

May 5, 2008

PRESS RELEASE: GALLOP DEMONSTRATION OF THERAPEUTIC RIDING
IN CENTRAL PARK, New York NY

WHEN: Saturday, May 17, 2008, 11 am – 2 pm (Ceremony at 11 am);
rain or shine

WHERE: Central Park Bridal Path adjacent to The Tavern on the Green at 67th and Central Park West

Honorary Judges:

Miss Georgina Bloomberg, The Riders Closet

Assemblyman James Brennan

Parks Deputy Commissioner Kevin Jeffrey

CONTACT: Alicia Kershaw, info@gallopnyc.org, 212 945 1239,
www.gallopnyc.org

GALLOP offers therapeutic horseback riding to New Yorkers who have disabilities, including learning disabilities, autism, CP, MS, down syndrome and similar physical, cognitive and emotional disabilities. For more information contact us or see www.gallopnyc.org

At the Demonstration, our riders will show the riding skills they have acquired during their past year of lessons.

GALLOP is featured in THE HORSE exhibit at the American Museum of Natural History. For more information see:

http://www.amnh.org/exhibitions/horse/?src=e\_h