

What documents do I need to enroll my child in a LYFE childcare center?

To enroll your child, you will need:

- Birth certificates for you and your child
- Medical examination forms and immunization records for your child

Staff at your school, LYFE program site, or Referral Centers can help you enroll your child and answer any questions you may have. In some cases, your child can go to the LYFE childcare site while your paperwork is sorted out.

Who can I speak to if I have other questions?

If you have any questions, contact any of the following:

- Staff at your school
- A LYFE program site
- The Referral Center in your borough
- District 79, Office of Student Support Services

If you can't get through to a Referral Center, call or email:

What is the LYFE program?

Who can enroll their children in LYFE?

Only students currently enrolled in and attending a NYC public school can use LYFE's childcare services. Staff can confirm whether you are a NYC public school student.

Did you know?

LYFE is free for students enrolled in a NYC Department of Education school or program.

How old does my child have to be to enroll in LYFE?

You can enroll your child as soon as s/he is fully immunized (at the earliest, eight weeks old). Your child can stay at the LYFE program site until the end of the school year in which s/he turns three years old.

How do I enroll my child in LYFE?

There are three ways to enroll your child. Try the following steps in this order:

- Speak to a staff member at your school about LYFE
- Use the locations in the LYFE center program directory to find the LYFE center that is easiest for you to get to and from while going to school. Walk-ins are accepted.
- Call the Referral Center in your borough and say you have a question about LYFE

LYFE helps students stay on track to graduation while supporting their transition to parenthood.

Certified teachers and caregivers at each LYFE childcare site provide safe, nurturing and meaningful learning experiences for infants and toddlers—and help their parents do the same at home. On-site social workers offer support services to student parents, such as counseling and referrals to social, health and community agencies.

What do I do if my school doesn't have a LYFE program site or if the program site I want to use is full?

If your school doesn't have a LYFE program site or if the one you want to use is full, you should find another program site that is easiest for you to get to and from while going to school.

- Ask a staff member at your school to help you reach out
- Go to <http://schools.nyc.gov> and type "LYFE program directory" into the search box
- Refer to the LYFE program directory
- Call the Referral Center in your borough
