Dear Families,

Your child's school is no longer serving as an emergency shelter and has resumed normal school operations. Please know that we have taken every precaution to ensure that your school is clean and sanitary.

Thank you for your understanding and compassion while sharing your school with some of New York City's most vulnerable citizens. Nearly 7,000 people displaced by Hurricane Sandy took refuge in our schools as their homes flooded, went dark, and in some cases were destroyed. Your child's school provided shelter to families who had nowhere else to go.

Sincerely,
