

Get Ready for Kindergarten during the summer

Take advantage of opportunities in NYC to help your child prepare for kindergarten through engaging activities!

Visit New York City libraries, parks and museums this summer to engage in fun learning activities with your child.

For library information, visit:

www.npyl.org

www.bklynlibrary.org

www.queenslibrary.org

To locate a New York City Parks and Recreation facility, visit:

www.nycgovparks.org

To locate various museums, visit:

www.nycgo.com

For suggested activities, visit:

<http://schools.nyc.gov/preklearn>

<http://schools.nyc.gov/ParentsFamilies/BreakActivities>

* Standard admission fees may apply.

Summer Break Passbook of Activities

This list serves as a guide for you to think about activities to engage in with your child. You are not limited to any of these activities and we encourage you to be creative in exposing your child to new positive experiences.

- Visit a science museum
- Visit an art museum
- Attend age appropriate theatre performances
- Visit a library
- Visit a park
- Visit a zoo
- Visit an aquarium
- Visit a botanical garden
- Ride on a ferry
- Ride on a subway or train
- Go to a parade
- Go to a street festival/fair
- Visit every borough
- Take a picture in front of monuments
- Visit an art gallery
- Go to the farmers market
- Visit another neighborhood
- Try a new cuisine

After each activity, be sure to make a keepsake with your child (drawing, writing, painting, video, retelling, etc.). This will encourage your child to recall the experience in a personal way.

