

Program Name	Borough(s)					Services Available
	Bronx	Brooklyn	Manhattan	Queens	Staten Island	Computer Access	Internet Access	Computer Classes	ESL Classes	Adult Literacy
Northern Manhattan Improvement Corporation			✓						✓	✓
PerScholas	✓					✓		✓
Phipps Community Development Corporation	✓					✓	✓	✓
Riverside Language Program	✓		✓		✓				✓
Soundview Community in Action, LDC	✓					✓	✓	✓
State University of New York (SUNY) ATTAIN Laboratories	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓
SUNY Brooklyn Educational Opportunity Center		✓				✓	✓	✓		✓
SUNY North Bronx Career Counseling and Outreach Center	✓					✓	✓	✓		✓
We Are New York	✓	✓	✓	✓	✓				✓
YMCA of Greater New York New Americans Welcome Centers	✓	✓	✓		✓			✓	✓	✓

PUBLIC COMPUTER AND INTERNET ACCESS
Program/Organization	Description	Services	Eligibility/Requirements
Beacon Centers New York, NY http://www.nyc.gov/html/dycd/html/afterschool/beacon_program.shtml Phone: 212-788-6754 or Contact your closest Community Center: http://www.nyc.gov/html/dycd/html/afterschool/search.shtml	The Beacon Program, part of the New York Department of Youth and Community Development, operates 80 after-school Community Centers located throughout the five boroughs. To find out whether your local center offers computer and Internet access, call the central number or visit the "About DYCD" section of the website.	Computer access Internet access ESL Classes	Any child can enroll at any Beacon location. Each participant must complete an enrollment form.
Henry Street Settlement Manhattan, NY, www.henrystreet.org http://www.hss.sunyec.org/	Located in the Lower East Side, the Henry Street Settlement delivers a wide range of social service and arts programming to more than 50,000 New Yorkers each year. Henry Street's ATTAIN (Advanced Technology Training and Information Networking) lab offers free access to the Internet and free computer training to members of the community.	Computer access Internet access Computer classes
New York City Department of Parks and Recreation New York, NY http://www.nycgovparks.org Contact your closest Computer Resource Center	The New York City Department of Parks and Recreation has set up computer resource centers at locations throughout the five boroughs where children and adults can use computers, access the Internet and attend classes and specialized computer workshops. You can find the closest computer resource center here: http://www.nycgovparks.org/sub_things_to_do/crc/locations.html	Computer access Internet access Computer classes
New York City Housing Authority New York, NY http://www.nyc.gov/html/nycha/ Phone: 212-306-3000 or contact your Borough Management Office: http://www.nyc.gov/html/nycha/html/contact/contact.shtml	The New York City Housing Authority (NYCHA) has community centers in all five boroughs which provide educational and recreational programs and services for residents of public housing and their neighbors in the community.	Computer access Internet access	Many, but not all, of these centers provide computers and Internet access. To find out whether your community center does, you can search the community center directory here: http://www.nyc.gov/html/nycha/html/ccshtml/communitycenters.shtml

New York Public Library New York, NY www.nypl.org Contact the Help Desk Phone: 917-ASK-NYPL Email Link: http://www.nypl.org/ask-nypl	All branches of the New York Public library feature computers that offer access to the Internet, electronic databases, library catalogs, and Microsoft Office. Many locations offer free wireless access and Wi-Fi in all public areas in the libraries during library hours. Branches are located throughout the five boroughs.	Computer access Internet access Computer classes ESL classes Family Literacy	To reserve a computer, library patrons must have a valid ID card, which they can obtain free of charge at any library location.
Phipps Community Development Corporation Bronx, NY http://www.phippswestfarms.org/ Contact Angel Aracena, Director of Educational Technology Phone: 718-620-1900, ext. 28 Email: aracena@hippsny.org	Phipps offers adult education classes at two community education centers: the Opportunity Center in Melrose and the West Farms Technology & Career Center on Tremont Avenue. Phipps offers computer, ESL, literacy and pre-GED classes as well as open access to computer labs when classes are not in session. The organization also assists community members with public benefits such as health insurance, Medicaid, food stamps, and resume development .	Computer access Internet access Computer classes Adult education ESL classes Other	Classes are offered on Mondays and Wednesdays from 3pm to 4:30pm. Open Lab hours are available when classes are not in session.
Soundview Community in Action, LDC Bronx, NY http://www.sciaction.org/ Phone: 718-328-0793 Email: scia@sciaction.org	Soundview Community in Action (SCA) is a non-profit in the South Bronx that offers computer training free of charge. Their lab is also available for computer and Internet use when classes are not in session.	Computer access Internet access Computer classes	Students in computer training must be 15 or older
SUNY ATTAIN Laboratories New York, NY http://www.attain.suny.edu/ Find your closest lab location here: http://www.attain.suny.edu/labs_list.php	The State University of New York created the Advanced Technology Training and Information Networking (ATTAIN) project to promote digital parity in New York’s economically challenged communities. They provide computer and Internet access and computer classes for residents at locations throughout New York City and New York State.	Computer access Internet access Computer classes
SUNY Brooklyn Educational Opportunity Center Brooklyn, NY http://www.bkl.eoc.suny.edu/ Phone: 718-488-9840	Brooklyn Education Opportunity Center offers career readiness programs that include classes on computers and networking technology, office support, Microsoft Office, and web page design and maintenance.	Computer access Internet access Computer classes Adult Education Other	Tuition free training is available for eligible New York State residents age 18 or over. All applicants to the college prep or career training program must have a high school diploma or GED certificate.

SUNY North Bronx Career Counseling and Outreach Center Bronx, NY http://nbx.eoc.suny.edu/ Phone: 718-547-1001	The North Bronx Career Counseling and Outreach Center offers educational and job training programs that lead to employment or college. Computer literacy and GED preparation classes are available. Classes include computer access, tutoring assistance, counseling and job placement assistance.	Computer access Internet access Computer classes Adult Education Other
--	---	---	--

COMPUTER TRAINING
Program/Organization	Description	Services	Eligibility/Requirements
Fifth Avenue Committee Brooklyn, NY http://www.fifthave.org Phone: 718-237-2017 ext 128	The Fifth Avenue Committee, a non-profit, community based organization in South Brooklyn. From Boerum Hill to Sunset Park, adults young and old can take advantage of 20 classes in: English As a Second Language (ESL), Adult Basic Education, GED Preparation and Basic Computer Skills.	Computer classes ESL classes Adult Education Family literacy	Classes are available to anyone who enrolls in the Neighborhood Employment Services Program.
Hamilton-Madison House Manhattan, NY http://www.hmhonline.org Contact: So Lan Liang, Director of Immigrant and Community Services Phone: 212-571-2823	The Hamilton-Madison house is a non-profit settlement house dedicated to improving the quality of life of its community, primarily those in the Two Bridges/Chinatown area of Manhattan's Lower East Side. They provide services for children, computer and ESL classes for adults, and translation services.	Computer classes ESL classes Other	Classes open to adults ages 18-59.
Henry Street Settlement Manhattan, NY, www.henrystreet.org http://www.hss.sunyeoc.org/	Located in the Lower East Side, the Henry Street Settlement delivers a wide range of social service and arts programming to more than 50,000 New Yorkers each year. Henry Street's ATAIN (Advanced Technology Training and Information Networking) lab offers free access to the Internet and free computer training to members of the community.	Computer access Internet access Computer classes

New York City Department of Parks and Recreation New York, NY http://www.nycgovparks.org/sub_things_to_do/crc/ Contact your closest Computer Resource Center: http://www.nycgovparks.org/sub_things_to_do/crc/locations.html	The New York City Department of Parks and Recreation offers free technology classes for children, adults and seniors at computer resource centers throughout the five boroughs. Available lessons include: computer basics (I and II), Internet basics (I and II), and Microsoft Office classes. Programs vary by location.	Computer access Internet access Computer classes
New York City Office of Adult and Continuing Education (OACE) New York, NY http://schools.nyc.gov/ChoicesEnrollment/AdultEd/default.htm	The New York City Office of Adult and Continuing Education (OACE) is the largest provider of adult literacy education services in the state. They offer over 900 classes for adults age 21 and over at Adult Learning Centers located in Brooklyn, Manhattan, Queens, and the Bronx. All classes are taught by certified teachers and are offered free of charge (tuition-free).	Adult Education Family Literacy ESL classes Computer classes Other	Ongoing registration for classes is held regularly at schools and offices around the city. Contact the location nearest you for class availability, registration information and travel directions
NYC OACE Bronx Adult Learning Center Bronx, NY http://adulthoodnyc.info/programs.html Phone: 718-863-4057	The Bronx Adult Learning Center is one of many programs offered through the New York City Department of Education Office of Adult and Continuing Education. The center offers computer technology classes, technical career training and adult basic education classes at various locations.	Computer classes ESL classes Adult Education	Classes are free for adults 21 or older. Register in person at 3450 East Fremont Avenue: Monday - Friday at 9 a.m. or Monday or Thursday at 6 pm
NYC OACE Brooklyn Adult Learning Center Brooklyn, NY Phone: 718-622-3000	The Brooklyn Adult Learning Center is one of many programs offered through the New York City Department of Education Office of Adult and Continuing Education. The center offers computer technology classes, technical career training and adult basic education classes at various locations.	Computer classes ESL classes Adult Education Other	Classes are free for adults 21 or older. Call for registration information.
New York Public Library New York, NY http://www.nypl.org/events/classes/computer-classes For general information, contact the Help Desk: 917-ASK-NYPL For class listings, contact your local library.	The New York Public library offers free technology classes at libraries throughout the five boroughs. Classes include: introduction to computers and the Internet, keyboarding, basic Internet e-mail, Microsoft Office classes, computer buying guide, and others. Classes are available to the public, free of charge.	Computer access Internet access Computer classes ESL classes Family Literacy	Classes are free. Registration instructions for classes in multiple locations can be found in the calendar of classes: http://www.nypl.org/events/classes

PerScholas Bronx, NY http://www.perscholas.org Main Phone: 1-800-877-4068 718-991-8400 For information about Comp2Kids, contact Kenneth Walker Phone: 718-991-8400 ext. 338	PerScholas offers low-cost computers and technical support to low-income families. They recycle corporate computers and sell them at a discounted rate, as low as $245 for desktops. PerScholas has also launched a Comp2Kids* program in which they provide students and families in low-income neighborhoods with free computer literacy training and personal desktop computers.	Computer classes Other	*This program is available at the school level only. Families are not eligible to apply on their own. If your school meets the eligibility requirements, talk to your principal about applying!
Phipps Community Development Corporation Bronx, NY http://www.phippswestfarms.org/ Contact Angel Aracena, Director of Educational Technology Phone: 718-620-1900, ext. 28 Email: aaracena@phippsnyc.org	Phipps offers adult education classes at two community education centers: the Opportunity Center in Melrose and the West Farms Technology & Career Center on Tremont Avenue. Phipps offers computer, ESL, literacy and pre-GED classes as well as open access to computer labs when classes are not in session. The organization also assists community members with public benefits such as health insurance, Medicaid, food stamps, and resume development .	Computer access Internet access Computer classes Adult education ESL classes Other	Classes are offered on Mondays and Wednesdays from 3pm to 4:30pm. Open Lab hours are available when classes are not in session. Classes fill up quickly; call for availability.
Soundview Community in Action, LDC Bronx, NY http://www.sciaction.org/ Phone: 718-328-0793 Email: scia@sciaction.org	Soundview Community in Action (SCA) is a non-profit in the South Bronx that offers computer training free of charge. Their lab is also available for computer and Internet use when classes are not in session.	Computer access Internet access Computer classes	Students in computer training must be 15 or older
SUNY ATTAIN Laboratories New York, NY http://www.attain.suny.edu/ Find your closest lab location here: http://www.attain.suny.edu/labs_list.php	The State University of New York created the Advanced Technology Training and Information Networking (ATTAIN) project to promote digital parity in New York’s economically challenged communities. They provide computer and Internet access and computer classes for residents at locations throughout New York City and New York State.	Computer access Internet access Computer classes
SUNY Brooklyn Educational Opportunity Center Brooklyn, NY http://www.bkl.eoc.suny.edu/ Phone: 718-488-9840	Brooklyn Education Opportunity Center offers career readiness programs that include classes on computers and networking technology, office support, Microsoft Office, and web page design and maintenance.	Computer access Internet access Computer classes Adult Education Other	Tuition free training is available for eligible New York State residents age 18 or over. All applicants to the college prep or career training program must have a high school diploma or GED certificate.

SUNY North Bronx Career Counseling and Outreach Center Bronx, NY http://nbx.eoc.suny.edu/ Phone: 718-547-1001	The North Bronx Career Counseling and Outreach Center offers educational and job training programs that lead to employment or college. Computer literacy and GED preparation classes are available. Classes include computer access, tutoring assistance, counseling and job placement assistance.	Computer access Internet access Computer classes Adult Education Other
YMCA New Americans Welcome Centers New York, NY http://www.ymcanyc.org/new-americans-initiative/nawc/ Phone: 212-875-4336	The YMCA of Greater New York New Americans Initiative was founded to help immigrants achieve literacy, cultural competence, and self-sufficiency. They have five welcome centers in Manhattan (Chinatown and Harlem), the Bronx, Brooklyn, and Staten Island offering services such as ESL, cultural orientation, citizen preparation, job readiness and computer literacy classes.	Computer classes ESL classes Adult education	Classes may vary. Call your nearest center for more information.

ADULT LITERACY
Program/Organization	Description	Services	Eligibility/Requirements
Brooklyn Chinese-American Association Brooklyn, NY http://www.bca.net/ For Adult Education program information, call: (718) 438-0008 or visit: http://www.bca.net/eng/adulteducation.html	The Brooklyn Chinese-American Association (BCA) was founded as a community-based not-for-profit social service agency in response to the growing needs of the Asian-American community in the Sunset Park, Borough Park, and Bay Ridge sections of Brooklyn. BCA offers a variety of free adult education classes and services, including: BENL (Basic Education in Native Language), ESOL, and ABE (Adult Basic Education), family literacy classes, employment services, and case management.	ESL classes Adult Education Family Literacy

City University of New York (CUNY) Adult Literacy Program New York, NY http://www.literacy.cuny.edu/ For general information, call 212-794-5302.	The CUNY Adult Literacy/GED Program has been the cornerstone of CUNY's Division of Adult and Continuing Education for more than a quarter of a century. Through the Program, which operates on 14 campuses of the University in all five boroughs, tens of thousands of New York City adults have learned to speak English, to read and write with greater facility, and to prepare for high school credentialing through the GED Exam.	Family Literacy Adult Basic Education ESL classes	Free ESOL, Basic Education, and GED classes are offered at CUNY's 14 campuses mornings, evenings, and weekends. Registration is ongoing throughout the year. To register, contact the campus nearest to you: http://www.literacy.cuny.edu/locations/index.html
Fifth Avenue Committee Brooklyn, NY http://www.fifthave.org Phone: 718-237-2017 ext 128	The Fifth Avenue Committee, a non-profit, community based organization in South Brooklyn. From Boerum Hill to Sunset Park, adults young and old can take advantage of 20 classes in: English As a Second Language (ESL), Adult Basic Education, GED Preparation and Basic Computer Skills.	Computer classes ESL classes Adult Education Family literacy	Classes are available to anyone who enrolls in the Neighborhood Employment Services Program.
Literacy Partners New York, NY http://www.literacypartners.org Phone: 212-725-9200	Literacy Partners, Inc., a not-for-profit organization, provides free community-based adult and family literacy programs to ensure that all adults have the access to quality education needed to fully realize their potential as individuals, parents, and citizens.	Adult Education Family Literacy ESL classes Other	Although there is no cost for their services, they hold a strict attendance policy in which students must agree to come to class at least two days a week for the entire 3 hour session.
New York City Office of Adult and Continuing Education (OACE) New York, NY http://schools.nyc.gov/ChoicesEnrollment/AdultEd/default.htm	The New York City Office of Adult and Continuing Education (OACE) is the largest provider of adult literacy education services in the state. They offer over 900 classes for adults age 21 and over at Adult Learning Centers located in Brooklyn, Manhattan, Queens, and the Bronx. All classes are taught by certified teachers and are offered free of charge (tuition-free).	Adult Education Family Literacy ESL classes Computer classes Other	Ongoing registration for classes is held regularly at schools and offices around the city. Contact the location nearest you for class availability, registration information and travel directions

NYC OACE Bronx Adult Learning Center Bronx, NY http://adulthoodnyc.info/programs.html Phone: 718-863-4057	The Bronx Adult Learning Center is one of many programs offered through the New York City Department of Education Office of Adult and Continuing Education. The center offers computer technology classes, technical career training and adult basic education classes at various locations.	Computer classes ESL classes Adult Education
NYC OACE Brooklyn Adult Learning Center Brooklyn, NY Phone: 718-622-3000	The Brooklyn Adult Learning Center is one of many programs offered through the New York City Department of Education Office of Adult and Continuing Education. The center offers computer technology classes, technical career training and adult basic education classes at various locations.	Computer classes Adult Education Other
Northern Manhattan Improvement Corporation Manhattan, NY http://www.nmic.org Phone: (212) 822-8300	The Northern Manhattan Improvement Corporation offers a variety of free services for adults, including ESL classes, adult basic education and GED classes, civics and citizenships, and various workshops. They also have a program for parents with elementary school children through which parents attend ESL classes while children receive homework help.	ESL classes Adult education
Phipps Community Development Corporation Bronx, NY http://www.phippswestfarms.org/ Contact Angel Aracena, Director of Educational Technology Phone: 718-620-1900, ext. 28 Email: aaracena@hippsny.org	Phipps offers adult education classes at two community education centers: the Opportunity Center in Melrose and the West Farms Technology & Career Center on Tremont Avenue. Phipps offers computer, ESL, literacy and pre-GED classes as well as open access to computer labs when classes are not in session. The organization also assists community members with public benefits such as health insurance, Medicaid, food stamps, and resume development .	Computer access Internet access Computer classes Adult education ESL classes Other	Classes are offered on Mondays and Wednesdays from 3pm to 4:30pm. Open Lab hours are available when classes are not in session. Classes fill up quickly; call for availability.

YMCA New Americans Welcome Centers New York, NY http://www.ymcanyc.org/new-americans-initiative/nawc/ Phone: 212-875-4336	The YMCA of Greater New York New Americans Initiative was founded to help immigrants achieve literacy, cultural competence, and self-sufficiency. They have five welcome centers in Manhattan (Chinatown and Harlem), the Bronx, Brooklyn, and Staten Island offering services such as ESL, cultural orientation, citizen preparation, job readiness and computer literacy classes.	Computer classes ESL classes Adult education	Classes may vary. Call your nearest center for more information.
---	--	---	---

RESOURCES FOR ENGLISH-LANGUAGE LEARNERS
Program/Organization	Description	Services	Eligibility/Requirements
Beacon Centers New York, NY http://www.nyc.gov/html/dycd/html/afterschool/beacon_program.shtml Phone: 212-788-6754 or contact your closest Community Center: http://www.nyc.gov/html/dycd/html/afterschool/search.shtml	The Beacon Program, part of the New York Department of Youth and Community Development, operates 80 after-school Community Centers located throughout the five boroughs. To find out whether your local center offers computer and Internet access, call the central number or visit the “About DYCD” section of the website.	Computer access Internet access ESL classes	Any child can enroll at any Beacon location. Each participant must complete an enrollment form.
Brooklyn Chinese-American Association Brooklyn, NY http://www.bca.net/ For Adult Education program information, call: (718) 438-0008 or visit: http://www.bca.net/eng/adulteducation.html	The Brooklyn Chinese-American Association (BCA) was founded as a community-based not-for-profit social service agency in response to the growing needs of the Asian-American community in the Sunset Park, Borough Park, and Bay Ridge sections of Brooklyn. BCA offers a variety of free adult education classes and services, including: BENL (Basic Education in Nature Language), ESOL, and ABE (Adult Basic Education), family literacy classes, employment services, and case management.	ESL classes Adult Education Family Literacy

City University of New York (CUNY) Adult Literacy Program New York, NY http://www.literacy.cuny.edu/ For general information, call 212-794-5302.	The CUNY Adult Literacy/GED Program has been the cornerstone of CUNY's Division of Adult and Continuing Education for more than a quarter of a century. Through the Program, which operates on 14 campuses of the University in all five boroughs, tens of thousands of New York City adults have learned to speak English, to read and write with greater facility, and to prepare for high school credentialing through the GED Exam.	Family Literacy Adult Education ESL classes Other	Free ESOL, Basic Education, and GED classes are offered at CUNY's 14 campuses mornings, evenings, and weekends. Registration is ongoing throughout the year. To register, contact the campus nearest to you: http://www.literacy.cuny.edu/locations/index.html
Fifth Avenue Committee Brooklyn, NY http://www.fifthave.org Phone: 718-237-2017 ext 128	The Fifth Avenue Committee, a non-profit, community based organization in South Brooklyn. From Boerum Hill to Sunset Park, adults young and old can take advantage of 20 classes in: English As a Second Language (ESL), Adult Basic Education, GED Preparation and Basic Computer Skills.	Computer classes ESL classes Adult Education Family literacy	Classes are available to anyone who enrolls in the Neighborhood Employment Services Program.
Goodwill Family Learning Center Queens, NY www.goodwillny.org Phone: 718-777-6440	In collaboration with the NYC Department of Education and local colleges, community residents can participate in free adult ESL classes ESL. The classes are scheduled during the day, evenings and weekends. Specialty workshops on a variety of topics are also provided.	Computer classes ESL classes
Hamilton-Madison House Manhattan, NY http://www.hmhonline.org Contact: So Lan Liang, Director of Immigrant and Community Services Phone: 212-571-2823	The Hamilton-Madison house is a non-profit settlement house dedicated to improving the quality of life of its community, primarily those in the Two Bridges/Chinatown area of Manhattan's Lower East Side. They provide services for children, computer and ESL classes for adults, and translation services.	Computer classes ESL classes Other	Classes open to adults ages 18-59.

Literacy Partners New York, NY http://www.literacypartners.org Phone: 212-725-9200	Literacy Partners, Inc., a not-for-profit organization, provides free community-based adult and family literacy programs to ensure that all adults have the access to quality education needed to fully realize their potential as individuals, parents, and citizens.	Adult Education Family Literacy ESL classes Other	Although there is no cost for their services, they hold a strict attendance policy in which students must agree to come to class at least two days a week for the entire 3 hour session.
New York City Office of Adult and Continuing Education (OACE) New York, NY http://schools.nyc.gov/ChoicesEnrollment/AdultEd/default.htm	The New York City Office of Adult and Continuing Education (OACE) is the largest provider of adult literacy education services in the state. They offer over 900 classes for adults age 21 and over at Adult Learning Centers located in Brooklyn, Manhattan, Queens, and the Bronx. All classes are taught by certified teachers and are offered free of charge (tuition-free).	Adult Education Family Literacy ESL classes Computer classes Other	Ongoing registration for classes is held regularly at schools and offices around the city. Contact the location nearest you for class availability, registration information and travel directions
NYC OACE Bronx Adult Learning Center Bronx, NY http://adulthoodnyc.info/programs.html Phone: 718-863-4057	The Bronx Adult Learning Center is one of many programs offered through the New York City Department of Education Office of Adult and Continuing Education. The center offers computer technology classes, technical career training and adult basic education classes at various locations.	Computer classes ESL classes Adult Education	Classes are free for adults 21 or older. Register in person at 3450 East Fremont Avenue: Monday - Friday at 9 a.m. or Monday or Thursday at 6 pm
NYC OACE Brooklyn Adult Learning Center Brooklyn, NY Phone: 718-622-3000	The Brooklyn Adult Learning Center is one of many programs offered through the New York City Department of Education Office of Adult and Continuing Education. The center offers computer technology classes, technical career training and adult basic education classes at various locations.	Computer classes ESL classes Adult Education Other	Classes are free for adults 21 or older. Call for registration information

New York Public Library New York, NY http://www.nypl.org/events/classes/computer-classes For general information, contact the Help Desk: 917-ASK-NYPL For class listings, contact your local library.	The New York Public library offers free technology classes at libraries throughout the five boroughs. Classes include: introduction to computers and the Internet, keyboarding, basic Internet e-mail, Microsoft Office classes, computer buying guide, and others. Classes are available to the public, free of charge.	Computer access Internet access Computer classes ESL classes	Classes are free. Registration instructions for classes in multiple locations can be found in the calendar of classes: http://www.nypl.org/events/classes
Northern Manhattan Improvement Corporation Manhattan, NY http://www.nmic.org Phone: (212) 822-8300	The Northern Manhattan Improvement Corporation offers a variety of free services for adults, including ESL classes, adult basic education and GED classes, civics and citizenships, and various workshops. They also have a program for parents with elementary school children through which parents attend ESL classes while children receive homework help.	ESL classes Adult education
Phipps Community Development Corporation Bronx, NY http://www.phippswestfarms.org/ Contact Angel Aracena, Director of Educational Technology Phone: 718-620-1900, ext. 28 Email: aaracena@phippsny.org	Phipps offers adult education classes at two community education centers: the Opportunity Center in Melrose and the West Farms Technology & Career Center on Tremont Avenue. Phipps offers computer, ESL, literacy and pre-GED classes as well as open access to computer labs when classes are not in session. The organization also assists community members with public benefits such as health insurance, Medicaid, food stamps, and resume development .	Computer access Internet access Computer classes Adult education ESL classes Other	Classes are offered on Mondays and Wednesdays from 3pm to 4:30pm. Open Lab hours are available when classes are not in session. Classes fill up quickly; call for availability.

Riverside Language Program New York, NY http://www.riversidelanguage.org Phone: 212-662-3200	The Riverside Language Program offers free classes in English to Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) to new immigrants and refugees living in New York City. They offer intensive ESL classes (5 hours a day) and part-time ESL classes. These classes meet twice a week or on Saturdays at public libraries in Manhattan, the Bronx, and Staten Island.	ESL classes	Must be 17 years or older; an immigrant or refugee or applicant for permanent residence or political asylum; must have received visa less than 24 months ago; must be a resident of New York City; and must be able to attend all classes. A lottery is held because there are more applicants than spaces
We Are New York New York, NY http://www.nyc.gov/LearnEnglish To set up a free group to practice speaking English, email: wany@cityhall.nyc.gov	We Are New York is a television resource created by the Mayor’s Office of Adult Education and the City University of New York, Office of Academic Affairs to help people learn English. Each week, English Language Learners can watch a half-hour television program showing immigrants speaking English in useful, real-life situations. We Are New York also offers free weekly English conversation practice and other educational resources on-line.	ESL classes	Television program available on weekends on Channel 25 (or Channel 22 on Cablevision) and Tuesdays on Channel 34 (or Verizon Channel 33 or RCN Channel 92).
YMCA New Americans Welcome Centers New York, NY http://www.ymcanyc.org/new-americans-initiative/nawc/ Phone: 212-875-4336	The YMCA of Greater New York New Americans Initiative was founded to help immigrants achieve literacy, cultural competence, and self-sufficiency. They have five welcome centers in Manhattan (Chinatown and Harlem), the Bronx, Brooklyn, and Staten Island offering services such as ESL, cultural orientation, citizen preparation, job readiness and computer literacy classes.	Computer classes ESL classes Adult education	Classes may vary. Call your nearest center for more information.