RESOLUTION AGAINST THE CO-LOCATION OF CONEY ISLAND PREP INTO BUILDING K303 WHICH INCLUDES I.S.303, RACHEL CARSON HIGH SCHOOL AND P771K

WHEREAS, the K303 building is already occupied by three separate school communities, including I.S. 303K, RCHS and 771K; and

WHEREAS, the addition of 270 students from Coney Island Prep presents a hazardous situation for the current students of I.S. 303K, Rachel Carson High School (RCHS) and 771K; and

WHEREAS the current construction of the I.S. 303K facility is not designed to safely support the existence of four separate school populations; and

Citywide Community District Education Council
Individual Performance Report

WHEREAS, the current design and placement of school facilities, specifically the student cafeteria and gymnasiums, does not support the safe passing of several hundred students from different schools at one time; and

WHEREAS, the school facilities that are expected to be shared with Coney Island Prep are already fully utilized throughout the school day; and

WHEREAS, I.S. 303K implements a unique instructional model that includes self – contained classes on the 6th and 7th grades to meet the academic, social and emotional needs of their students; and

WHEREAS, I.S. 303K students continue to benefit from their school’s current instructional design, and all members of the school community, including parents, teachers, School Leadership Team members and students, continue to fully support the current self contained model; and

WHEREAS, the above – referenced instructional model was included in the I.S. 303K’s Restructuring Plan that was submitted to the NYSED for the 2005 – 2006 school year; and

WHEREAS, the Educational Impact Statement (EIS) drafted by the Office of Portfolio Planning (OPP) proposed the termination of the I.S. 303K’s current self – contained model and has suggested that I.S. 303K reconfigure it’s educational plan to revert back to the traditional middle school footprint, despite the success of it’s current program; and

WHEREAS, the change of instructional programming proposed by the Office of Portfolio Planning contradicts the NYC Mayor’s and Chancellor’s vision of empowerment for school principals; and

WHEREAS, the OPP has indicated that Coney Island Prep can be allocated as many as eighteen classrooms (15 classrooms from I.S. 303K and 3 classrooms from RCHS); and

BE IT RESOLVED THAT, Community Education Council District 21 (CEC 21) is concerned about one thing, the children of this community and giving them the education that they deserve. I.S. 303 has undergone dramatic educational restructuring to better meet the needs of the students from our community. These students continue to thrive as a result of the strong educational initiatives and vision of this school. I.S. 303 has built a strong bond with the community that embraces what they do everyday on their children’s behalf. The progress and performance of students in I.S. 303K, RCHS and P177K will be impeded by the co-location of Coney Island Prep; and

Resolution #56 – Against Budget Cuts to Rollover Funds

Whereas the City of New York under Mayor Michael Bloomberg is forcing the Department of Education, under Chancellor Cathie Black to cut money that Principals have already saved in hard economic times in preparation for even harder economic times during fiscal year 2011-2012, otherwise known as rollover funds;

Citywide Community District Education Council
Individual Performance Report

Whereas Mayor Michael Bloomberg and Chancellor Cathie Black are forcing principals to use their surplus funds or lose them, thus running the risk of our principals losing the incentive to save money;

Whereas the confiscation of this reserve budget is destructive to our school community leading to programs being eliminated, class sizes to explode, and the loss of teaching positions;

Whereas, the principals were advised and permitted, by the Department of Education, to be fiscally responsible by putting aside funding for times of economic stress;

Whereas the CEC D24 believes the timing of the decision and its announcement is causing great distress to the staff, students, and community of our entire district;

Be it resolved the Community Education Council District 24 is unequivocally against roll over budget cuts to any school in District 24 and throughout New York City.

Resolution # 57 – Opposing Teacher Layoffs

Whereas, for several years, our schools have suffered continuous budget cuts and less funding resulting in the reduction of staff and services for our students;

Whereas, the Mayor of the City of New York, Michael Bloomberg, who has projected a $3 billion dollar City surplus coming in July is claiming a need to cut classroom funding, which will force our public schools to take on a herculean task and absorb this short fall;

Whereas, over the last two years city-wide student enrollment is up over (30,000) thirty thousand children;

Whereas, there is a projected city-wide increase of over (20,000) twenty thousand additional children enrolling for public school in September, 2011;

Whereas, the school system has already lost thousands of teachers through attrition who have not been replaced, and our class sizes are now beginning to creep up to unprecedented heights;

Whereas, the Mayor of the City of New York, Michael Bloomberg, in conjunction with the Chancellor of Schools, Cathie Black, is calling for the layoff of approximately 4,600 teachers;

Whereas state lawmakers in Albany have publicly declared that teacher layoffs are unnecessary, citing numerous other options to reduce educational spending;

Be it resolved, that we the CEC of District 24 say that our public school children should be protected from any further cuts, their classrooms be safe-guarded against further class size inflation, and that our Chancellor and Mayor cancel their plan for teacher layoffs and consider the alternatives being recommended by the lawmakers representing the State of New York in Albany.

Community District Education Councils Resolution Maintaining Current Teacher Staff

WHEREAS, for several years, our schools have suffered continuous budget cuts and less funding thus resulting in reduction of resources, staff and services for our students.

WHEREAS, the Mayor of New York City, Michael Bloomberg, who has a projected $3 billion dollar City surplus coming in July is claiming to cut classroom funding, which will force our public schools to take on a herculean task and absorb this short fall, and

WHEREAS, over the last two years student enrollment is up over (30,000) thirty thousand children, and

WHEREAS, there is a projected increase of over (20,000) twenty thousand additional children enrolling for public school in September 2011, and

WHEREAS, the school system has already lost thousands of teachers through attrition who have not been replaced, and our class sizes are now beginning to creep up to an all time high,

BE IT RESOLVED, that we the CDEC of District 26 say that during these difficult economic times, our public school children should be protected from any further cuts, their classrooms be safe-guarded against further class size inflation, and we demand our Chancellor and Mayor to find another way to balance the budget and leave our current teaching staff in place for our students, for the coming school year.
