1.0 HOW DO I PARTICIPATE IN MIDDLE SCHOOL ADMISSIONS?

Receiving My Application

In order to participate in Middle School Admissions, you must submit a Middle School Application by Thursday, December 1, 2016. The application will be personalized for your child and includes all of the middle school programs to which your child may apply.

If your child is eligible for any new NYC Department of Education schools or programs, you will be invited through your child's guidance counselor to apply to these programs in February. Applying is optional. If your child receives a match to a new school or program, you will have to choose between your new school match and your main round match.

A match means the student has received a placement in that program for the following school year. Most students are matched to one of the programs ranked on their Middle School Application, although it is not guaranteed. If your child does not match to one of the programs ranked on his or her application, s/he will receive a placement in a school where s/he is eligible to attend middle school. This could be either: (1) a school in the district to which s/he is zoned to attend middle school or, when different, (2) the district where s/he attends public elementary school.

What happens if my child is not currently enrolled at a New York City public school?

Students not currently enrolled in a New York City public school—which means students currently attending a private or parochial school or new to New York City—will need to request an application for the district in which they live from a Family Welcome Center. When you request an application, provide the Family Welcome Center with a 2016 report card from your child's school with grades, attendance, and academic and personal behavior competencies so that they may be included as part of the admissions process.

Private and parochial students are eligible to attend middle school in the district in which they are zoned for middle school or any programs open to their borough or New York City.

Completing My Application

All New York City public elementary school fifth graders receive a personalized application from their current school in November. This application will contain information about the student and will list all of the middle schools to which that student may apply.

To complete your child's Middle School Application, you will need to review parts 1, 2, and 3, rank schools in part 5, and sign and date the application in part 6.

- Course and Test Results: The percentage of students who passed courses in the core subjects (English, math, social studies, and science), and the percentage of sixth, seventh, and eighth grade students who scored at Level 3 or 4 on the New York State English and Math tests.

- Most Commonly Attended High Schools: The NYC Department of Education high schools most commonly attended by last year’s graduates of this school, and the percentage of graduates who attend each.
- School Survey Results: The percentage of students who feel safe in the hallways, bathrooms, locker room, and cafeteria as reported on the NYC School Survey.

For more information on school performance, see section 5.2 “Accountability.”

STUDENT ACTIVITY

MIDDLE SCHOOL DIRECTORY SCAVENGER HUNT

Complete the scavenger hunt below using the Middle School Directory page of a school you are interested in. Fill in each box with information about that middle school.

How many students go to this school?

How might I get to this school from where I live?

What phone number, email, or website can I use to get information on how to visit this school?

What time does a typical day start for sixth graders?

What are two courses this school has?

What are two activities this school has?

3.0 HOW ARE MIDDLE SCHOOL MATCHES MADE?

Your child will be matched to his/her highest possible program choice based on the following:

- Your Program Choices: The order in which you rank programs on the application. (See section 3.1)
- Admissions Priorities: The order in which applicants are considered for placement. A program that gives preference to zoned students is an example of an Admissions Priority. (See section 3.2)
- Admissions Methods: The way schools consider and admit applicants. A program that screens students is an example of an Admissions Method. (See section 3.3)
- Seats: The number of seats offered at each program. (See section 3.4)

3.1 Your Program Choices

Rank up to 12 choices in order of preference. Students will be matched to their highest possible choice taking into consideration Admissions Priorities, Admissions Methods, and seats.

When you fill out the Middle School Application, you are not just applying to schools, you are applying to programs.

- You can think of programs as “doorways” through which schools accept students.
- If a school has multiple programs, eligible students may apply to one program or more than one program at that school.
- Programs at the same school may have different Admissions Priorities and Admissions Methods. You may decide to apply to one program over another based on its admissions or because it has a particular theme.

Note: Screened programs in Districts 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 13, and 14 will see how you rank them, which may affect your application choices. See section 6.0 “Specific Information for This District” to learn if this applies to you.

Zoned Students: Students who are zoned to a middle school—or a campus containing multiple middle schools—have priority to attend that school or schools. To receive this priority, you must rank your child’s zoned school(s) on the Middle School Application. You do not need to rank your child’s zoned school(s) as your first choice to receive the priority. You should, however, rank your programs in the order that you’d like your child to be considered for them.

Students in Continuing K-8 Schools: Students are guaranteed to match with their continuing school if they place it on their application. Students will first be considered for programs they rank higher on their application. You do not need to rank your child’s continuing school as your first choice to receive the guarantee.

3.2 Admissions Priorities

Admissions Priorities determine the order in which applicants are considered for placement in a middle school program. If a program has multiple Admissions Priorities, students who fall into the first priority group will be considered for placement first. Students who fall into higher priority groups have a better chance of getting into a particular program than students who fall into lower priority groups. Schools with multiple middle school programs may have different Admissions Priorities for those programs, so be sure to review carefully the “Program Admissions” section on school pages.

PROGRAM ADMISSIONS

Program Name	Code	Admissions Method	Prior Year Admissions
			Type	Applicants	Seats	Applicants Per Seat	Seats Filled
(I.S. 123) Academic Honors Program	A123S	Screened	GE	225	55	4	Y
			SWD	75	18	4	Y
Eligibility: Open to students and residents of Brooklyn Admissions Priorities: ❶ Priority to students and residents of the District ❷ Then to students and residents of Brooklyn. Last year, this program admitted students from all priority groups. Selection Criteria: Academic and Personal Behaviors ■ Attendance ■ Final 4th Grade Report Card ■ Punctuality ■ 4th Grade New York State ELA and Math Exams
(I.S. 123) Zoned Program	A123Z	Zoned	Zoned
Eligibility: Open to students residing in the zone

Admissions Priorities

This means that priority group 1 is all students and residents of the district who ranked this program on their applications. These students will be considered before priority group 2, which is all Brooklyn students or residents who ranked this program on their application.

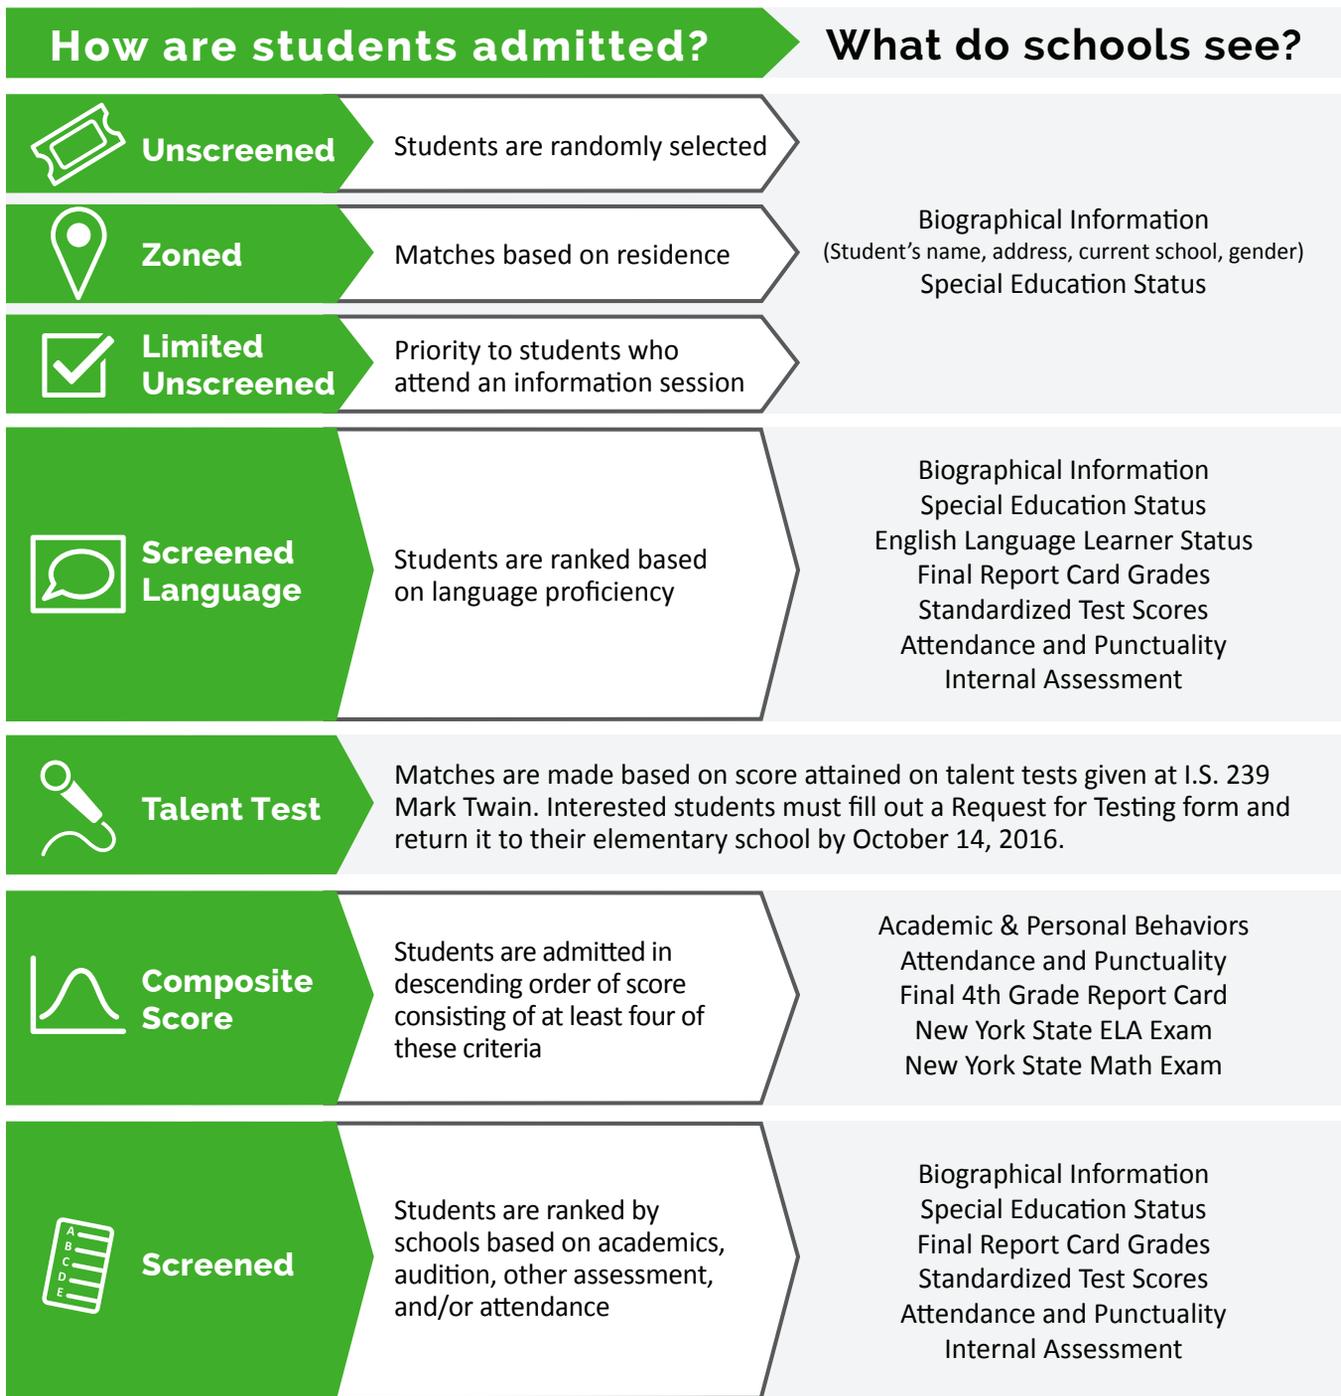

This also tells us that last year, applicants from both groups were matched with this program. This illustration shows what the Admissions Priorities look like for the program above:

Here are common Admissions Priorities used to determine matches:

What you will see in the directory		What it means
“Priority to continuing 5th graders”	Means that	Continuing Fifth Graders Priority: Students who are already enrolled at a K-8 school and who list their school on their application will have priority over other applicants.
“Priority to students and residents of the District”	Means that	Geographic Priority: Students may have priority based on the district, borough, or geographic area in which they live and/or go to school. (If a student lives and goes to school in different boroughs or districts, that student has priority in both places.)
“Priority to New York City residents who attend an information session”	Means that	Limited Unscreened Priority: Students who signed in at a program’s open house or at the school’s table at a fair are put in a higher priority group. (This happens at programs that use a “Limited Unscreened” Admissions Method.)
“Priority to students who apply and live in the zoned area.”	Means that	Zoned Priority: Students who live in a certain area will have priority. To find out if you live in a zoned area, check your application or visit schools.nyc.gov/SchoolSearch

The Types of MIDDLE SCHOOL ADMISSIONS METHODS

3.3 Admissions Methods

Admissions Methods are the ways in which middle school applicants are admitted into programs. The seven types of Admissions Methods are explained in more detail below:

Admissions Method

PROGRAM ADMISSIONS			Prior Year Admissions
Program Name	Code	Admissions Method	Type	Applicants	Seats	Applicants Per Seat	Seats Filled
(I.S. 123) Academic Honors Program	A123S	Screened	GE	225	55	4	Y
			SWD	75	18	4	Y
Eligibility: Open to students and residents of Brooklyn Admissions Priorities: ❶ Priority to students and residents of the District ❷ Then to students and residents of Brooklyn. Last year, this program admitted students from all priority groups. Selection Criteria: Academic and Personal Behaviors ■ Attendance ■ Final 4th Grade Report Card ■ Punctuality ■ 4th Grade New York State ELA and Math Exams
(I.S. 123) Zoned Program	A123Z	Zoned			Zoned
Eligibility: Open to students residing in the zone

Selection Criteria

Admissions Methods that DO NOT see your child’s academic information

Unscreened: In Unscreened programs, students who apply are randomly selected. If there are priority groups within an Unscreened program, students will be selected randomly within those priority groups.

Limited Unscreened: In Limited Unscreened programs, students are selected randomly with priority to students who demonstrate interest in the school by attending an information session, school tour, open house event, or by visiting the school’s table at the Middle School Fair. You must sign in at one of these events to receive priority to the school’s Limited Unscreened program(s).

Zoned: Zoned programs are open to students who live in the geographic zoned area of the middle school. To find out if your child is zoned to one or more middle schools, please visit schools.nyc.gov/schoolsearch or check your Middle School Application.

Talent Test: Talent Test programs base admission on a student’s exam performance in specified talent areas. Talent Test programs are found at several District 21 schools, including I.S. 239 Mark Twain, which is open to all NYC residents. Testing details are listed on Talent Test schools’ directory pages.

Admissions Methods that DO see your child’s academic information

Screened: Screened programs rank applicants using factors that may include final report card grades from the prior school year, reading and math standardized test scores, and attendance and punctuality. Some Screened programs have additional requirements like an interview, audition, writing sample, and/or diagnostic test. If you have any questions, contact the individual schools for more information.*

Screened: Language: Screened: Language programs use home/native language as the basis for admission. Interested students should review the program admissions to make sure they are applying to a program that matches their home/native language. Some Screened: Language programs may give priority to ELLs, participants of elementary school-level Dual Language and Transitional Bilingual Education programs in the target language, and/or heritage speakers of the target language. For more information on ELL models, please see section 5.5 “English Language Learners.”*

Composite Score: Composite score programs base admission on a combination of factors used to create one score for each student. Students are then placed in descending order based on their composite score and where the student ranked the program on their application. Composite score programs use a combination of academic and personal and behavioral characteristics.*

*Please note that, consistent with New York State law, state ELA and Mathematics test results will not be the sole, primary, or major factor in admissions decisions. Instead, multiple measures, which may include state test results, will be used to make admissions decisions for all Screened, Screened: Language, and Composite Score programs.

Selection Criteria describe the factors that determine how students match with a program. For Screened, and Screened: Language programs, the selection criteria describe what the school considers when ranking applicants. For Composite Score programs, the selection criteria describe what information is used to create each student's composite score.

Selection Criteria for Screened and Composite Score programs might include the following:

- Final 4th Grade Report Card
- 4th Grade State ELA and Math Tests
- Attendance and Punctuality From 4th Grade
- Academic and Personal Behaviors From 4th Grade

Academic and Personal Behaviors are a part of the fourth grade report card. Schools evaluate these behaviors along with the academic courses. The specific behaviors evaluated are:

- Manages time and consistently demonstrates effort to independently achieve goals
- Works in an organized manner
- Persists through challenges to complete a task by trying different strategies
- Asks for help when needed
- Respects school rules and works well in the school community

If a school is not evaluating these behaviors as a part of the report card, school staff will provide this information on the student's behavior in the fourth grade so that all students have the same information available for evaluation.

Fourth-Grade Information

Middle School Admissions uses information from the fourth grade to evaluate students for admission. School staff should not ask families to provide extra information in the form of report cards from additional years or separate recommendations from teachers.

3.4 Seats

Review the number of available seats in a program and the number of applicants for those seats during the prior year admissions. The number of applicants per seat will affect your chance of being matched. Programs that filled all seats in the Main Round are marked with a "Y."

Each middle school program has a specific number of available seats for incoming students. Available seats are divided into two groups:

- One group of seats is reserved for students who are part of the general education population and students who receive special education instructional programming for 20% or less of their academic program (GE).
- The second group of seats is reserved for students who receive special education instructional programming for more than 20% of their academic program (SWD).

Student applications will automatically be assigned to one group of seats. For students with disabilities, this is based on the services they are currently receiving according to their Individualized Education Program (IEP). The number of available seats in each group is based on the percentage of students with disabilities receiving services in fifth grade in that school's district.

Seats are used for admissions purposes only; all students with IEPs will receive the services listed on their IEPs. The number of available seats for each group of students in the prior year is shown next to each program.

Middle School Fairs

All district middle school fairs will take place on one of the above dates.
Check the Middle School Admissions website below for updates.

Middle school fairs will take place in September or October. At the fair, you will be able to meet school staff and ask questions about specific programs and offerings. Information about middle school fairs will be available from elementary schools and online at schools.nyc.gov/middle this fall.

School Open Houses and Tours

2016 SEPTEMBER	2016 OCTOBER	2016 NOVEMBER

Many middle schools offer open house/school tour events where you and your child can see the school, meet staff members, and ask questions. Before you visit, prepare a list of questions for school staff about the school's culture, course offerings, and activities. You can also use the "Asking Questions at Middle School Events" activity on the next page. For information about school open houses/school tours, please contact middle schools of interest directly.

School Visits: When visiting schools, always sign in clearly because some programs will use this to move you to a higher priority group.

5.1 Accessibility

The Department of Education is committed to ensuring that its programs, services, and activities are accessible to staff, members of the school community, students, and family members with disabilities. The Department of Education assesses its buildings on a continuing basis to determine which schools are accessible to individuals with disabilities.

Accessible Schools are located in a fully or partially accessible building where an individual with mobility impairment may enter and access all relevant programs and services, including the science laboratory, library, cafeteria, and the gymnasium; in some cases, school programs may need to be re-located to accommodate access. At least one restroom is accessible. For the most up-to-date information on the accessibility of each school, please contact the school directly. Families are encouraged to visit schools to learn about the level of accessibility. For more information, please visit schools.nyc.gov/Offices/OSP/Accessibility.

5.2 Accountability

The New York City Department of Education collects information about school practices and student outcomes, which can help identify each school's strengths and areas for improvement. This directory contains some of this information, which is listed on school pages and explained in more detail below. If you have questions about this section, please speak to your school's guidance counselor or visit schools.nyc.gov/accountability, where you can find detailed information on each school's performance in their School Quality Reports. Average performance data for schools in this district during the 2014-2015 school year can be found in section 6.0 "Specific Information for This District".

The school performance section contains the following for each school:

- Course and Test Results: The percentage of students who passed courses in the core subjects (English, math, social studies, and science), and the percentage of sixth, seventh, and eighth grade students who scored at Level 3 or 4 on the New York State English and Math tests.
- Most Commonly Attended High Schools: The NYC Department of Education high schools most commonly attended by last year's graduates of this school, and the percentage of graduates who attend each.
- School Survey Results: The percentage of students who feel safe in the hallways, bathrooms, locker room, and cafeteria as reported on the NYC School Survey.

5.3 Charter Schools

Charter schools are independent public schools founded by not-for-profit Boards of Trustees that operate under a contract or “charter” of up to five years. Many charter schools have unique educational approaches that may include longer school days, a longer school year, and/or thematic programs. Any student eligible for admission to a New York City public school is eligible for admission to a public charter school.

Please note that applying to a charter school does not guarantee placement. If the number of applicants exceeds the number of available seats at a charter school, the charter school must conduct a lottery to determine admissions. Interested students or families should contact each charter school directly to receive specific information about the school’s application process.

If you are interested in applying to a NYC charter school, you can apply to a school directly (visit the charter school’s website for details), or you can apply to multiple charter schools at once using the online Common Charter School Application, which can be found at: www.nyccharterschools.org/apply.

For a list of charter schools, please refer to the back of this directory. Visit schools.nyc.gov/charters or call 212-374-5419 for more information about charter schools in New York City. For information about specific charter schools, contact the schools directly.

5.4 Community Schools

Community Schools offer an integrated focus on academics, health and mental health services, youth development, expanded learning opportunities (inclusive of after-school and summer enrichment activities), and family and community supports to ensure that students are ready and able to learn, and graduate college and career ready. Each community school serves as a hub where parents and family members, community-based partners, community members, and school staff come together to coordinate and integrate a range of supports based on the assets and needs of individual students.

5.5 English Language Learners

English Language Learners (ELLs) may apply to any of the programs listed in this directory. All New York City Department of Education schools provide a range of supports and services for ELL students to develop their English proficiency and prepare them for success in school, college, and/or careers.

There are three different ELL service delivery models offered in New York City public middle schools:

Program	Definition
English as a New Language (ENL)	English as a New Language programs, which used to be called English as a Second Language or ESL, provide instruction in English with support in the students' home language so that they can learn to read, write, and speak English. Students in this program can come from many different language backgrounds, and English may be the only common language among them.
Transitional Bilingual Education (TBE)	Transitional Bilingual Education programs provide reading, writing, and other classes in English and in your child's home language. As students' English improves, time spent learning in English increases and time spent learning in the home language decreases. Once your child is no longer identified as an English Language Learner, he or she will exit the program.
Dual Language (DL)	In Dual Language programs, students are taught in two languages: English and their home language, such as Spanish, Chinese, or French, among others. The goal of this program is for students to be able to read, write, and speak in both English and their home language. In Dual Language classes, the home language and English are used equally.

This directory indicates which of the ELL service delivery models above are currently offered in each middle school, based on school reported data.

All middle schools must provide the ELL Parent Survey and Program Selection Form at the parent orientation meeting which is offered to all newly-identified ELLs. If you do not receive this form, please request it from the school. You may use the form to indicate your preferred ELL service delivery model, even if your middle school does not currently offer it. Middle schools will be identified for a Dual Language or Transitional Bilingual Education program when there are 20 or more ELLs with the same native language in any single grade whose parents/guardians request either Dual Language or Transitional Bilingual Education. In this way, parents can influence which ELL service delivery models are offered in their child's school.

For the most up-to-date information regarding ELL service delivery models, please contact schools directly. For more information about services and supports for English Language Learners (ELLs), please call 212-323-9559, email ellfamilies@schools.nyc.gov, or visit the Division of English Language Learners and Student Support website: nyc.gov/schools/Academics/ELL.

5.6 Special Education Services

Students with disabilities may apply to all schools and/or programs listed in this directory, including all Screened and Audition programs, and are subject to the same admissions requirements as their general education peers. If the student's IEP contains testing accommodations, those accommodations will be provided when the student tests or auditions as long as they do not change what the test is measuring.

Every middle school participating in Middle School Admissions is expected to welcome and serve students with disabilities in accordance with their IEPs. The IEP team at the middle school will review the IEP to ensure that all services and supports are in place. In some cases, the IEP team may need to refine the IEP to better meet student needs.

Middle school programs have a group of seats for students whose IEPs specify special education instructional programming for more than 20% of their academic program. Special education instructional programming includes Integrated Co-Teaching (ICT) classes, Special Class (SC), and Special Education Teacher Support Services (SETSS). Related Services, such as speech, occupational therapy (OT), and physical therapy (PT), are not considered special education instructional programming for the purposes of Middle School Admissions. Seats are used for admissions purposes only; all students with IEPs will receive the services listed on their IEPs.

Students with disabilities who are recommended for and who have attended a District 75 program and are considering a middle school outside of District 75 should work with their IEP team to determine whether the recommendation for District 75 for middle school is still appropriate. If the student's IEP team determines that the student no longer needs District 75, then the student participates in Middle School Admissions. Students whose IEPs recommend a District 75 program and whose IEP team determines that the student will continue in a District 75 program for middle school are not required to participate in Middle School Admissions. These students are notified of their middle school placement in May or June by their District 75 schools. For more information, visit schools.nyc.gov/Academics/SpecialEducation.

5.7 Student Transportation

The New York City Department of Education offers transportation to middle school students based on these criteria:

- Students in sixth grade are provided with free transportation if they live one mile or more from the school; if they live closer than that but more than ½ mile from the school, a half-fare MTA bus pass is available on request from their school. Free transportation is provided as either a yellow bus or a MetroCard. Students receive yellow busing if (i) their school has bus service, (ii) they live in the same school district as their school, and (iii) if a stop exists, or can be created. Stops cannot be created if they make the existing route longer than five miles, as measured through each stop to the school.
- Students in seventh grade and above are provided with MetroCards if they live 1½ miles or more from school. If they live closer than that but more than ½ mile from school, a half-fare MTA bus pass is available on request from their school.
- Students receiving special education services who are mandated to receive specialized transportation on their most recent IEP are placed on bus routes to and from the school they attend. In addition, parents may request additional medical accommodations based on their child's special needs which may also affect the type of vehicle or route on which the student is placed. For more information about transportation, call the Office of Pupil Transportation at 718-392-8855 or visit schools.nyc.gov/offices/transportation.

6.0 Specific Information for District 2

In this district, school staff at Screened middle schools that you rank on your child’s application will be informed of how you ranked their school, but will not learn how you ranked other schools. For example, your first choice school will be informed that you ranked it first, but will not see the school you ranked second, and so on.

Some schools use this information on how families ranked them to decide who to admit to the school. School staff may say that they won’t consider families who do not rank them first on the application. This may influence the order in which you decide to rank schools on your application; however, all families should rank schools in preference order.

Schools that admit students from across the city that participate in the middle school admissions process, such as NEST+m, American Sign Language School, Mark Twain, Professional Performing Arts School, The 30th Avenue School, and the Brooklyn School of Inquiry, are not included in the revealed aspect of the ranking process. That means that families may rank these schools with no disadvantage in the district process. If you rank one of these schools first on the application and a district school second, it will appear to the district school as if you had ranked it first.

What is the performance of a typical District 2 middle school?

98%	of students passed core classes
57%	of students were proficient on the State English Test
61%	of students were proficient on the State Math Test
92%	of students feel safe in the hallways, bathrooms, locker room, and cafeteria

District Schools

All District 2 residents may apply to middle schools in this section.

Simon Baruch Middle School is a traditional middle school committed to developing students who think critically and who are civic minded. The school utilizes the “house” structure as an organizational model that allows teachers to know our students well. An assistant principal and guidance counselor are assigned to every grade level to ensure that support services are available to all students. We offer all students the chance to engage in a rigorous academic curriculum that challenges students to think critically and independently. Students engage in a balance of independent learning tasks and collaborative learning experiences. Our rigorous core content is supplemented by extensive arts and technology offerings that provide students with opportunities to develop their interests and talents. Our school supplements the regular instructional program with an extensive after school program that provides students with academic enrichment, academic intervention, arts, and athletics.

East Side Middle is an academically successful, nurturing community. Our teachers help our students better understand the world in which they live so they can act upon that knowledge to make that world a better place. Our students learn to think as professional writers and read as literary critics and editors; they learn to study the past as historians and the natural world as scientists. Teachers and staff know students individually and address their specific needs in all grades. In their advisory classes, sixth graders are prepared for their middle school experience in such areas as time management, emotional literacy and organizational skills. Parents appreciate our staff’s in-depth knowledge of individual students, as well as the personalized attention students receive. Families appreciate the accessibility of the administration and instructional staff and the sense of community that defines the school culture. We are fortunate to have an involved and responsive parent community.

M.S. 131 is a vibrant school community where all students are valued as individuals with many talents and expertises. Students are challenged in many ways. Throughout their middle school journey, students are encouraged to develop their voices in academics and through participation in school events and activities. Students are well supported by the teachers and administration in all areas. We use research-based best practices to ensure that all students achieve their best. Parents feel welcomed by a school that responds to their concerns and needs. We also offer a unique three-year arts program where students major in one of three areas: Visual Art, Dance, and Instrumental Music. We offer Mandarin Chinese as a foreign language, and our dual language program (English/Mandarin) will expand into grade seven in 2016-17 school year. Students enrolling in this dual language program will develop their language proficiency in both of these languages by the end of eighth grade.

Students appreciate that they are challenged academically in an environment where teachers take the time to get to know them personally. They also like all the opportunities that are available to them in a big school setting including our extensive after-school, band, and sports programs. Parents appreciate the diverse student population and dedicated staff, and they also value the accessibility of the administrators and teachers. Students and families work closely with an assistant principal and guidance counselor. In addition to a strong core curriculum, Wagner has one of the largest music programs in the city, providing approximately 500 students with instrumental classes.

M.S. 177 prepares students to be critical thinkers, effective problem solvers, and powerful communicators in a rapidly changing 21st century world. By embracing academic rigor, student voice, collaboration, self-direction, and empathy, our students will have the confidence, tenacity, and skills for success. We pride ourselves on our small, tight-knit community in which every adult knows every child. To do this, we utilize our small class size to provide students with individualized and small group instruction. Our advisory periods allow for daily check-ins and the promotion of our core values that help our students build strong bonds and respectful relationships with their peers. To enhance students' love for learning, we offer enrichment classes and team sports in addition to classes such as STEM and Spanish. This approach allows students to continue exploring the different topics that might interest them and continuously grow throughout their middle school career.

The Roosevelt Island (P.S. / I.S. 217) | 02M217

At 217, we pride ourselves on being a “big city school with a small town feel.” Our small class sizes allow the teachers to get know students on a deeply personal level. In addition, subject area teachers follow the same group of students through sixth, seventh, and eighth grades, which provides the students with the opportunity to interact with teachers academically and socially throughout middle school. Our families appreciate the support they receive during their child’s transition from elementary school to middle school. We offer a wide array of opportunities for students to explore their non-academic interests during the school day. We also provide after-school clubs and academic enrichment throughout the year. We have a modern building that is open, clean, and bright. Our hallways are lined with flags representing the countries of our many international students and families. Our state-of-the-art facilities offer updated computer labs and ActiveBoards in every classroom.

The Clinton School for Writers & Artists is close-knit and collaborative community. Students who succeed thrive in a small, academically rigorous school. We are in our own new construction building off of Union Square, at 10 East 15th Street. This facility has an 8,500 square foot gym, an outdoor roof play space, a modern library, science labs, and studios for music and art. The middle school has its own separate space on the upper floors, with separate start and dismissal times, but we are one school with one administration. The upper grades program culminates in the International Baccalaureate Diploma Program. Students who are admitted into our middle school have the option of staying with us for the full seven years. The middle school has a comprehensive, free after-school program through our partnership with Manhattan Youth.

The Professional Performing Arts School (PPAS) partners with top rated New York City arts organizations to provide high quality training in the performing arts and a competitive academic program. In partnership with the theater company Waterwell, middle school students receive 90 minutes daily of acting, dance, and voice classes. Our curriculum provides students with the artistic and personal skills to be leaders in the field and in whatever profession they choose to pursue. PPAS middle school students are guaranteed a placement in one of the PPAS high school arts programs if they choose to stay. We provide a middle school experience that is well-rounded and considers every child's interests, learning styles, and needs. Students invited for an audition prepare one short monologue and one song to perform without music. Students do not need prior experience in order to apply.

School of the Future students like our dynamic, creative teachers and interesting classes. Students also like that we know each of them very well and each of them is uniquely challenged. We are proactive about the intellectual, social, and moral growth of our community and see ourselves as people who are helping to raise smart and thoughtful teenagers. Parents appreciate that their children are pushed both in terms of their academics and their personal responsibility. They appreciate our small class size and strong sense of community. Parents like that we work in collaboration towards their child’s success. We follow the principles of the Coalition of Essential Schools, including personalized learning and teaching students to use their minds well. Our high school students design four year-long research projects and present their work to a committee of staff and students, and our middle school students begin to prepare for this experience in the sixth grade.

Quest to Learn students are curious, inventive, playful, and empathetic. Students, families, our community partner Institute of Play, and faculty work together to build a robust, rigorous, and responsive school community. Quest to Learn classes are interdisciplinary and they follow a design and project-based learning approach. In their core classes, students take on different roles such as professional publishers, spies for King George III, conflict resolution specialists, or amusement park architects, as they apply new skills and content. Students also enjoy opportunities to pursue interests in design and technology, including game design and digital photography. Students participate in a small group advisory, which provides an opportunity for academic goal-setting, college readiness activities, and community building. Twice each year, Quest students engage in our Boss Level Challenges, a design-challenge interim where they work in teams to tackle real world problems.

Our students are exposed to medical professionals through our partnerships with Mount Sinai Hospital and the Center for Excellence in Youth Education. This early exposure provides our students with insights into the medical profession. Parents fully embrace that we have a concentration in the sciences. They also appreciate that their children have an opportunity to attend our high school, which continues our middle school curriculum.

At Lower Manhattan Community (LMC), we work to build a rich middle school experience for all of our students by combining rigorous curriculum, an intense focus on the arts, two years of foreign language, and a strong advisory and community service experience for all students. Our students participate in an enormous range of arts and after school programs which run Monday-Friday until 5:45pm. Our students take many field trips into the community, to conduct community service, build upon our academic curriculum, and explore our city. Students also attend overnight trips during their middle school experience. LMC is located in the 26 Broadway Building on the sixth and seventh floors. In this historic building, the NYCDOE constructed brand new facilities in 2010. Classrooms are stocked with Smart Boards, laptop computers, iPads, and other technologies.

City Knoll Middle School believes that young people have the ability to become whatever they want with the right education, guidance, and support. Our community understands the interconnected world that we live in, and strives to create learning experiences for students through an approach that is in tune with their interests and strengths. We also believe that students learn best when they are provided with real world opportunities to learn through the arts and projects that are relevant to their lives. The arts, public speaking, and presentation are core features of the instructional approach and support the development of critical thinking and creativity. City Knoll has established partnerships with the Museum of Modern Art, NYC Outward Bound, YMCA, Middle School Quality Initiative, and Mindful Schools Cohort. Students appreciate teachers immersing them in rigorous project-based curricula, while nurturing them to be empathetic, independent individuals capable of shaping their own futures.

All Manhattan residents may apply to middle schools in this section.

We are developing a culture of college-minded students and working with community members to create a challenging learning environment. Parents appreciate our family-like atmosphere and the bilingual, bi-cultural learning opportunity. In school year 2017-2018, there will be two Dual Language Program classes and one English monolingual class in the sixth and seventh grade which will continue to grow one grade at a time each year. In the Dual Language Program, core subjects such as math, Language Arts (Chinese), music, and dance will be delivered in Mandarin Chinese. All middle school students are required to participate in an Accelerated Math Program which ends with Integrated Algebra Regents Exam in eighth grade.

The School for Global Leaders is a small middle school that opened in 2008. We are currently known for our outstanding work in Common Core Standards and service-learning. The school is partnered with Columbia University Teachers College Reading and Writing Project to provide rigorous and individualized reading and writing programs. Students have opportunities to research and become actively involved in addressing world problems that they care about. Global Leaders enthusiastically participate in Integrated Projects Week (IPW), in which students work with one another on service-learning projects. Past projects have included a live puppet show about local poverty, a food drive benefiting City Harvest, a simulated Global Leaders News broadcast, online public service announcements, and the relighting of a community apartment building with energy efficient light bulbs. At the School for Global Leaders, learning and fun go hand in hand.

Academic & Athletic Excellence (M.S. 256) | 03M256

A rising star, M.S. 256 is a small school with approximately 150 students and is home to some of the most dynamic and engaged teachers in New York City. We are a community with a passion for educational excellence. Our school's size enables us to provide a supportive, diverse learning environment which fosters each student's academic, emotional, and athletic growth. Our successful French Dual Language Program, the only one in Manhattan, provides students from French dual language programs and French native speakers the opportunity to further their study of French language arts and select content area courses in French. Recognizing the many developmental changes that middle school students face, we focus our practices and curriculum on supporting our students to ensure they are ready to tackle the challenges of high school and beyond. We empower our students to become productive citizens and leaders in our school and all facets of their lives.

Students receive three years of performing and visual arts instruction as they complete our strong Common Core-aligned curriculum. Beginning in 2016, we will offer a three-year program focusing on instrumental music. In addition, students are given the opportunity to participate in all of our art electives. Our students appreciate the many opportunities available to interact with the professional arts and apply the skills and lessons learned in their Wadleigh art classes. Parents appreciate the nurturing, yet structured environment we provide that allows their children to excel academically and artistically.

Working closely with our partners at Solar 1, The Children’s Environmental Foundation, and the Children’s Aid Society, P.S. / I.S. 50 supports good health and nutrition and prepares children for green careers. We use STEM approaches to integrate our core curriculum with sustainability themes. We believe that hands-on learning experiences engage students and support improved academic performance. Our sustainability teachers and garden coordinator implement interdisciplinary units to engage students across a wide spectrum of abilities and interests. Students love the weekly RADIO 50 broadcast and eagerly participate by sharing announcements, special events, and their musical talents over the PA system. As our school song says, “P.S. 50’s going to teach each boy and girl...from East Harlem, to the City, to the Country, and the Whole Wide World.” Together we will plant the seeds of sustainability in education and create a beacon of best practices in urban rooftop agriculture.

We aim to provide a place where education has no limits and no boundaries. Our programs focus on performing arts, science exploration, and math enrichment. We combine core content instruction with exposure to the arts, including a visiting artist program, providing students with many opportunities for success. During their three years at Renaissance School of the Arts (RSA), students receive intensive training in their chosen arts field. Upon graduation, students are ready to audition for performing arts high schools, and will have a strong foundation in all of the arts. Through our partnerships, the arts are integrated into all academic curricula and culminate in students participating in a professional performance. At RSA, we are passionate about the arts and have designed a program that supports that passion.

Eagle scholars appreciate the support they receive from Eagle Educators. Our scholars will complete a challenging curriculum and are required to work hard to develop their critical thinking, problem solving, and questioning skills. In addition, our young men will be charged to give back to their communities through a variety of service opportunities throughout their time at Eagle. Parents like our mindset of preparing our young men for life after middle school and high school. We believe that young men are best developed when being supported through uniting the work of dedicated educators, supportive parents, and actively engaged mentors.

The Anderson Middle School (AMS) provides a judicious combination of an accelerated and enriched curriculum for the distinct needs of gifted learners. Our upper grades are fully integrated within our highly successful K-8 school. With only two classes per grade, the relationship between students and teachers is personal and supportive. This smaller population fosters a strong sense of community. Guided by educators who recognize the needs of children with outstanding intellectual potential, we provide intimate, differentiated, and departmentalized instruction that encourages critical thinking, creative problem solving, divergent thinking, research, independent study, collaboration, and self-evaluation. Parental involvement and support sustains the spirit and growth of AMS. The Anderson School seeks a diverse student population, including ICT students, and welcomes applications from across the five boroughs. The mission of the Special Music School is to teach musically gifted children through highly structured instrumental training and a standards-based academic program. The school prepares students for professional music careers while recognizing that not every student will choose such a career. The underlying philosophy of the Special Music School is the belief that music education for gifted pupils requires extensive opportunities to work one-to-one with an outstanding instrumental faculty, a structured and sequential music curriculum, opportunities to perform before audiences, and interaction between general academics and musical studies. Our goal is to see each child reach his or her academic and musical potential. Our vision is that all students will become lifelong learners and critical thinkers in our caring and respectful learning environment. We encourage parental involvement in all aspects of the school.

We offer an arts-enriched school environment. We want our students to see themselves as mathematicians, so we foster deep comprehension of math concepts by helping our students acquire habits of mind: persisting, questioning, communicating with precision and clarity, thinking flexibly, listening with understanding/empathy, and thinking interdependently. BSI students read diverse content and their writing includes feature articles, informational texts, comic books, interviews, persuasive essays, literary analysis, and literary criticism. We teach our students to engage technology, to think critically about what they see, and to be thoughtful about how they use technology to express their thoughts and ideas. Parents play a crucial role in both the daily life and long-term growth of BSI. Through a vital home/school connection, we build a learning community based on respect and cooperation.

Those who are successful in modern workplaces know how to ask the right questions—they are critical thinkers and researchers, strong problem solvers, and reflective practitioners. Teachers facilitate learning by setting up the classroom for students to engage with inquiry-based activities. For example, sixth grade students work in groups to answer the question, “How can we design water filters that filter out harmful substances, are cost effective, and can be built in a classroom?” Students research effective water filters, sketch out designs, build these designs, test designs, and, finally, redesign. Q300 differentiates itself by challenging students to develop these inquiry skills in all core subjects, as well as in engineering, computer science, the arts, and Spanish. We encourage students who may be considered “twice exceptional” to apply for we have academic and social/emotional supports in place to effectively meet their needs.
