

Middle School 88 provides students with a dynamic learning environment preparing them for success in high school, celebrates our diverse school community, and meets the needs of each student. We offer three distinct houses, each offering a different learning focus, a more intimate learning environment, and a specialized faculty, with the resources of a large school. Four times a year students focus on an integrated project-based (IPW) unit where students are assigned a question to explore in depth, in a project-based format. The blended learning innovation, integrated curriculum, and university partnerships have led us to grand prize wins in national STEM competitions such as Samsung Solve for Tomorrow, KenKen, and robotics. Our free after-school enrichment offers something for everyone. Our themed learning communities, gifted and talented programs, special education services, ELL instruction, and a wide range of after school offerings make M.S. 88 an exciting place to learn and grow.
