1.0 HOW DO I PARTICIPATE IN HIGH SCHOOL ADMISSIONS?

There are two paths that students may take to receive a high school offer through the High School Admissions process—the first is to over 700 programs at over 400 high schools and the second is to nine Specialized High Schools.

- Required
  - High School Application
    - 700+ Programs at 400+ High Schools
    - Receive High School Application from guidance counselor.
    - Complete Application by listing 12 programs in order of preference. Return to counselor.
    - 1 Offer*

- Optional
  - Specialized High Schools
    - 8 Testing Schools and LaGuardia
    - Register for SHSAT/audition: receive ticket(s) from guidance counselor.
    - Take SHSAT
    - Audition
    - 1 Offer*
    - 1-6 Offers*

The first path is the High School Application, which every student uses to apply to over 700 programs at over 400 high schools.

- You can receive your High School Application in October.
- You complete it by writing the 12 programs you’d like to apply to on the application.
- All eighth-grade students that are planning on attending a NYC Department of Education high school must submit a High School Application.

The second path is for the nine Specialized High Schools.

- Eight of them take top-scoring students on the Specialized High Schools Admissions Test (SHSAT).
- The ninth Specialized High School, Fiorello H. LaGuardia High School of Music & Art and Performing Arts, requires an audition in a talent area and also reviews academic achievement.

If a student receives offers from both paths, he/she must choose only one. *if applicable

1.1 Who Is Eligible to Participate in High School Admissions?

In order to be eligible to participate in the High School Admissions process, you, as a student, must be a New York City resident during the entire application process. Eighth-grade and first-time ninth-grade New York City residents can participate.

1.2 How Do I Receive and Submit a High School Application?

If you are eligible to participate, you can receive a paper copy of the High School Application in October. Applications are only available from school guidance counselors or a Family Welcome Center. (See Section 7.6 “Family Welcome Centers” or the inside of the back cover for Family Welcome Center locations.)
You must complete this paper application, listing 12 high school programs in order of preference, and return it to your guidance counselor by December 1, 2016. Request an application receipt from your school. (The receipt confirms that all the choices you listed on your application were submitted.) Make sure that the application information on the receipt is correct.

What happens if I am a(n)...

...eighth-grade student at a NYC public (Department of Education or charter) school?
☐ Your guidance counselor will give you a High School Application.
☐ Your application will come printed with your information and seventh grade academic record. Review that all information is correct. If anything is inaccurate, please tell your guidance counselor immediately.

...first-time ninth-grade student?
☐ Tell your guidance counselor you’d like an application.
☐ Review this directory to see which schools offer 10th grade seats. Schools that offer 10th grade seats for any program have this icon ⭕ on the top of their school pages.
☐ Check the “Program Admissions” section on the bottom of the page to learn which programs offer 10th grade seats and how many seats each program offers. Not all programs have 10th grade seats available—if you receive an admissions offer for 10th grade, you have the option of accepting the offer or staying in your current school.

...private or parochial school student?
☐ Eighth and first-time ninth-grade private and parochial school students who live in New York City are eligible to participate in High School Admissions.
☐ Work with your school guidance counselor to receive a High School Application and to make sure your previous year’s report card grades, standardized reading and math test scores, and attendance record are on the application.

...new student?
☐ If you recently moved to New York City or transferred to a different New York City school during the High School Application period, speak with your school guidance counselor to make sure that all of your application information (report card grades, standardized test scores, and attendance record from the previous year) has been submitted with your program choices before the deadline.

1.3 How Do I Register for the Specialized High Schools Admissions Test or LaGuardia High School Auditions?

If you are interested in applying to any of the Specialized High Schools, tell your guidance counselor that you want to take the Specialized High Schools Admissions Test (SHSAT) and/or audition for LaGuardia High School. (At the start of the school year, your school may ask you to fill out the “Specialized High Schools Survey” to express your interest in the SHSAT or LaGuardia High School audition). Your counselor should then sign you up, give you a receipt, and then give you a test/audition ticket(s) by mid-October. The test/audition ticket(s) will tell you your test/audition dates, times, and locations. Test and audition dates are during late-October or November.
Taking the test or auditioning means you have applied. Offers to testing Specialized High Schools are made to students based upon their SHSAT scores, how they ranked the Specialized High Schools, and seat availability. Please see the Specialized High Schools Student Handbook for more information on applying to the Specialized High Schools.

2.1 School Overview

Use the school overview to learn about a school's vision and what makes it different from other schools. Use the icons to the right to learn if the school is a certain type and has unique programs or requirements.

GLOSSARY

Early College: Early College schools blend a rigorous college-prep curriculum with the opportunity to earn up to two years of college credit while in high school at no cost to students. These schools maintain a partnership with a college to provide academic and social supports to help students develop the knowledge and skills needed to succeed in college.

NYC 9-14 School: These early college and career schools, also called NYC P-TECH schools (Pathways in Technology Early College High School), offer a six-year program where students earn a high school diploma, gain valuable work-based learning experiences, and can earn a no-cost Associate’s degree (or up to two years of college credits). An NYC P-TECH 9-14 school’s curriculum is designed around a specific career theme in collaboration with industry and community college partners. Through these partnerships, students may begin taking tuition-free college degree classes as early as 10th grade in addition to their high school core and CTE classes. They will also have ongoing career awareness, exploration, and preparation activities to develop workplace skills, including hands-on work and internship experiences. Students graduating from NYC P-TECH 9-14 schools will be prepared to go into the workforce and/or continue their postsecondary education with transferable credits.

Performance Assessment School: Graduation requirements for these schools include the successful completion of performance assessments in major subject areas instead of passing certain Regents exams. Typically these assessments involve extensive research projects, presentations, and defense of students’ work. Performance Assessment schools have a waiver from the New York State Education Department permitting them to award diplomas to students who earn the required course credits and complete the following assessments:

- Students at schools that are part of the New York Performance Standards Consortium are required to pass the English Language Arts Regents and complete performance assessments in science, social studies, and math.

- Students at other Performance Assessment schools are required to pass the English Language Arts and Math Regents and complete performance assessments in science and social studies.

School for New Arrivals: Before you apply to these schools, review the Admissions Priorities and Selection Criteria. These schools, including schools within the Internationals Network for Public Schools, serve students who are new to the country. All have requirements regarding home language, English proficiency, and/or the amount of time they have spent in the United States.
a student has lived in the United States. If your first language is English or if you speak English fluently, you should not apply to a School for New Arrivals.

Specialized High School: Specialized High Schools offer a broad liberal arts curriculum in addition to courses in their area of specialization. Eight of the nine Specialized High Schools require that students take the Specialized High Schools Admissions Test (SHSAT) for admissions consideration; the other Specialized High School—Fiorello H. LaGuardia High School of Music & Art and Performing Arts (LaGuardia High School)—requires that students audition instead of taking the SHSAT. LaGuardia High School also reviews the prior school year’s academic record and attendance information. The Specialized High Schools Student Handbook offers more information about each school and explains how to register for the SHSAT and LaGuardia High School auditions. It also describes LaGuardia High School audition requirements and contains a practice SHSAT. In September 2016, if you are interested in applying to any of the Specialized High Schools, tell your guidance counselor that you want to take the SHSAT and/or audition for LaGuardia High School. Your counselor should then sign you up and give you a test and/or audition ticket, which will indicate your test and/or audition date, time, and location.

Transfer School: If you are 16 to 21 years old and have fallen behind in credits or left school for an extended period of time, there are options to get you back on track toward graduation. Some schools accept students who are 15 years old. To learn more about how to earn your high school diploma at a transfer school or Young Adult Borough Center, or for more information about earning a high school equivalency diploma, please see the Additional Ways to Graduate Directory online at goingforme.org.

10th Grade Seats Also Offered: These schools have 10th grade seats available. First-time ninth-grade students may apply to these seats and are selected using the same Admissions Method as students applying to the ninth grade seats. These seats may only be available at certain programs within a school. Check the “Program Admissions” section at the bottom of the school page to see which programs offer 10th-grade seats. (All high schools offer ninth grade seats.) All first-time ninth-grade students may apply for 10th grade seats at Specialized High Schools.

School Offerings: Percentage of students who feel the school offers a wide enough variety of programs, classes, and activities to keep them interested in school as reported on the NYC School Survey. City Average 76%

College and Career Programs: Percentage of students who graduated from high school four years after they entered ninth grade and then enrolled in college, a vocational program, or a public service program within six months of graduation. City Average 53%

School Safety: Percentage of students who feel safe in the hallways, bathrooms, locker room, and cafeteria as reported on the NYC School Survey. City Average 84%

Additionally, the New York State Education Department (NYSED) determines the accountability status of schools based on its own set of measures. For more information about New York State Accountability, visit the NYSED website (data.nysed.gov).

2.7 Program Admissions

Review program information to determine which ones you should list on your application and learn how likely you are to receive an offer to a program.

When you fill out the High School Application, you are not just applying to schools, you are applying to programs.

- You can think of programs as “doorways” through which schools accept students.
- If a school has multiple programs, eligible students may apply to one program or more than one program at that school.
- Programs at the same school may have different Admissions Priorities and Admissions Methods. You may decide to apply to one program over another based on its admissions.

Code: To apply to a program, you must write this code on your High School Application.

Interest Area: This tells you about the types of classes and opportunities you may have in this program.

To learn about program admissions and how offers are determined (including seats, Admissions Methods, and Admissions Priorities), please visit Section 3.0 “How Are High School Offers Determined?”

Stop & Learn  This is the end of Section 2.0 “How Do I Use the High School Directory?” Complete the activity “High School Directory Scavenger Hunt” before you move on to the next section.

3.0 HOW ARE HIGH SCHOOL OFFERS DETERMINED?

Information on each of these factors that determine high school offers can be found in the “Program Admissions” section of each school page. Read this section to learn about each of these factors and to get tips on how to apply.

STUDENT FACTORS

- Choices on Application
  - The 12 programs listed on the application AND the order in which they are listed.

- Student Information
  - Student’s academic record, audition, and/or address.
  - (Only for some programs)

PROGRAM FACTORS

- Admissions Priorities
  - The order in which applicants are considered.

- Admissions Methods
  - How programs consider and match with applicants.

- Seat Availability
  - The number of seats available for applicants.

Students should list 12 programs on their application.

- Listing fewer than 12 programs works against you by making it less likely that you will receive an offer from your application.

- Listing fewer than 12 programs does not increase your chance of matching with a top choice.

- 97% of students who listed 12 programs on their application received an offer to a choice on their application.
Students should list programs on their application in their true order of preference starting with their top choice.

- High Schools cannot see where you list them.
- Where you list a school on your application does not affect your chances of being considered.

3.1 Admissions Priorities

Admissions Priorities determine the order that applicants are considered for placement for each program. This means students are considered in groups. All students in the first priority group will be considered first. If seats are available, students in the second priority group will be considered next, and so on.
Let’s review an example of Admissions Priorities from a school page.

This means that priority group 1 is all continuing eighth graders that listed S34A (Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics) on their application. These students will be considered before priority group 2, which is all Bronx students or residents who listed this program on their application. This also tells us that 60% of offers during the previous year went to continuing eighth graders.

Here are common Admissions Priorities used to determine offers.

<tr>

</tr>

3.2 Eligibility

Some programs are only open to certain students. You must meet the eligibility requirements in order to apply. Eligibility requirements might be based on where you live, your gender, your home language, or other factors. Eligibility requirements are listed in the “Program Admission” section for each program and also underneath the school overview.
3.3 Seats

Review the number of available seats in a program and the number of applicants for those seats. The number of applicants per seat will affect your chance of being matched.

Admissions Priorities: 1. Priority to continuing 8th graders – 60% of offers went to this group 2. Then to Bronx students or residents

Program Description: Comprehensive CTE program that includes rigorous study in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics fields. Includes work-based learning experiences with partner organizations, including local hospitals and engineering firms.

Selection Criteria:
- Course Grades: English (85-100), Math (80-100), Social Studies (90-100), Science (85-100)
- Standardized Test Scores: English Language Arts (2.9-4.5), Math (3.2-4.5)
- Attendance and Punctuality

Each high school program has a specific number of seats available for incoming students. Available seats are divided into two groups.

- One group of seats is reserved for students who are part of the general education population and students who receive special education instructional programming for 20% or less of their academic program (GE).
- The second group of seats is for students who receive special education instructional programming for more than 20% of their academic program (SWD).

Student applications will be automatically assigned to one group of seats. For students with disabilities, this is based on their current Individualized Education Program (IEP). The number of seats in each group is based on the percentage of students with disabilities in that school’s borough.

Seats groupings are used for admissions purposes only—all students with IEPs will receive services. The number of available seats for each group of students in the prior year is shown next to each program.

Programs that filled all seats in Round 1 of the prior year admissions are marked with a “Y” in the Program Admissions section.

TIP

List some programs with six or fewer applicants per seat to increase your chances of receiving an offer from your application.

3.4 Admissions Methods

Admissions Methods determine the way students are selected to receive an offer to a particular high school program. Keep reading for a list of all methods and note that Admissions Methods change by program, so a school with more than one program may have different admissions methods for each program. Each program’s Admissions Method can be found on the school page in the “Program Admissions” section.
Audition: These programs rank students based on their performance in an audition that evaluates how strong they are in a specific performing arts and/or visual arts area. Audition requirements, dates, and times are included on the school pages. Some Audition programs may also consider students’ academic performance and attendance from the prior school year.

Educational Option (Ed. Opt.): Educational Option programs are meant to serve students having a wide range of academic levels. These programs admit students who have high, middle, and low reading levels. Half of the students in each reading level group will be selected based on their rankings from the school using multiple criteria. The other half will be selected randomly from the remaining applicants.

Limited Unscreened: Limited Unscreened programs give priority to students who demonstrate interest in the school by attending a school’s information session(s), open house event(s), or by visiting the school’s table at any one of the High School Fairs. You must sign in at these events to receive priority to the school’s Limited Unscreened program(s). Within priority groups, students are randomly selected.

Screened: These programs rank students based on criteria that may include final report card grades, ELA and math standardized test scores, and attendance and punctuality from the prior school year. Each Screened program may also list additional requirements that are considered, such as an interview, essay, on-site exam, or demonstrated interest in the school (such as attendance at an Open House or other school visit) in the selection criteria section of the directory.

Screened: Language: These programs provide services for students with a minimum level of English language acquisition. Admission is based on a student’s level of knowledge of the English language and, in some cases, on home language. English Language Learners have priority for these programs.

Screened: Language & Academics: Programs listed as Screened: Language & Academics are similar to Screened: Language programs but also review final report card grades and standardized test scores.

Test: Test programs require students to take the Specialized High Schools Admissions Test (SHSAT) for entrance. Eight of the Specialized High Schools are the only schools that require the SHSAT. For more information, please review the Specialized High Schools Student Handbook or see Section 1.3 “How Do I Register for the Specialized High Schools Admissions Test or LaGuardia High School Auditions?”

Unscreened: Students who apply to Unscreened programs are randomly selected from the entire applicant pool.

Zoned: Zoned programs admit students who live in a geographically designated area. To determine if you are zoned to a high school, enter your address in the School Search tool at nyc.gov/schools/SchoolSearch or call 311. There are two types of zoned programs:

- Zoned Priority: Programs that give priority to students who apply and live in the zoned area of the school. Admission to these programs is based on seats. This means that even if you are zoned to this school, you may not be matched there if there are more applicants than available seats.

- Zoned Guarantee: Programs that guarantee admission to students who apply and live in the zoned area of the high school. Admission to these programs is granted if the applicant does not match to any of the programs listed above it on his or her application.

Guaranteed Offers: Students who are eligible for a Zoned Guarantee program or a continuing school are guaranteed to receive an offer from that program if they do not match to anything higher on their application. You should rank a guaranteed program after any other program you prefer. To see if you have a guaranteed program, check your High School Application.

3.5 Selection Criteria

Selection criteria are what Screened, Audition, and Ed. Opt. programs look at when considering students. Some schools might list additional requirements, such as an interview.

Programs that consider course grades and state exams will show the ranges for students who received offers in recent years. These ranges are for students who received offers to ninth-grade seats, and who were part of the general education (GE) seat group. Ranges for students who received offers and were part of the students with disabilities (SWD) seat group may be different. Ranges may vary from year-to-year, depending on the applicants to each program. (Note that programs with small incoming classes may not display ranges.)

- Programs with a Screened, Audition, or Ed. Opt. Admissions Method use rubrics to determine how to rank students. These rubrics explain how schools review each of the selection criteria components and can include more specific information about requirements such as demonstrated interest. Reading through these rubrics can help you understand the expectations that screened programs have for students, and your chances of being ranked by the school. Reach out to a school directly to learn about its rubric.

- If there are not enough applicants who meet a school’s published selection criteria, or if a school does not rank enough applicants to fill their seats, the Office of Student Enrollment may make additional offers to students based on academic performance and other criteria relevant to the program.

- For any program with an academic screen, New York State ELA and math test results will not be the sole, primary, or major factor in admissions decisions, consistent with New York State law. Instead, multiple measures, which may include State test results, will be used to make admissions decisions for Screened, Audition, or Ed. Opt. programs. Students without test scores are eligible to apply to these programs, and schools have been instructed to develop policies around how to treat these students in admissions decisions. Please reach out to schools directly to learn more about their individual policies.
Contact schools directly for more information regarding their rubrics and admissions policies.

3.6 Get Ready for Your Auditions!

A select group of schools have programs that offer common audition components, indicated by the ★ icon in each program grid. These programs all share the same audition components so if students prepare for one, they may be ready to audition at another participating program.

<td>Vocal Music</td>
<td>Perform a song in a medium key that you have prepared and bring the sheet music. Song recommendations may also be listed on schools’ websites. Vocal singers will also be asked to repeat vocal phrases to test rhythm, tonal memory, and basic vocal technique. Ability to incorporate directions from teacher will be considered.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Drama / Theater Arts / Performing Arts</td>
<td>Perform two contrasting monologues (one minute each). Perform an on-demand dramatic or movement activity (e.g. impromptu reading from provided script or improvisation). Wear attire that allows free movement.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Film</td>
<td>Portfolio including two storyboards (each a minimum of ten frames each) depicting a scene from imagination and a 250-word essay describing your interest in filmmaking. At the audition, students will be given a description of a short action and will be asked to draw a storyboard on the sport. Optional: Submit a sample of any film or films you have participated in. Films should be submitted on a USB thumb drive, in .mov or .mp4 format. Describe your role in the making of the film on in an accompanying written statement.</td>

Asking Questions at High School Events

When you speak with a school representative at a fair or open house, try to ask one question from each box. Create your own questions to learn more about a school.

My Question: ________________________________
4.0 HOW DO I LEARN MORE ABOUT SCHOOLS AND PROGRAMS?

After you’ve explored schools and programs using the High School Directory, start planning your visits to high school fairs and open houses.

4.1 Citywide and Borough Fairs

Attend the High School Fairs in the fall. At these events, you can meet with representatives from different schools on the same day, in the same place. Visit nyc.gov/schools/high for the latest news on fair dates and locations. Remember to sign-in at the table of each school you talk with; signing in will increase your chance of receiving an offer from schools with a “Limited Unscreened” Admissions Method.

4.2 School Visits

Make time to visit schools! Contact schools directly to find out if they have special events, open houses, or student-guided tours. Talk to the principal, teachers, and current students and test the commute. Use our Information Session Calendar at nyc.gov/schools/high to see school Information Session or Open House dates. (If you don’t see a school on the Information Session Calendar, be sure reach out to the school directly.)

You can visit schools with your parents/guardian, older siblings, or family friends. Talk with your guidance counselor to learn about opportunities to visit schools. If other students at your school are interested in visiting the same high school, visit together and compare notes later.

TIP

School Visits: When visiting schools, always:
1. Sign in clearly, because some programs will use this to move you to a higher priority group
2. Ask questions.

Stop & Learn This is the end of Section 4.0 “How Do I Learn More About Schools and Programs?” Complete the activity “Asking Questions at High School Events” before you move on to the next section.
5.0 WHAT MAKES A GOOD HIGH SCHOOL APPLICATION?

Applications are due to guidance counselors by December 1, 2016. Make sure you have carefully and correctly entered all program codes and that your parent or guardian has signed the application. Request a receipt from your guidance counselor, and make sure all information on it is correct.

☐ You should rank programs that you believe will help you learn and grow.
  ▪ Think about your interests, your learning needs, and how you’d get to and from the school.
  ▪ Talk with your family, guidance counselor, and teachers about your application choices.

☐ You should rank 12 programs on your application.
  ▪ Listing fewer than 12 works against you by making it less likely you receive an offer from your application.

☐ You should list programs in your true order of preference starting with your top choice.
  ▪ High Schools cannot see where you list them.
  ▪ High Schools should not ask where you’ve listed them, or insist that you list them first.
  ▪ If you are not matched with a top-choice school, you are at no disadvantage when being considered by a school lower on your application.

☐ If you are applying to “reach” programs, be sure to include “target” or “likely-match” programs on your application.
  ▪ If you have a guaranteed program, you should strongly consider putting it on your application after other programs you’d prefer.

6.0 WHEN DO I RECEIVE MY HIGH SCHOOL OFFER?

High School Admissions has two rounds. In March 2017, the Department of Education will send each student a letter with their offer from the High School Application and any offers from a testing Specialized High School and/or any of the studios at LaGuardia High School. If you receive multiple offers, you must choose one. These letters mark the end of Round 1.

Round 2 takes place in March 2017 after Round 1 results letters are given out. In Round 2, you can only apply to programs that have availability.

  ▪ Students who didn’t apply in Round 1.

☐ Students will receive or can request a Round 2 application and program list from their guidance counselor in March 2017.

☐ Choose up to 12 programs from the Round 2 program list and submit a new application.

A Round 2 offer replaces a Round 1 Offer. Students will not be able to choose between offers. All eligible students are placed by the end of Round 2.

Stop & Learn  This is the end of Section 6.0 “When Do I Receive My High School Offer?” Complete the activity “Admissions True or False?” before you move onto the next section.

Answers:

1) True – 97% of students who listed 12 programs received an offer to one of the programs on their High School Application.

2) True – Programs with a “Limited Unscreened” Admissions Method move students who have signed in to a higher priority group.

3) True – You can apply to high schools throughout New York City. Check the school’s eligibility to make sure you can apply; learn and think about how long it will take you to get to school each day before you apply.

4) False – You will receive only one offer from your High School Application. Rank programs in your true order of preference; you should only apply to Round 2 if you did not receive an offer from your High School Application.

5) True – You can list as many programs from a school as a top choice.

6) True – Round 1 is your only opportunity to apply to schools when there is complete availability; spend time to explore your options and complete a thoughtful application.

7) False – You should only apply in Round 2 if you don’t have a Round 1 offer or if you prefer a program with Round 2 availability over a program with Round 1 ability.
7.0 ADDITIONAL HIGH SCHOOL ADMISSIONS INFORMATION

7.1 Accessibility
The Department of Education is committed to ensuring that its programs, services, and activities are accessible to staff, members of the school community, students, and family members with disabilities. The Department of Education assesses its buildings on a continuing basis to determine which schools are accessible to individuals with disabilities.

Accessible Schools are located in a fully or partially accessible building where an individual with mobility impairment may enter and access all relevant programs and services, including the science laboratory, library, cafeteria, and the gymnasium; in some cases school programs may need to be re-located to accommodate access. At least one restroom is accessible. For the most up-to-date information on the accessibility of each school, please contact the school directly. Families are encouraged to visit schools to learn about the level of accessibility. For more information, please visit http://schools.nyc.gov/Offices/OSP/Accessibility.

7.2 Career and Technical Education (CTE) Schools
Career and Technical Education (CTE) programs and schools provide students with rigorous academic course work with a sequence of applied skills in a career pathway. CTE programs offer a wide range of industry options for students leading to potential postsecondary and career opportunities. CTE students have the opportunity to earn Advanced Regents diplomas, pursue industry-recognized credentials and additional industry training, and/or receive support entering the workforce.

CTE programs also support progress into employment and/or postsecondary education by offering a final assessment that signifies to employers and educational institutions a mastery of related concepts and skills. Outside of the classroom, students can take part in internships, receive mentoring, and participate in job shadowing and other real life experiences.

Many schools offer dedicated CTE programs. To determine if a school offers a CTE program, refer to the Academics section of a school’s page.

Please visit nyc.gov/schools/ChoicesEnrollment/SpecialPrograms/CTE for a comprehensive list of CTE programs of study or ask schools directly whether they offer any CTE programs. You may also visit www.cte.nyc for additional information.

7.3 Charter Schools
Charter schools, which are founded by not-for-profit Boards of Trustees, are independent public schools that operate under a contract or “charter” of up to five years. Many charter schools have unique educational approaches that may include longer school days, a longer school year, and/or thematic programs. Themes are diverse and can range from special language instruction to an emphasis on arts or science. Any student eligible for admission to a New York City public school is eligible for admission to a public charter school. Interested students or families should contact each charter school directly to receive specific information about the school’s application process. For a list of charter schools, please refer to the back of this directory. Visit schools.nyc.gov/community/charter/infomation/directory.htm or call 212-374-5419 for more information about charter schools in New York City. For information about specific charter schools, contact the schools directly.
7.4 English Language Learners

English Language Learners (ELLs) may apply to any of the programs listed in this directory as all New York City Department of Education schools provide a range of supports and services for ELL students to develop their English proficiency and prepare them for success in school, college, and/or careers. No school may deny admission, registration or enrollment, to a student based on the student’s ELL or perceived ELL status or an ELL student’s ELL proficiency level (as determined by a formal assessment test). There are three different ELL service delivery models offered in New York City public high schools:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Program</th>
<th>Definition</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>English as a New Language (ENL)</td>
<td>English as a New Language programs, which used to be called English as a Second Language or ESL, provide instruction in English with support in the students’ home language so that they can learn to read, write, and speak English. Students in this program can come from many different language backgrounds, and English may be the only common language among them.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE)</td>
<td>Transitional Bilingual Education programs provide reading, writing, and other classes in English and in your child’s home language. As students’ English improves, time spent learning in English increases and time spent learning in the home language decreases. Once your child is no longer identified as an English Language Learner, he or she will exit the program.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dual Language (DL)</td>
<td>In Dual Language programs, students are taught in two languages: English and their home language, such as Spanish, Chinese, or French, among others. The goal of this program is for students to be able to read, write, and speak in both English and their home language. In Dual Language classes, the home language and English are used equally.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

7.5 Special Education Services

Students with disabilities may apply to any high school program listed in this directory. These students should follow the same steps outlined in this directory as their non-disabled peers in order to participate in High School Admissions. They may take the Specialized High Schools Admissions Test (SHSAT) and apply for all screened and audition programs, as well as any other high school programs of interest. If a student’s IEP shows that s/he receives testing accommodations, the accommodations (as long as they do not change what the test or task is measuring) will be provided during the SHSAT administration, school-based screening activities, and auditions. For more information, see this FAQ and presentation on testing accommodations: schools.nyc.gov/Academics/SpecialEducation/Classroom/instruction/accommodations.

Every high school participating in High School Admissions is expected to welcome and serve students with disabilities in accordance with their Individualized Education Programs (IEPs). The IEP team at the high school will review the IEP to ensure that all services and supports are in place. In some cases, the IEP team may meet to refine the IEP to better meet student needs.

High School programs have a group of seats for students whose IEPs specify special education instructional programming for more than 20% of their academic program. Special education instructional programming includes Integrated Co-Teaching (ICT) classes, Special Class (SC), and Special Education Teacher Support Services (SETSS). Related Services, such as speech, occupational therapy (OT), and physical therapy (PT), are not considered special education instructional programming for the purposes of High School Admissions. Seats are used for admissions purposes only; all students with IEPs will receive services.
Students with disabilities who are recommended for and have attended a District 75 program and are considering a high school outside of District 75 should work with their IEP team to determine whether the recommendation for District 75 for high school is still appropriate. If the student’s IEP team determines that the student no longer needs District 75, then the student participates in High School Admissions through the current District 75 school. (See Section 1.0 “How do I Participate in High School Admissions?”) If a student’s IEP currently recommends a District 75 program and the IEP team determines that the student will continue in District 75 for high school, the District 75 Placement Office will notify the student of his or her District 75 high school placement in May or June. For more information, visit nyc.gov/schools/Academics/SpecialEducation.

The Academy for Language and Technology (ALT) nurtures inquiry learning, character development, and community building. Our focus is to prepare students to compete in the global economy. Students connect technology to real-world experiences via internships and they develop literacy in both Spanish and English. Ninth graders enter one of our three technology-focused programs: media communications, computer networking, or computer technology. Our school environment—built on community, leadership, and social activism—encourages our students to grow into articulate, responsible citizens.

Eligibility: Open only to New York City residents who have lived in the United States four years or fewer, whose home language is Spanish, and are of limited English proficiency.

SCHOOL OVERVIEW

Our school provides a challenging and innovative education focused on math, science, and the integration of technology into all subject areas. Our classes feature inquiry- and project-based curricula and the use of remote response systems. Our non-traditional physical education classes expose students to new experiences that they otherwise might never have. Our students are grouped into four Houses which are divided into smaller single-gender advisory groups led by a faculty member. Although classes change, students remain with their House and advisor until graduation. Our students graduate with the knowledge of math, science, and technology applications they need in order to succeed in today’s digital society.

Bronx Collaborative students are academic detectives, bringing New York City’s unique resources and rich history into the classroom to investigate and solve real-world challenges. Teachers connect students with community leaders, organizations, and professionals to collaborate on exciting projects. These real-world teamwork experiences offer students feedback that prepares them for success in college and careers. Teachers and counselors know our families, recognize students’ talents, and support their needs from the first day of school to graduation. We capture the energy and interests of young people by providing apprenticeships. Students give public presentations each quarter on their learning. Each student’s curriculum is determined by his or her unique interests, background, and learning style. Each teacher is responsible for only fifteen children. Learning Through Apprenticeship (LTA) is the center of the Bronx Guild curriculum. At the worksites, students take on real-world tasks and projects under the supervision of a mentor. Back at school, the students work with their crew leaders building and reinforcing the skills and knowledge needed to complete those projects. Our very successful program has placed students in over 300 apprenticeships since opening our doors in 2002.

SCHOOL OVERVIEW

We offer students the opportunity to earn a Regents diploma with an arts endorsement by adopting the model of a theatre company. Our students stage plays, musicals, and their own original works to explore the universal themes of the human experience and acquire skills and knowledge to meet the Learning Standards outlined by the NY State Board of Regents. We utilize project-based learning and engage students as artists-at-work. Our program provides the college and career readiness skills for students to succeed in a post-secondary setting. Teaching artists work with teachers to create an ensemble for students to work together, learn together, and become strong contributors to society.

Admissions Priorities:
- 1 Priority to Bronx students or residents—100% of offers went to this group
- 2 Then to New York City residents

Selection Criteria (prior year ranges—learn more in the introduction):
- Standardized Test Scores: English Language Arts (1.8-4.5), Math (1.8-4.5)
- Attendance
- Audition

Audition Information: Students are required to audition in their interest area of study which includes a writing prompt.

Dance: Come dressed in proper dance attire consisting of leotard, tights, and ballet shoes with hair placed in a bun (girls) or black jazz pants and white tee shirt (boys). Auditioning students will take a ballet barre led by the teacher. Auditioning students will have the opportunity to present a short one minute dance of your choice and bring your own music.

Drama: Prepare two contrasting memorized monologues from a play, movie or novel, each one minute long. You may be asked to participate in a group theater game.

Instrumental Music: This program offers a jazz curriculum for students who play band and rhythm section instruments. We do not have a string program. Students must bring their own instrument, sticks and music to the audition. Be prepared to play a scale and selection of music from a book or solo of your own choice, and sight-read. You will complete a questionnaire, interview, and take a simple test for musical aptitude.

Vocal Music: Perform a prepared song without CD/piano accompaniment from the following list: Amazing Grace, Simple Gifts, The National Anthem (Star Spangled Banner), My Favorite Things, God Bless America, Happy Birthday and Somewhere. Students should avoid Top 40 or Pop music when at all possible. Applicants will also be evaluated on tonal memory, rhythmic and aural skills, and vocal technique through teacher-led vocal exercises.

Visual Art: Prepare and present a professional portfolio (work completed on drawing paper, canvas or photographed) of at least five pieces of original work drawn from real-life observations (including one self-portrait, one still-life and one landscape). The portfolio needs to show a range of style. Sketchbooks are welcomed as extra drawings. Auditioning students will be required to complete one detailed, shaded, and colored drawing from observation during the audition.

SCHOOL OVERVIEW

We are committed to preparing a diverse community of students to become life-long learners and providers of excellent health care. Our curriculum is embedded with health-related themes while focused on the sciences. Students may earn college credits through our partnerships with Hostos Community Colleges and Lehman College. All students are required to complete 120 hours of fieldwork in one of our many health-related internships. Preparing students for college and the world of work is a necessity, so we employ a full-time College Bound Initiative counselor and various staff from community-based organizations (Liberty Partnership, Morris Heights Center) to support us in reaching that goal.

Leadership Institute is a small community-based high school founded by youth and educators at Sistas and Brothas United, the youth affiliate of the Northwest Bronx Community and Clergy Coalition. Through partnerships with our leading community based organizations: Phipps Neighborhood, The Leadership Program-21st Century Grant, The Future Project, and the YMCA-Rowes Scholar program, the school trains youth to be leaders who take charge of their schools and communities. A focus on Leadership, Community Action, and Social Justice encourages our students to take ownership of their community and gain an understanding of their rights in a fair, democratic society. The teaching of all three pillars would place our students in a college and career path.

SCHOOL OVERVIEW

At Pelham Lab High School, we encourage you to ask questions such as, “What keeps an electron spinning?” and, “How do we know the difference between right and wrong?” As a student of Pelham Lab, it is not enough to simply say that electrons travel around an atomic nucleus or that something is correct. Asking the right questions is equally as important as knowing the right answers. We believe that by encouraging you to ask deep questions, by engaging you in creative experiences outside of the classroom, and by ensuring that your social, academic, and emotional needs are met, you will set and achieve challenging but worthwhile goals in your future life.

Students will be provided with rigorous preparatory courses in the fields of medical science and health.
For nearly a century, we have been a leader in NYC education. Lincoln alumni have gone on to great success. Through our partnership with Johns Hopkins University, we offer Small Learning Communities (SLCs) such that students get individualized attention with access to the resources and facilities of a large comprehensive high school. The first two years are dedicated to socio-emotional development and meeting high school graduation requirements while 11th and 12th grades are devoted to college and career readiness. Our extensive elective course offerings, including Advanced Placement (AP) and CUNY College Now classes, empower our academic achievers to complete up to a year of college credit before graduation.

Eligibility: Open only to Brooklyn students or residents.

Admissions Priorities: 1 Priority to Brooklyn students or residents—96% of offers went to this group 2 Then to New York City residents

Program Description: Project-focused curriculum including leadership classes, integrated arts, SAT, college and Regents prep, and portfolio assessment.

Selection Criteria:
- Initial Filter: 80% Attendance
- Demonstrated Interest: School Visit
Leaders High School provides students with innovative curricula and hands-on learning experiences. Instead of high stakes tests, our students complete Performance-Based Assessment Tasks (PBATs). These in-depth, analytical papers require extensive reading, writing, research, and revision. We foster a strong college-going culture by providing a full-time counselor, offering a college/career elective to seniors, and celebrating during our annual college march. Students join a crew, a small class where they receive academic support, develop character, and reflect on growth. Through these experiences, students learn to embody our four core values of leading, learning, contributing, and exploring.

Academics
- Performance-Based Assessment Tasks (PBATs) instead of standardized tests (except for the Common Core English exam) fulfill graduation requirements.
- Standards-based grading tracks students’ progress, and their grades reflect growth over a semester rather than a one-time, all-or-nothing score.
- Leaders provides a full-time college counselor, our college/career course for juniors and seniors, and a chance to celebrate at our College March.
- Student-led conferences (SLCs) allow students to present their strengths, growth areas, and goals and take the lead in their own learning.
- During Intensives regular classes are suspended and students sign up to explore a topic in-depth with visits from experts and fieldwork in the city.

SCHOOL OVERVIEW

We balance arts experiences with college readiness for all students. Students take talent classes of their choice; they become musicians, singers, actors, and visual artists. Partnerships with arts organizations allow students to conduct openings at professional galleries; students co-teach STEM classes with teachers in CUNY’s PERC program; and students visit colleges starting in ninth grade through the College Bound Initiative. Students earn college credits through Advanced Placement (AP) and CUNY courses, take on leadership roles, participate in sports, participate in a variety of after-school activities, and are given the academic and social support they need to succeed in school. We value a diverse and richly talented school community.

Origins High School prepares students for success in college by building on strengths and being attentive to individual needs. We make it a priority to know our students and their families through our advisory program. Our inquiry-based curriculum asks students to develop questions, conduct research, and prepare in-depth projects that exhibit their learning. Origins’ challenging liberal arts education is grounded in small group work, reading analysis, and an emphasis on writing. Students present portfolios of work to panels of teachers and community members twice a year. At Origins, our students graduate as active, confident learners, and problem-solvers.

This is a sixth through twelfth grade school that cultivates strong leaders and learners in our world. Our students have opportunities for internships, mentorships, college exploration, and student governance, supported by various partnerships. We emphasize student choice, parent and community participation, and the development of personal potential through student government. At Town Hall meetings and Change Projects, students work toward transforming a part of their community. Students take what they learn far beyond the school’s halls—to college, their communities, the city, and their future careers. They will be a positive force in the world, capable of influencing change and contributing constructively to democracy in our society.

Independence High School is a high school which embraces teaching and learning in a small, caring environment with high academic standards. We offer multicultural, interdisciplinary curriculum with an infusion of the arts and technology. Through enhanced guidance services, an advisor works with each student and parent to achieve academic goals and set post-secondary plans. We envision our high school community, which encompasses students, staff, and parents to be actively engaged in maintaining academic excellence, to help foster self-esteem, and to develop healthier decision-making skills so that students may develop and work up to their full potential. We nurture a passion for learning and problem-solving skills using Restorative Practices in an environment built on high accountability and high support. Families will be encouraged to maintain a high level of engagement with the school. College visits, career fairs, and guest speakers from local and distant colleges are frequently set throughout the year. Bard High School Early College Queens (BHSEC Queens) was founded on the belief that many students are ready to do serious college work at age 16. Bard College, in partnership with the New York City Department of Education, has created an innovative program that enables high school students to move, in four years, from ninth grade through the first two years of college. During this time, students will earn a high school diploma, up to 60 college credits, and an Associate of Arts (AA) degree upon graduation. We have a very welcoming environment for all students with over 30 different home languages, a gender neutral bathroom, and a variety of clubs to celebrate the strength and unity of our differences.

ACADEMICS
- Please visit bhsec.bard.edu/queens/academics/courses-past/ to view and download past college course guides.
- In their first two years, students receive a solid foundation in mathematics, science, history, English, a foreign language, and the arts.
- In the final two years, the college program balances core requirements with opportunities for students to pursue their individual interests.
- We offer a variety of college courses and opportunities for students to engage in independent studies of their own design.
- Students completing 60 college credits will receive the Bard College AA degree and may transfer these credits to colleges and universities.

SCHOOL OVERVIEW

It is the policy of Frank Sinatra School of the Arts (FSSA) High School that every student receives the most challenging academic and arts program possible. We offer every student the opportunity to take four years of science and math in addition to four years of English and social studies. The studio arts program provides students an intensive sequential study of an art form that includes the chance to explore the history, cultural significance, and aesthetics of their selected art form. Students will be introduced to all of the disciplines offered at FSSA through a curriculum that enables students to make connections with all art forms, fostering a true artistic community.
