Dear Emerson Parents and Guardians,

In accordance with NYC Department of Education regulations, The Emerson School has developed, in consultation with its School Leadership Team, the below policy regarding cellular phones and other electronic devices at our school:

The Emerson School has a Zero Tolerance Policy for cell phones, iPods, and other electronic equipment. Students who carry this equipment on our school premises and make it visible (e.g. in the pants pocket, falling out of the backpack, playing with it in the cafeteria, etc.) run the risk of having it confiscated.

Electronics that are confiscated will only be returned to students if a parent visits the school to retrieve the device.

This policy represents a continuation of our current policy regarding cell phone and electronic devices. Students may have these devices in their possession but they must be turned off and not visible while students are in the school building. Thank you for your continued support in helping prepare our scholars for high school, college, and careers.

Sincerely,

Jakub Lau

Principal, I.A.
