The screenshot shows the ARIS Parent Link login interface. At the top, there is a language selection menu with options: English, Español, 中文, 한국어, Kreyòl Ayisyen, العربية, Русский, বাংলা, اردو, and a Help button. Below the menu is a 'Please Log in' section with two input fields: 'Student ID:' and 'Password:'. A 'Login' button is positioned below the password field. To the right of the login fields is a help bubble that says 'Help! I don't know how to sign in!' and provides instructions: 'To login to ARIS Parent Link, you must enter both your child's Student ID and ARIS Parent Link password. Please enter this information in a safe place to protect your child's private information. How to get a Student ID and Password.' Three callout boxes with arrows point to the language menu (labeled 'Language'), the Student ID field (labeled 'Student ID'), and the Password field (labeled 'Temporary Password').

Below the login section, there are two columns of content. The left column is titled 'Mayor Bloomberg Welcomes You to ARIS Parent Link' and features a video player showing Mayor Bloomberg. The right column is titled 'What is ARIS Parent Link?' and contains text: 'The New York City Department of Education's Achievement Reporting and Innovation System (ARIS) provides a single place where our educators can go to find and study important information about your child. Principals and teachers use this information to find out how best to help your child.' Below this text are two puzzle pieces, one labeled 'ARIS' and the other 'ARIS Parent Link'. At the bottom of the right column, there is more text: 'ARIS Parent Link makes this same important information available for you, so you can work together with your child, principal and teacher to help your child learn. ARIS Parent Link uses secure login procedures to'.
