

EDUCATIONAL IMPACT STATEMENT:

The Proposed Re-siting of a District 75 School, 75K053, to Building K422 Beginning in the 2012-2013 School Year

I. Summary of Proposal

The New York City Department of Education (“DOE”) is proposing to re-site one location of a multi-site District 75 school (75K053) that currently serves 368 students¹ who are Emotionally Disabled (“ED”), Hearing Impaired (“HI”) or deaf, Intellectually Disabled (“ID”), have Multiple Disabilities (“MD”), Learning Disabilities (“LD”), or are Autistic in kindergarten through twelfth grade. These students are served in 12:1:1, 12:1:4, 9:1 inclusion, 8:1 inclusion and 6:1:1 settings.² The site that the DOE is proposing to re-site is P053@K838 which is currently located in school building K838 (“K838”) located at 720 Livonia Ave, Brooklyn, NY 11207 in Community School District 19. Currently, P053@K838 is not co-located with any other school organization. If this proposal is approved, P053@K838 will be re-sited to school building K422 (“K422”) located at 1065 Elton Street, Brooklyn, NY 11208 in Community School District 19, which is a newly constructed facility with space designed specifically for use by a District 75 program.³ If approved, this re-siting would be effective beginning in the 2012-2013 school year.

75K053 is currently located at seven separate sites throughout Brooklyn, including P053@K838. The other six sites are: P053K@1088K located at 544 Seventh Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11215; P053K@P104K located at 9115 Fifth Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11209; P053K@Abraham Lincoln High School located at 2800 Ocean Parkway, Brooklyn, NY 11235; P053K@Kingsboro High School located at 1830 Shore Boulevard, Brooklyn, NY 11235; P053K@I296K located at 125 Covert Street, Brooklyn, NY 11207; and P053K@P384K located at 242 Cooper Street, Brooklyn, NY 11207.

P053@K838 currently offers six ID and LD 12:1:1 classes, five MD 12:1:4 classes, and two ID and Autism 6:1:1 classes. If this proposal is approved, P053@K838 will re-site eight of its classes to K422. The remaining classes will be moved by 75K053 to other existing sites or the students will graduate. Specifically, three ID and LD 12:1:1 classes and five MD 12:1:4 classes currently served by P053@K838 at K838 will be re-sited to K422. In addition, 75K053 will move one of the ID and LD 12:1:1 classes currently served at P053@K838 to P053K@1088K and two ID and Autism 6:1:1 classes currently served at P053@K838 will be moved to P053K@Kingsboro High School. District 75 projects that one of the two remaining ID and LD 12:1:1 classes will graduate, and the other will articulate into the District 75 Brooklyn Transition Center, a vocational program of the District 75 school 75K373 designed for students over the age of 18. This proposal is not expected to affect P053K@P104K, P053K@Abraham Lincoln HS, P053K@I296K or P053K@P384K.

K422 is a new building, designed to house two secondary schools serving students in grades six through twelve and a District 75 program. The building is expected to become available for use by September 2012. On January 18th, 2012 the Panel for Educational Policy (“PEP”) approved the DOE’s proposal to re-site, expand, and co-locate Academy for Young Writers (14K404), an existing high school currently located in Community School District 14, with a new secondary school (19K422) and a District 75 program in K422 beginning in the 2012-2013 school year.⁴ The DOE is now proposing that P053K@K838 be the District 75 program to be sited in K422, which represents the DOE’s complete plan for utilizing the newly constructed K422 building.

II. Proposed or Potential Use of Buildings

Proposed or Potential Use of Building K422

K422 is designed to have a target capacity of 1,202 students.⁵ If this proposal is approved, there would be approximately 525-585 students served in K422 in 2012-2013, yielding a projected building utilization rate of 44%-49%. By 2018-2019 when both Academy for Young Writers and the new secondary school are both phased in, it is projected that K422 will serve 1,105-1,255 students, yielding a projected building utilization rate of 92%-104%.

Although a utilization rate in excess of 100% may suggest that a building will be over-utilized or over-crowded in a given year, this rate does not account for the fact that rooms may be programmed for more efficient or different uses than the standard assumptions in the utilization calculation, as described below.

The proposed grade spans for the schools in building K422 are as follows:

DBN	School or Site Name	2012-2013 Grade Spans	2013-2014 Grade Spans	2014-2015 Grade Spans	2015-2016 Grade Spans	2016-2017 Grade Spans	2017-2018 Grade Spans	2018-2019 Grade Spans
14K404	Academy for Young Writers	9-12	6, 9-12	6-7, 9-12	6-12	6-12	6-12	6-12
19K422	I.S. 422	6	6-7	6-8	6-9	6-10	6-11	6-12
75K053	P053K@K422	9-12	9-12	9-12	9-12	9-12	9-12	9-12

The projected enrollment of the schools and projected utilization for K422 will be as follows:

Utilization⁶	44 - 49%	55 - 62%	66 - 74%	74 - 84%	80 - 91%	86 - 98%	92 - 104%

As described in more detail in the 2010-2011 Enrollment, Capacity, Utilization Report (the “Blue Book”), which is available at <http://www.nycsca.org/Community/CapitalPlanManagementReportsData/Enrollment/2010-2011-BlueBook.pdf>, a building’s target utilization rate is calculated by dividing the aggregated enrollment of all school organizations in the building by the aggregated “target capacities” of those organizations. Each school organization’s “target capacity” is calculated based upon the scheduled use of individual rooms as reported by principals during an annual facilities survey, the DOE’s standards for maximum classroom capacities (which are lower than the United Federation of Teachers contractual class sizes and differ depending on grade level), and the efficiency with which classrooms are programmed (i.e., the frequency with which classes are scheduled in a given classroom).

The most recent year for which target capacity has been calculated for buildings is 2010-2011. As described earlier in this Educational Impact Statement (“EIS”), the DOE’s projected utilization rates for the 2011-2012 school year and beyond are based on the 2010-2011 target capacity, which assumes that the components underlying that target capacity (scheduled use of classrooms, maximum classroom capacity, etc.) remain constant. Thus, projected utilization rates for 2011-2012 and beyond provide only an approximation of a building’s usage because each of the factors underlying target capacity may be adjusted by principals from year to year to better accommodate students’ needs. For example, changing the use of a room from an administrative room to a homeroom at the high school level will increase a building’s overall target capacity because high school administrative rooms are not assigned a capacity. Holding enrollment constant, this change would result in a lower utilization rate. Similarly, if a room previously used as a kindergarten classroom is subsequently used as a fifth grade classroom, the building’s target capacity would increase because we expect that a fifth grade class will have more students than a kindergarten class. This is reflected in the fact that the DOE’s standard for maximum classroom capacity is higher for fifth grade classrooms than for kindergarten classrooms. In this example as well, assuming enrollment is constant, the utilization rate would decrease.

Proposed or Potential Use of Building K838

K838 is a privately owned space currently leased by the DOE for the express purpose of providing a school facility for P053K@K838. If this proposal is approved and P053K@K838 is re-sited to K422 for the 2012-2013 school year, the DOE anticipates that it will not renew its lease of K838. Therefore, there are no other proposed or potential uses of K838.

⁶ Utilization rates for 2010-2011 and 2011-2011 are not presented because no school organization utilized building K422 in these school years.

III. Impact of the Proposal on Affected Students, Schools, and Community

A. Students

Impact on Current P053K@K838 Students

K422 will provide P053K@K838 with newly constructed facilities that have been designed specifically for District 75 programming. These rooms include an assisted daily living room, which is a classroom equipped to aid in the instruction of common household tasks, a room designed for speech therapy, a room designed for occupational/physical therapy, a supervisory office, a designed guidance office, a storage room, and a nurse’s office with a shower and a changing room. Moreover, unlike K838, K422 is a handicap accessible building.

As noted above, 75K053 is a District 75 school that serves students with multiple classifications of disabilities, including ED, HI, deaf, ID, MD, LD and Autism. 75K053 also offers an Inclusion Program. If this proposal is approved, P053@K838 will re-site most of its classes to K422. The remaining classes will be moved by 75K053 to other existing sites or the students will graduate.

P053K@K838:

Currently, P053K@K838 enrolls 140 students in ninth through twelfth grades and offers 13 classes comprised of six ID and LD 12:1:1 classes, five MD 12:1:4 classes and two Autism and ⁷ As noted elsewhere in this document, District 75 anticipates that one ID and LD 12:1:1 class currently enrolled at P053K@K838 will graduate from the program at the conclusion of the 2011-2012 school year and that a second ID and LD 12:1:1 class currently enrolled at P053K@K838 will enroll in the District 75 Brooklyn Transition Center, a vocational program of the District 75 school 75K373 designed for students over the age of 18.

ID 6:1:1 classes.⁸ If this proposal is approved, P053@K838 will re-site most of its classes to K422. The remaining classes will be moved by 75K053 to other existing sites or the students will graduate. Specifically, three ID and LD 12:1:1 classes and five MD 12:1:4 classes currently served by P053@K838 at K838 will be re-sited to K422. In addition, 75K053 will move one of the ID and LD 12:1:1 classes currently served at P053@K838 to P053K@1088K and two ID and Autism 6:1:1 classes currently served at P053@K838 will be moved to P053K@Kingsboro High School. District 75 anticipates that one of the two remaining ID and LD 12:1:1 classes will graduate and the other will articulate into the District 75 Brooklyn Transition Center, a vocational program of the District 75 school 75K373 designed for students over the age of 18.

P053K@1088K:

Currently, P053K@1088K enrolls 92 students in sixth through eighth grade and offers 13 classes comprised of two HI and deaf 12:1:1 classes, two MD 12:1:4 classes, six Autism and ID 6:1:1 classes, and three 8:1 classes composed of students of various disabilities.⁹ As noted above, if this proposal is approved, one of P053K@K838's ID and LD 12:1:1 classes will be moved to P053K@1088K beginning in the 2012-2013 school year. Additionally, 75K053 will use a number of the rooms in its space allocation at the P053K@1088K site to house the administrative functions currently being performed at K838.

P053K@Kingsboro High School:

Currently, P053K@Kingsboro High School enrolls 8 students in one 9:1 inclusion class composed of students of various disabilities in grades nine through twelve.¹⁰ As noted above, if this proposal is approved, P053K@K838's two ID and Autism 6:1:1 classes will be moved to P053K@Kingsboro High School P053K@K838 beginning in the 2012-2013 school year.

K422 is approximately 1.3 miles from P053K@K838's current site. Once sited at K422, students at P053K@K838 will continue to receive bussing services in accordance with Chancellor's Regulation A-801.¹¹ Parents and guardians should consult that regulation for a full explanation of the DOE's bussing practices. In brief, special education students will continue to receive bussing services in accordance with their Individualized Education Programs ("IEPs").

Impact on Academy for Young Writers and 19K422 Students

As noted above, the PEP has approved the DOE's proposal to re-site, expand and co-locate Academy for Young Writers, an existing DOE high school, with a new secondary school (19K422) and a District 75 program in K422 beginning in the 2012-2013 school year. The impact of the co-location on current and future students of Academy for Young Writers and 19K422 is described in more detail in the EIS describing that proposal which is available at: <http://schools.nyc.gov/AboutUs/leadership/PEP/publicnotice/2011-2012/Jan2012Proposals>.

Impact on Future District 75 Students

Students will continue to be placed in District 75 programs based on their individual needs and recommended special education services. District 75 school and placement staff work with parents and guardians of students who are in self-contained classes in elementary school and who are articulating to middle school to identify the middle school programs that best meet their needs. The following variables are taken into account when considering the best placement: whether the student needs a barrier-free site, whether the student requires nursing services, the student's home district, and whether the student has siblings in the articulating school. For additional information about District 75 programs, please visit the DOE website at <http://schools.nyc.gov/Offices/District75/default.htm>.

B. Schools

As discussed above, P053K@838K is currently the only school organization sited in K838. The proposed re-siting of P053K@838K to K422 would thus provide students at P053K@838K with a placement in a school building that will serve general education students. This will allow more opportunities for inclusion during the school day.

If this proposal is approved, relocation planning committees consisting of the Office of Space Planning, Division of School Facilities, and representatives and staff at 75K053, Academy for Young Writers, and 19K422 would work together to keep their respective school communities informed and help plan the relocation of P053K@838K to the new school facilities.

The estimated enrollments at the impacted schools are set forth in Section IV below.

As discussed above, if this proposed re-siting is approved, in 2012-2013 there will be approximately 525-585 students served in K422, yielding a projected building utilization rate of 44%-49%. In 2018-2019, when Academy for Young Writers and 19K422 are both phased in, there will be approximately 1,105-1,255 students served by all three school organizations in K422, yielding a projected building utilization rate of 92%-104%.

C. Community

This proposal addresses the needs of the 75K053 community. The proposed re-siting to K422 would provide the school with a permanent location in a newly constructed facility with rooms designed specifically for a District 75 program. Those students currently served at P053K@838K who are not graduating and who will not be re-sited to K422 would join other existing sites of the 75K053 program, thereby causing the least disruption to both 75K053 and the school organizations that currently share space with 75K053's multiple sites. Additionally, if approved, this proposal would allow for students at P053K@838K to have the opportunity to interact with general education students enrolled at Academy for Young Writers and 19K422 throughout the school day. Finally, by relocating P053K@K838 from K838 to K422, the DOE is able to maintain consistent levels of District 75 programming in Community School District 19 (with the exception of students otherwise projected to graduate or articulate out of this program).

Demographic and School Performance Data

19K422 does not yet enroll students. Therefore, there is no demographic or school performance data for the school yet.

V. Initial Costs and Savings

The estimated total cost to relocate is $10,973.35. This cost will include moving all existing materials and furniture from the current site.

VI. Effect on Personnel Needs, Costs of Instruction, Administration, Transportation and Other Support Services

A. Personnel Needs

The DOE does not anticipate that the proposed re-siting would affect personnel needs at Academy for Young Writers or 19K422. Additional teachers, administrative staff, and non-pedagogical (school support) staff may need to be hired or reassigned to P053K@1088K, P053K@Kingsboro High School, and P053K@K422 as a result of this proposed re-siting. The precise number of positions needed for the 2012-2013 school year and subsequent school years would be determined once annual enrollment projections are released in the spring of the preceding school year.

²³ Enrollment projections are based on a standard phase-in plan of 3 GE sections and 1 SC sections per entry grade in the first year. Actual enrollment in 2012-2013, however, will depend on applicant demand.

B. Cost of Instruction

This re-location proposal should not impact the operating budget or costs of instruction at 75K053. The basic operating budget for all New York City schools is determined by the same Fair Student Funding (“FSF”) formula used at all other New York City District public schools. Under FSF, schools receive City tax levy funding on a per-pupil basis based on the grade level of the student. FSF entitlements are subject to annual variation, but for 2011-2012, the base per-pupil entitlement for middle schools is $4,412.45 and for high schools is $4,207.47.

FSF covers basic instructional expenses and FSF funds may, at the school’s discretion, be used to hire staff, purchase supplies and materials, or implement instructional programs. During the proposed re-siting, funding will be provided in accordance with enrollment levels, allowing the schools to meet the instructional needs of its student population. This is how funding is awarded to all schools throughout the City, with budgets naturally increasing or decreasing as enrollment fluctuates from year to year.

In addition, FSF awards supplemental entitlements on a per-pupil basis for students who have additional needs and therefore cost more to educate. For example, during the 2011-2012 school year, middle and high schools received an additional $2,043.69 per pupil for each ELL student they enrolled. Supplemental funds are also awarded for students who require special education services, or who are eligible for free or reduced-price lunch. When students fall into more than one of these categories, schools are awarded supplemental funding to meet all of those students’ needs.

While schools do receive supplemental support for special education students through FSF, that only represents part of the funding provided to support those students. Schools are budgeted to meet the needs of their special education students as defined by their IEPs. 75K053 will continue to receive funds to meet the needs of all special education students in accordance with their IEPs.

Schools may receive additional “categorical” funding based on student characteristics and needs. For example, federal Title I funding is awarded to schools based on the proportion of low-income students they enroll. 75K053 is not currently eligible for Title I funding.

Please note that increased or reduced per capita funds allocated to the school as a result of changes in enrollment that may occur do not represent net/incremental system costs. All dollar amounts are based on FY12 entitlements and are subject to variation based on adjustments to the DOE’s overall operating budget.

C. Administration

If approved, this proposal is not expected to affect the allocation of administrative positions at 75K053.

D. Transportation

As noted above, K422 is approximately 1.3 miles from P053K@K838’s current site. Once sited at K422, students at P053K@K838 will continue to receive bussing services in accordance with

Chancellor’s Regulation A-801.²⁴ Parents and guardians should consult that regulation for a full explanation of the DOE’s bussing practices. In brief, special education students will continue to receive bussing services in accordance with their IEPs.

Transportation would continue to be provided according to Chancellor’s Regulation A-801: <http://schools.nyc.gov/NR/rdonlyres/21A1B11A-886B-4F74-9546-E875EE82A14C/40303/A801.pdf>.

E. Other Support Services

The provision of certain support services is described above. Other support services would be provided consistent with citywide policy.
