DESCRIPTION

At John Adams High School we hold ourselves responsible for fostering and sustaining a school wide culture of lifelong learning, resulting in the skills and knowledge necessary for success in college and 21st century careers. In order to accomplish this we have instituted a series of initiatives with the combined goals of improving instruction and aligning it with the CCLS and Engage NY, promoting the learning both of students and adults, and fostering a culture of collaboration and engagement between students, parents, staff, and community. Among the most important of these initiatives are SAM, WITSI, and PBIS.

SAM (Scaffolded Apprenticeship Model) is a two year school improvement and leadership program, centering on use of inquiry cycle to identify learning gaps, followed by the creation of instructional and/or structural systems to close them. WITSI (Writing is Thinking and Strategic Inquiry) incorporates the cycle of inquiry to provide a scaffolded approach to developing student writing and critical thinking skills. The Positive Behavior Interventions and Supports (PBIS) program is based on the understanding that behavioral and academic concerns oftentimes are interrelated, and uses a two-pronged approach that addresses the needs of the whole student.

These programs operate in a broader setting of student selected, theme based Small Learning Communities (SLCs) and specialty programs such as Junior Air Force ROTC, the IB (International Baccalaureate) Program, College Now, Advanced Placement, extensive PSAL and extracurricular activities, and STEM and Fine Arts programs, among others. By combining the intimacy of a small school with the offerings of a large school, our students are supported academically, emotionally, and socially.

A mandatory one week summer planning institute to be held August 29, 2016 will offer an essential opportunity for staff to be involved in developing the school's culture and instructional program.

Because we believe that all staff members play an important role in the education of our students, the school will offer opportunities for social workers to assist with or participate in activities like:

- After-school and/or Saturday tutoring, enrichment, sports, arts, and family programs
- In-house school committees and/or special programs.
- Inquiry work with teachers and other staff members and collaborative conversation among all staff members.
- Any other opportunities you'll have in your school that are outside of guidance counselors' contractual obligations within the scope of a social worker's responsibilities.

Advance notice of dates will be supplied, and those who participate will be compensated according to the terms of the UFT contract. Staff participation in these activities is voluntary, although strongly encouraged, as they are very important to the development of the school.
