★ CANNED FOOD DRIVE ★

MORE THAN 1 million New Yorkers do not know where their next meal is coming from. Join with people from all across the city to help feed them by supporting New York's largest food drive.

"KIDS CAN HELP WEEK" December 5th to December 9th is "Kids Can Help Week" in the New York City Public Schools. Students should bring cans of food to their local school throughout the week.

CITY HARVEST TRUCKS will work day and night to collect the bounty and distribute it among New York's families, seniors and children in need this holiday season.
