AMENDMENTS TO CHANCELLOR'S REGULATION C-37—SELECTION OF COMMUNITY SUPERINTENDENTS

I. Description of the subject and purpose of the proposed item under consideration.

Chancellor's Regulation C-37 governs the selection of community superintendents. The following amendments are proposed:

- New experience requirements are added. In addition to having least seven years of prior pedagogic experience as defined in Regulation C-30, superintendents must have at least three successful years as a public or private school principal. These requirements do not apply to incumbent superintendents.
- Selection criteria have been modified for clarification and expanded to add: focus on the instructional core; commitment to arts education and developing student talents; ability to be inclusive of all members of the school community; ability to work with principals as partners in providing support for struggling schools; ability to engage relevant community stakeholders; and ability to be visible and approachable by the community and to attend community events.
- Applicants will be required to submit essays on relevant topics and letters of reference.
- The Senior Deputy Chancellor or designee is responsible for interviewing candidates from among those who apply in response to the Department of Education's posting.
