

SUMMARY OF PROHIBITED BIAS-BASED HARASSMENT, INTIMIDATION OR BULLYING

It is the policy of the New York City Department of Education to maintain a safe and supportive learning and educational environment that is free from harassment, intimidation and/or bullying committed by students against other students on account of race, color, creed, ethnicity, national origin, citizenship/immigration status, religion, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, disability or weight. Such harassment, intimidation and/or bullying is unacceptable conduct and will not be tolerated in school, during school hours, before and after school, while on school property, at school sponsored events, or while traveling on vehicles funded by the Department of Education and on other than school property when such behavior can be demonstrated to negatively affect the educational process or to endanger the health, safety, morality or welfare of the school community. Students found guilty of violating this Regulation will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action consistent with the Discipline Code and Chancellor's Regulation A-443. Please refer to Chancellor's Regulation A-831 for complaints of peer sexual harassment.

The following is intended to provide guidance to assist staff and students in identifying bias-based behavior.

Citizenship/Immigration Status: actual or perceived immigration status or status as a citizen of a country other than the United States of America.

Disability: actual or perceived disability, or history of disability. The term "disability" applies to a person who (1) has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities; (2) has a record of such an impairment; or (3) is regarded as having such an impairment. Major life activities include caring for one's self, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, working, performing manual tasks, and learning. Some examples of impairments which may substantially limit major life activities, even with the help of medication or aids/devices, are: AIDS, alcoholism, blindness or visual impairment, cancer, deafness or hearing impairment, diabetes, drug addiction, heart disease, and mental illness.

Ethnicity/National Origin: actual or perceived national origin or ethnic identity. National origin is distinct from race/color or religion/creed because people of several races and religions or their forbearers -- may come from one nation. The term "national origin" includes members of all national groups and groups of persons of common ancestry, heritage or background; it also includes individuals who are married to or associated with a person or persons of a particular national origin.

Gender (Sex): actual or perceived gender (sex), pregnancy, or conditions related to pregnancy or childbirth. The prohibition against gender discrimination includes sexual harassment.

The term "gender" shall also include a person's gender identity, self-image, appearance, behavior or expression, whether or not that gender identity, self-image, appearance, behavior or expression is different from that traditionally associated with the legal sex assigned to that person at birth.

Race/Color: actual or perceived race or color.

Religion/Creed: actual or perceived religion or creed (set of fundamental beliefs, whether or not they constitute a religion).

Sexual Orientation: actual or perceived sexual orientation. The term sexual orientation means heterosexuality, homosexuality or bisexuality.

Weight: actual or perceived weight.
