

MTAC R0962 Professional Development for Arts Education

Contract Dates: 11/1/2013 - 10/31/2018

For more Information please

Call Paul King
at (212)374-0290

Component	Vendor Name	Component Description	Contract Number
Blueprint Training Workshops	Theatre Development Fund	Provides tailored Blueprint training services year-round, at the time and date requested by the school. For each program, the curriculum will be built in cooperation with the needs of the requesting party and in alignment with the Blueprint. All Professional Development programs are developed by our Blueprint certified trainers: Stephen DiMenna, Marianna Houston or Judy Tate.	QR0089Z
Blueprint Training Workshops	92nd Street Y	Training for teachers will stimulate in students fundamental understandings of dance as a discreet, vital discipline with expansive applications for holistic, life-long learning. Workshops may accommodate up to 45 participants, and can be structured as fullday, half-day or after-school events, on weekdays and weekends.	QR089AE
Blueprint Training Workshops	Lincoln Center for Performing Arts	Workshops in dance, music, theatre and visual arts for grades pre-k through twelve.	QR9620F
Blueprint Training Workshops	Magic Box Productions, Inc.	Participants will learn how to use video as an authentic technical aid in the classroom. Educators will learn the languages of the moving and still mediums, and how to 'see in pictures' to create material aligned with ELA curriculum and goals. Through a combination of examples, games, and 'hands-on' work, they will gain important experience in both the aesthetics and mechanics of the mediums.	QR9620G
Blueprint Training Workshops	Roundabout Theatre Company	Teachers explore the five Blueprint strands of arts education and learn strategies for lesson plan building and engaging students in the arts.	QR9620K
Blueprint Training Workshops	Studio In A School Association, Inc.	Services will support, improve and enhance the quality of visual arts education in schools and enhance and broaden understanding of how quality learning in the visual arts contributes to students' overall success in school and life.	QR9620L
Instructional Planning Support Services	Theatre Development Fund	Designs and implements workshops for the NYC education and theatre communities. Each workshop begins with a series of warm-up activities relevant to the themes to be explored that day. For example, responding to and analyzing works of art can be addressed by exploring a specific piece of theatre, modeling how to conduct post and pre-show activities with the students to enrich the experience of seeing the show. The workshop ends with a summation of what was discovered and how the learned tools can be translated into classroom use.	QR0089Z
Instructional Planning Support Services	Roundabout Theatre Company	Project Coordinators support administration in budgeting arts programs in the school and the allocation of partnership funds to different projects. Project Coordinators also meet with arts staff to help plan and schedule collaborative arts programs such as in-school and after school performances, cross-classroom arts projects, and sharing of artistic work within the school community.	QR9620K
Standards-Based PD Services	Center for Arts Education	Center for Arts Education- Through interactive laboratories, panel discussions, question and answer sessions with keynote speakers and printed resources, the Principals Workshops provide a comprehensive continuing education experience. The programs also include a formal evaluation submitted by participants, with a post-institute debriefing session for both participants and facilitators.	QR0089S
Standards-Based PD Services	Theatre Development Fund	Designs and implements workshops for the NYC education and theatre communities. Each workshop begins with a series of warm-up activities relevant to the themes to be explored that day. At the core of the workshop are activities shaped to address the New York State Learning Standards for the Arts and, if desired, literacy. For example, creating, performing and participating in the arts can be addressed by focusing on playwriting, having the participants create monologues and dialogue. The workshop ends with a summation of what was discovered and how the learned tools can be translated into classroom use.	QR0089Z
Standards-Based PD Services	Henry Street Settlement	Henry Street offers services that train educators to infuse the arts through curricular offerings such as social studies, history and English. Available programs include Exploring Social Studies through the Arts; Integrating Arts into Classroom Practice; Conflict Resolution through Drama and Role-Play; Participatory Art Workshop; Arts in the Special Education Classroom; and Partnering with Cultural Institutions.	QR089AD
Standards-Based PD Services	92nd Street Y	Open to any current and prospective dance teacher and addresses content area and stages of human development that are consistent with the Blueprint strands. While most courses survey all benchmarks, certain workshops concentrate on specific benchmarks from year to year and may vary. Programs are assessed by evaluation forms, exit slips, discussion webs and student and teacher reflections that provide quantitative and qualitative assessments of program effectiveness. Culminating projects also determine levels of learning and transfer of knowledge from facilitator to teacher participant. Data collected satisfy baseline, formative and summative assessments for ongoing program evaluation and development.	QR089AE
Standards-Based PD Services	Arts Horizons, Inc.	Visual Arts, dance, music, theatre & the moving image workshops for teachers and/or administrators linking the arts to other academic learning standard.	QR9620B
Standards-Based PD Services	Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences dba Brooklyn Museum	Visual Arts workshops for principals, arts specialists and teachers that connect art to other disciplines. Participants will look at and discuss art; develop visual arts vocabulary; read and write about art; and learn Problem Solving: interpreting and analyzing art.	QR9620C

MTAC R0962 Professional Development for Arts Education

Contract Dates: 11/1/2013 - 10/31/2018

For more Information please

Call Paul King
at (212)374-0290

Standards-Based PD Services	DreamYard Project, Inc.	Basic theatre, visual arts and poetry workshops, coaching or mentoring.	QR9620E
Standards-Based PD Services	Lincoln Center for Performing Arts	Workshops in dance, music, theatre and visual arts for grades pre-k through twelve.	QR9620F
Standards-Based PD Services	Magic Box Productions, Inc.	Participants will learn how to craft a viable inquiry question, and how video can be best used as evidence to support their claims.	QR9620G
Standards-Based PD Services	Manhattan New Music Project	MNMP offers residency programs such as From Western African Folk Dance to Today's Hip-Hop and Improv Theater Jam. Our PD offerings for English Language Learners and special education teachers, called Blank Page to Stage (BPS) & Everyday Arts for Special Education (EASE) respectively, integrate multiple arts disciplines (music, drama, dance/movement, visual arts, and creative writing) into core content to provide teachers with strategies for differentiated instruction.	QR9620H
Standards-Based PD Services	Metropolitan Opera Guild	The Guild's Professional Development program presents a variety of methods for approaching the multiple aspects of the operatic art form (history, visual arts, instrumental and vocal music, language and literature, dance, and theatre) within the context of a standards-based classroom curriculum.	QR9620J
Standards-Based PD Services	Roundabout Theatre Company	Workshops, small group mentoring, one on one curriculum co-planning.	QR9620K
Standards-Based PD Services	Dancewave, Inc.	D-Wave In Motion is Dancewave's arts-in-education PD program designed for NYC public schools and it's leaders. Dancewave designs teacher and staff in-service training workshops to strengthen the working relationship, increase the dance knowledge of the participating teachers and staff, and to inspire and motivate classroom teachers to utilize dance and movement in the classroom. We provide a roster of experienced professional dance artists to teach workshops, residencies, provide professional development for teachers and staff, create planning, evaluative surveys and reflection meetings with the Dancewave Company and staff. Dancewave also designs programs of study and curriculum in partnership with the school. Our desire is for the classroom teachers to take ownership of the material and generate enthusiasm about dance. Our professional development residencies and workshops encompass a variety of dance genres and ethnic forms, including Ballet, Modern, Creative Movement for children, Jazz, Tap, Hip Hop, African, Salsa, Flamenco, and Chinese dance.	QR9620M
Standards-Based PD Services	Learning Through An Expanded Arts Program (LEAP)	LEAP will provide sustained and engaging arts professional development services designed to: help schools build their capacity to provide effective arts education instruction; involve visual arts, dance, music, theater and film, video and new media; promote standards-based arts education and arts education integration models; serve grades K – 12 and; help schools enhance arts teaching and learning.	QR9620P
Standards-Based PD Services	Together in Dance, Inc.	Together In Dance provides: support to dance specialists through workshops or intensives designed around a specific theme; training in integrating movement into the curriculum; dance and musical theatre residencies.	QR9620S
Standards-Based PD Services	The New 42nd Street, Inc.	Theatre, puppetry, dance, music workshops, live performances. Summer intensives for pre-k through 12th grade teachers.	QR9620T