAEP

National Assessment of Educational Progress

2005 Trial Urban District Assessment New York City Science Highlights

November 15, 2006

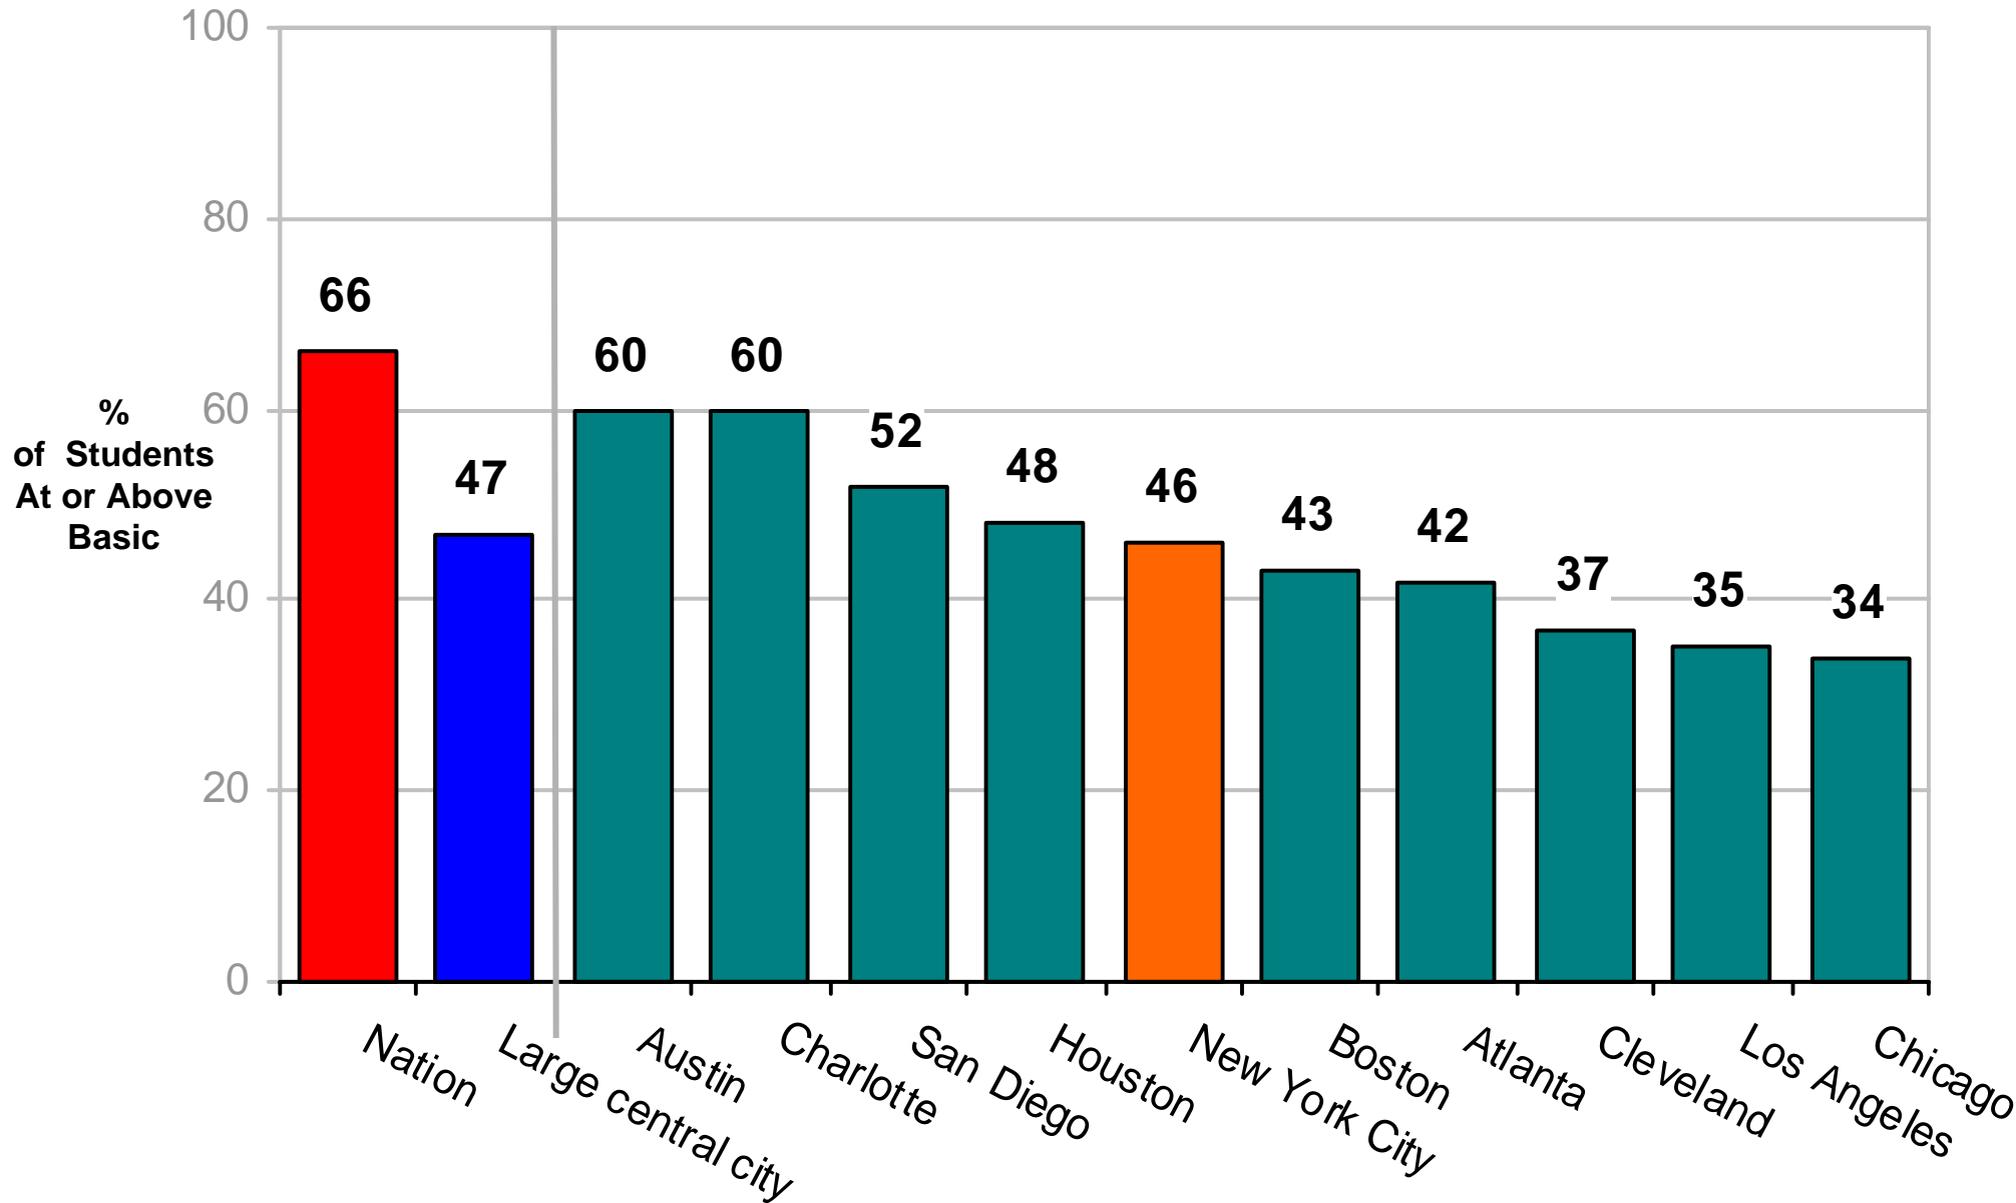

Grade 4
SCIENCE

2005 Trial Urban District Assessment

Achievement-Level Results in Grade 4 Science by Urban District

Percent At or Above Basic

All Students

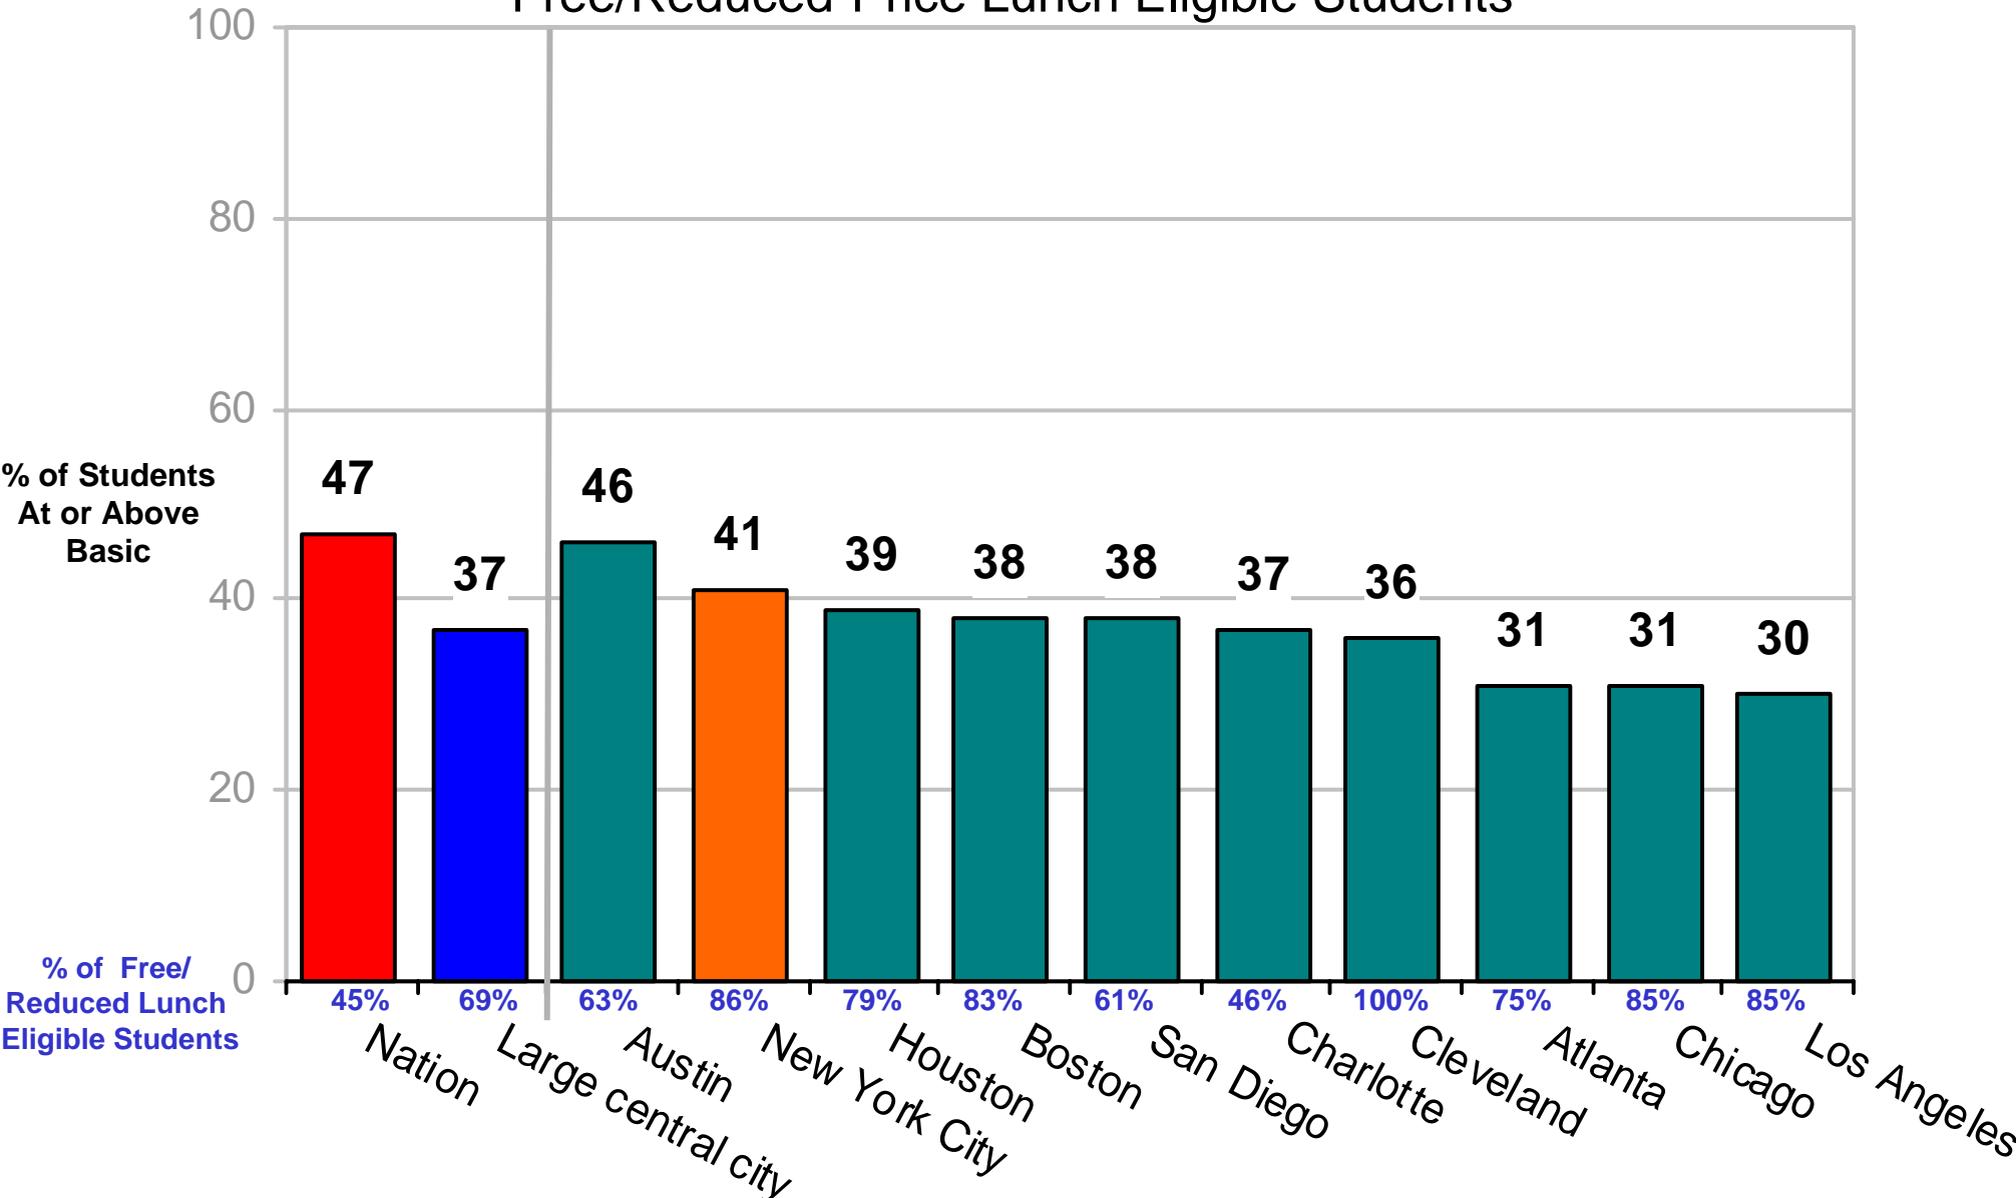

NOTE: Large central city is defined as a city with minimum population of 250,000.

2005 Trial Urban District Assessment

Achievement-Level Results in Grade 4 Science by Urban District

Percent At or Above Basic

Free/Reduced-Price Lunch Eligible Students

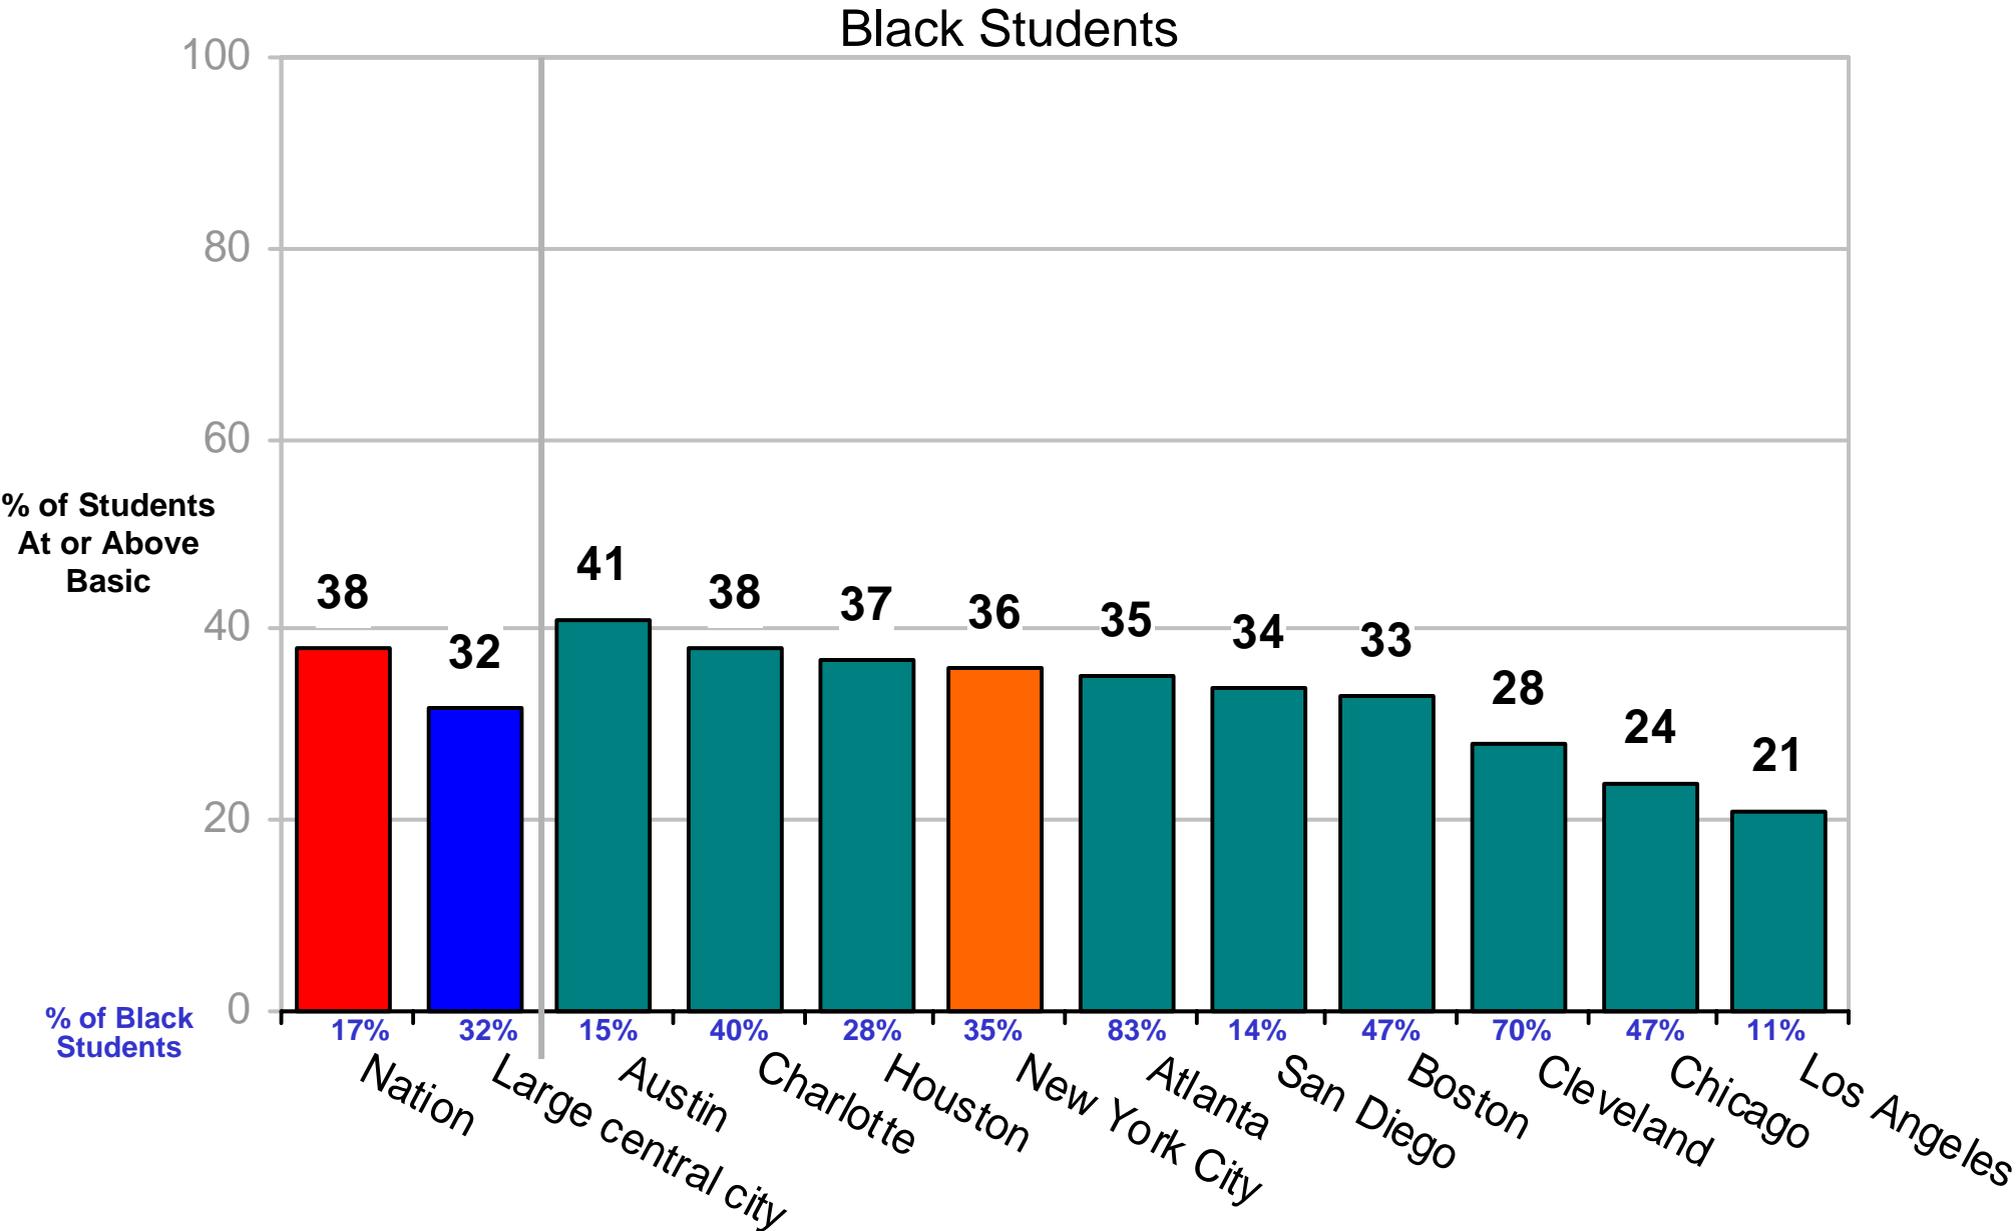

NOTE: Large central city is defined as a city with minimum population of 250,000.

2005 Trial Urban District Assessment

Achievement-Level Results in Grade 4 Science by Urban District

Percent At or Above Basic

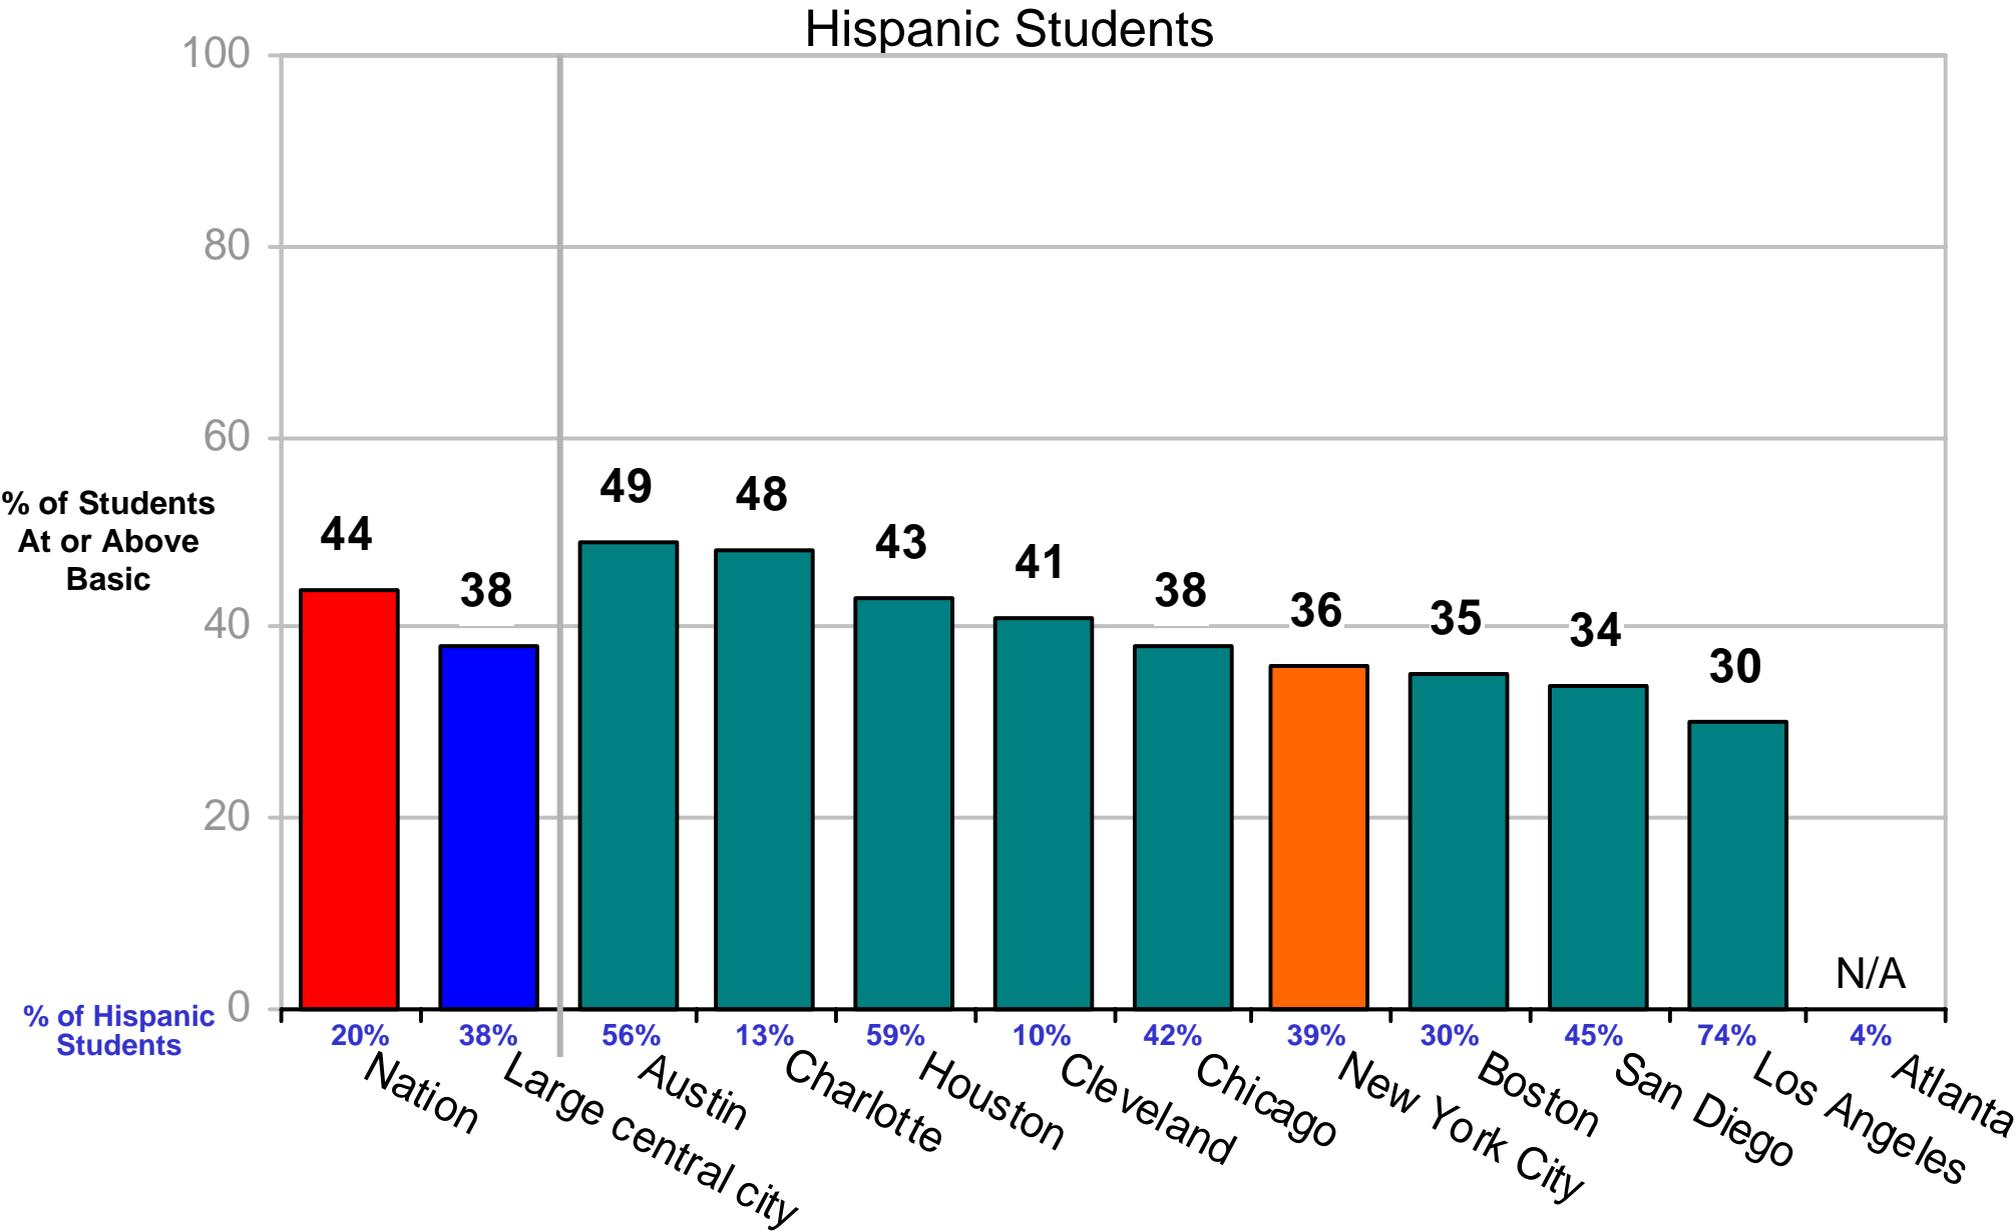

NOTE: Large central city is defined as a city with minimum population of 250,000.

2005 Trial Urban District Assessment

Achievement-Level Results in Grade 4 Science by Urban District

Percent At or Above Basic

NOTE: Large central city is defined as a city with minimum population of 250,000.

Grade 8
SCIENCE

2005 Trial Urban District Assessment

Achievement-Level Results in Grade 8 Science by Urban District

Percent At or Above Basic

All Students

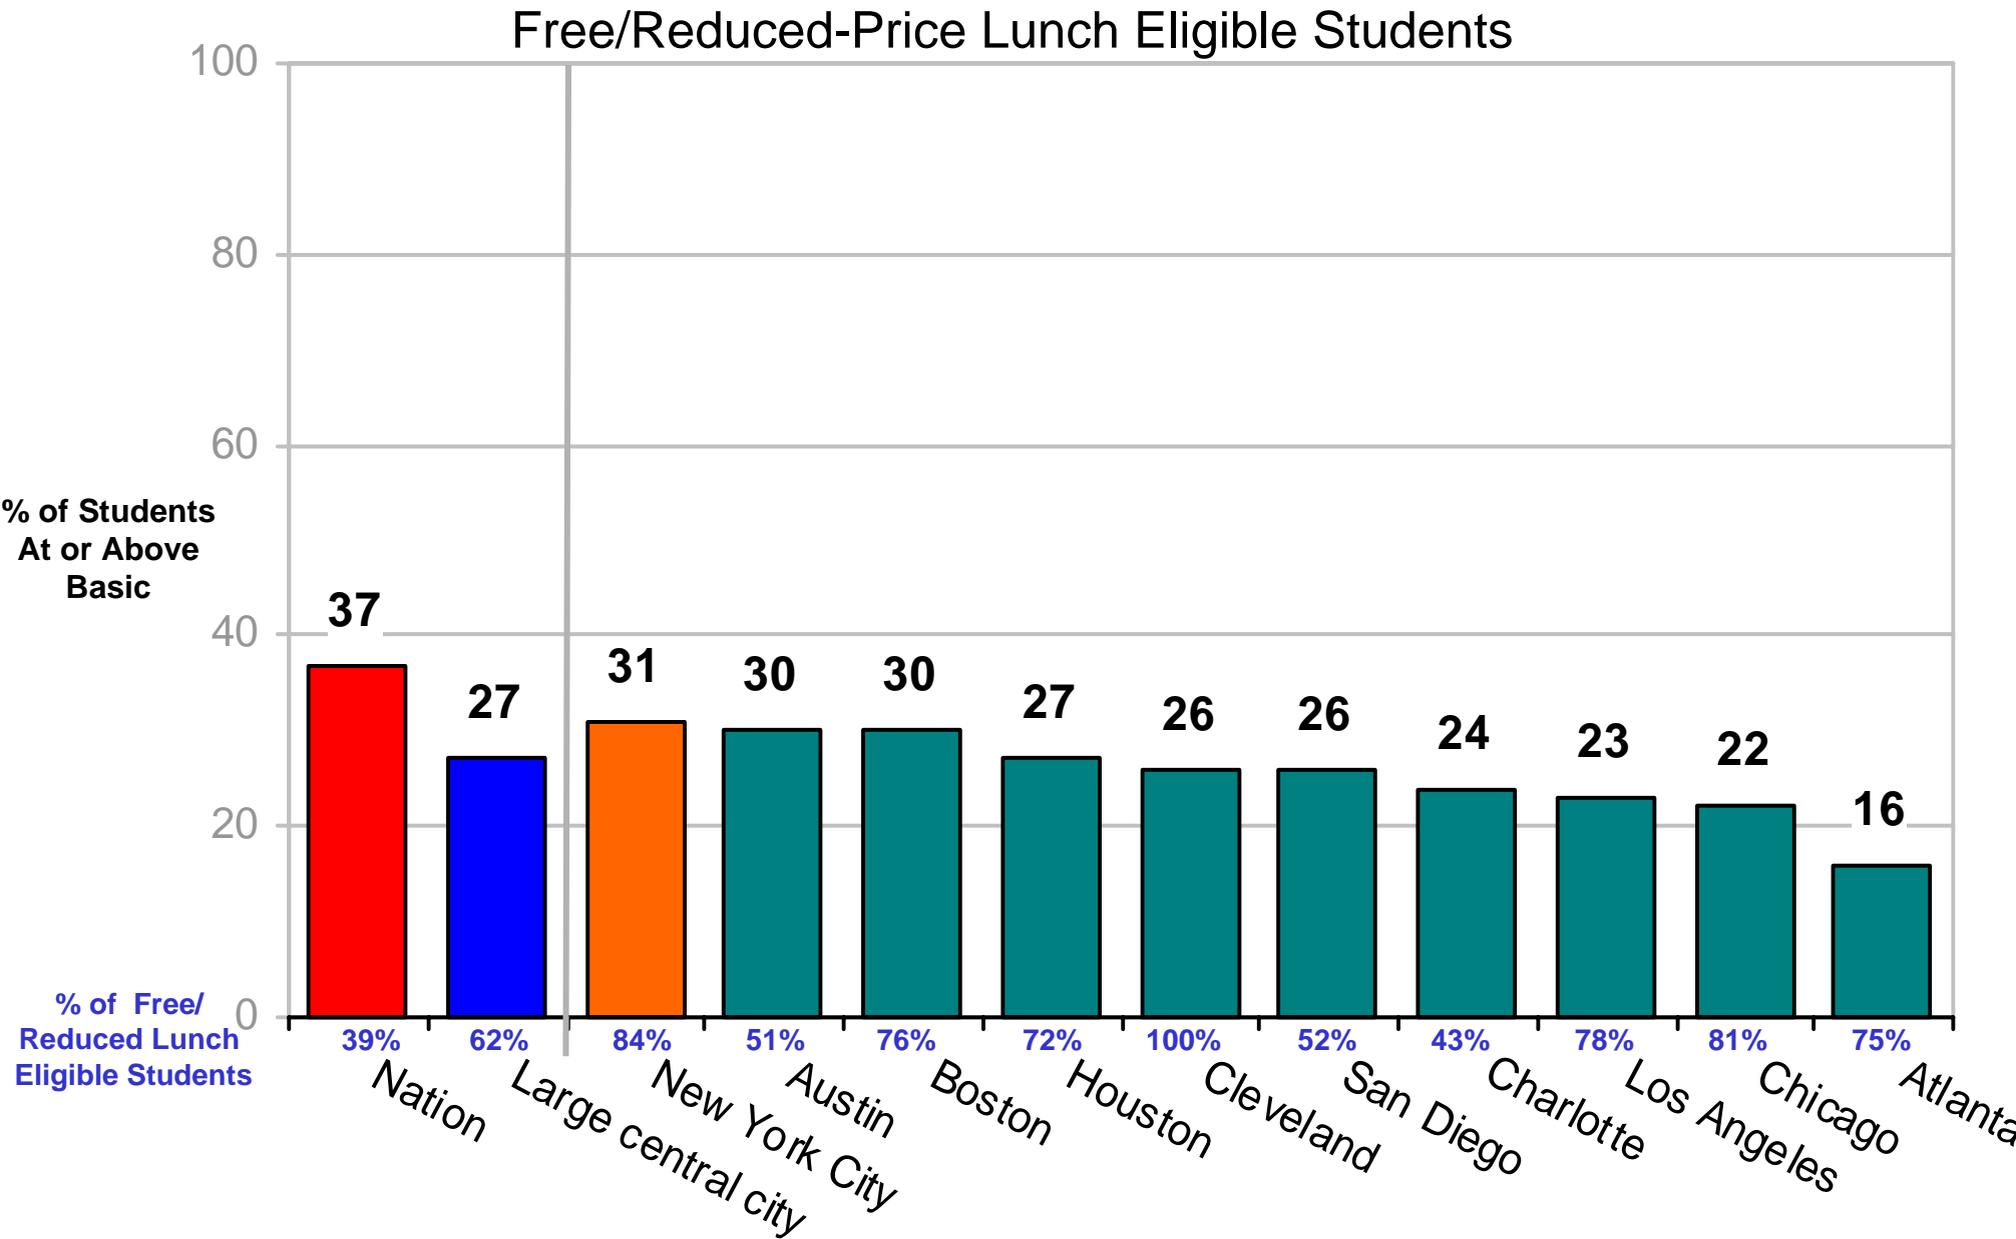

NOTE: Large central city is defined as a city with minimum population of 250,000.

2005 Trial Urban District Assessment

Achievement-Level Results in Grade 8 Science by Urban District

Percent At or Above Basic

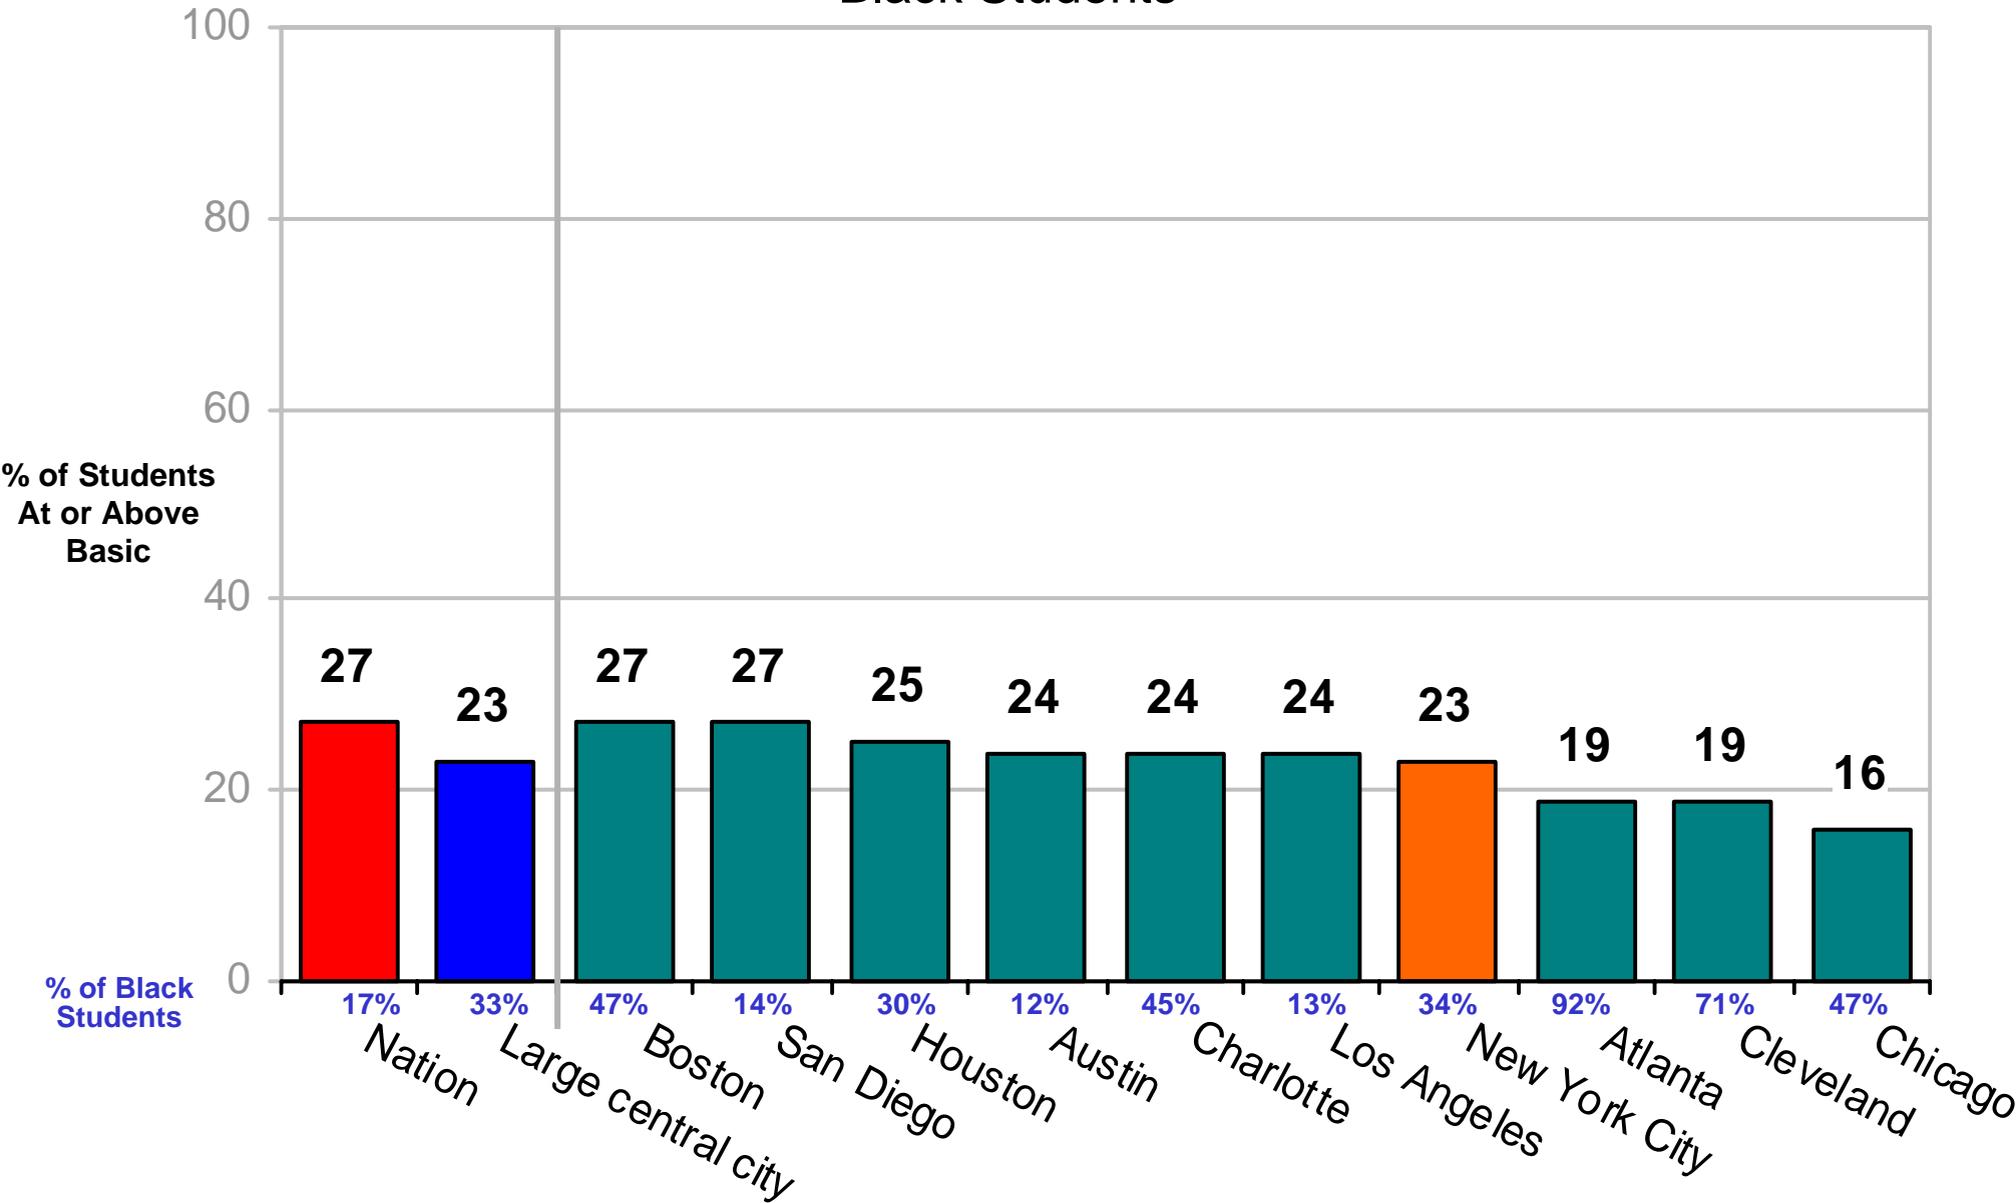

NOTE: Large central city is defined as a city with minimum population of 250,000.

2005 Trial Urban District Assessment

Achievement-Level Results in Grade 8 Science by Urban District

Percent At or Above Basic

Black Students

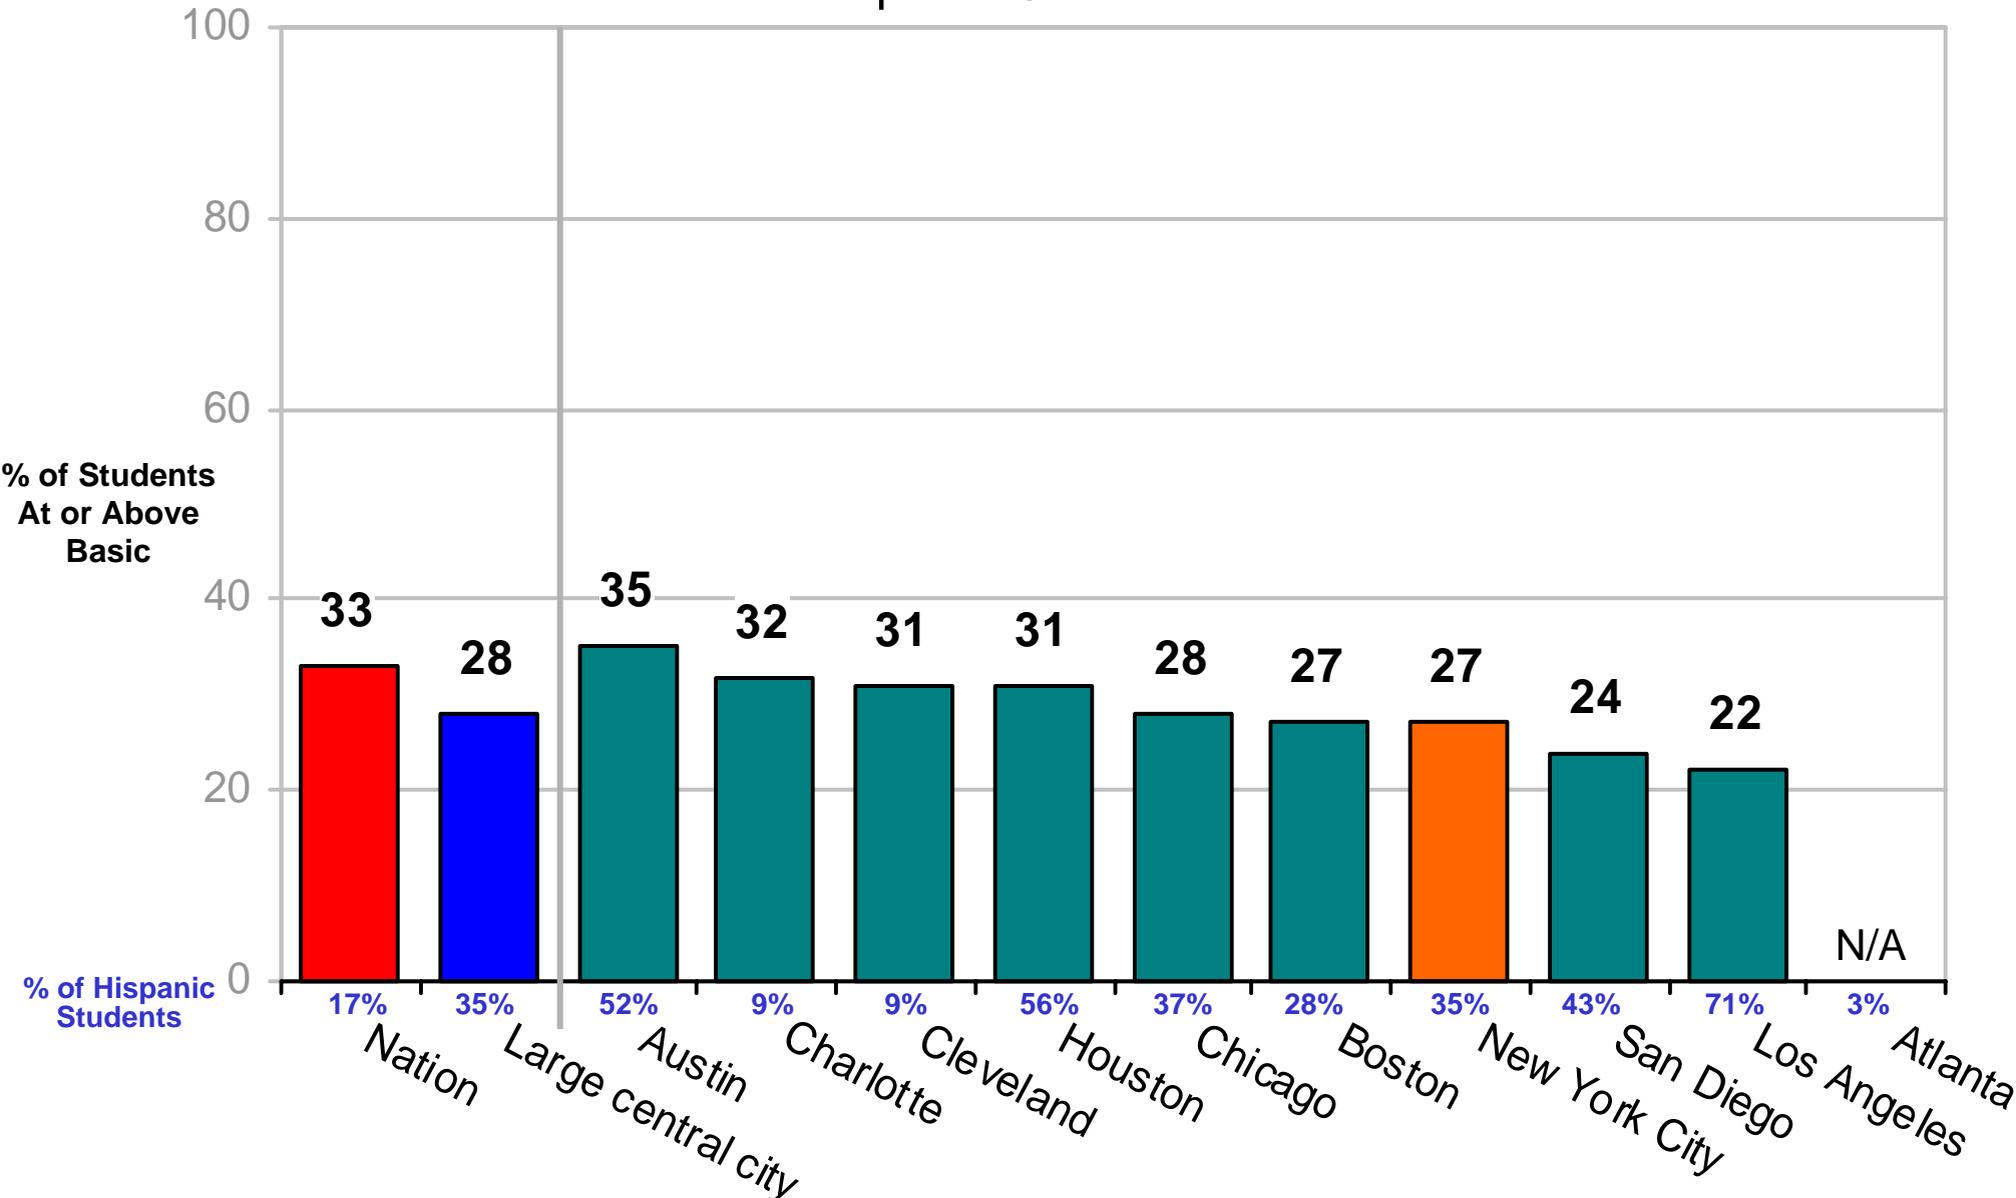

NOTE: Large central city is defined as a city with minimum population of 250,000.

2005 Trial Urban District Assessment

Achievement-Level Results in Grade 8 Science by Urban District

Percent At or Above Basic

Hispanic Students

NOTE: Large central city is defined as a city with minimum population of 250,000.