THE BIBLE: WHERE WE GO FROM HERE:
(THE NEXT EPISODE OR TWO AND BEYOND)

The radio interview leads to a demand for the record and a major record company picking it up which leads to money coming in for Miss Robinson's good works. But, she doesn't know how best to use it. She learns that just throwing money at a problem does not solve the problem.

Then, in a new adventure, THE HARLEM ANGELS aid in a subway rescue miracle that involves Miss Robinson and an unassuming SUBWAY HERO who saves her life. He becomes feted by the press for his rescue (which was really done with the unknown help of the Angels) and he does not handle the new fame well. Miss Robinson takes on the task of helping the SUBWAY HERO find his way to make a positive out of his new situation.

The girls will eventually appear to Miss Robinson, and to Miss Robinson, alone. But, not yet. Each week, as a team, they help resolve a new problem.

The HARLEM ANGELS begin their work in a stealth-like manner. Eventually they will reveal themselves to Miss Robinson and teach her how to contact them when she needs them.

There is a "ripped-from-the-headlines" aspect (a la "Law and Order") as I have found dozens, if not hundreds, of unique story ideas in just a couple of New York newspapers which may be fictionalized into storylines, episodes and arcs.

When the girls need to, they can appear to be other than who they are to other people (think Quantum Leap). No one can see them in their previous form, other than Miss Robinson.

There is also an arc planned that would involve being whisked (and whisking others) to anyplace in Harlem, the city or anywhere in the world, including some capital cities of various African nations.
