

The Fresh Creek School

2011-2012 YEARBOOK

THE FRESH CREEK SCHOOL MISSION STATEMENT

- The Fresh Creek School believes in nurturing our scholars' core through our dedicated cadre of educators, partnership with parents/guardians, and rigorous and engaging curriculum.

- Our multicultural approaches help our scholars appreciate their culture while embracing our diverse world. Our scholars understand and value the importance of working collaboratively with various cultures for the greater good of our local and global community. We envision our scholars as seeds destined to grow strong and proud like the mighty oak, making positive contributions to our society.

- Succeed and make the world a better place!

Principal Coombs

As our 1st year comes to a close, I would like to thank my family at The Fresh Creek School for all your hard work and dedication! Many hands make light work! The more we pull together the tighter we will be!

“YOU MUST BE THE CHANGE YOU WISH TO SEE IN THE WORLD!” MAHATMA GANDHI

Assistant Principal Briceus

“Our children learn how to learn, nothing is going to narrow their mind. The essence of teaching is to make learning contagious, to have one idea spark another.”
Marva Collins

The Fresh Creek Creed

- Fresh Creek Creed

- I am a proud scholar of the Fresh Creek School.
- I am engaged in my learning because I have high aspirations for myself.

The photograph shows a group of 25 children and one adult woman, the teacher, Ms. Douglas, standing on a wooden stage. The children are arranged in three rows. The teacher is on the far left of the front row. The children are dressed in a variety of casual clothing. The background is a dark blue wall. The photo is framed with a colorful border. An American flag is visible on the left side of the frame. A globe is in the bottom left corner. The text 'PS 325' is at the top center, 'School Year 2011 - 2012' is at the bottom center, and the class information and contact details are at the bottom left and right respectively.
