

STUDENT MEMBER APPLICATION

COMMUNITY AND CITYWIDE EDUCATION COUNCILS

All Community and Citywide Education Councils are required by NYS Education Law to have a non-voting student member. Only students who will be high school seniors during their year of service are eligible to apply; other requirements vary by council.

More information regarding the roles and responsibilities of Education Councils can be found at <http://schools.nyc.gov/Offices/CEC/default.htm>

For Community Education Councils (CECs), applicants must:

- reside in the district where they are applying to serve (students may find out their school district by using NYC DOE's school search tool at www.schools.nyc.gov); and
- be a member of the elected student government or hold an elected leadership position (e.g., president of a club).

For the Citywide Council on High Schools (CCHS), applicants must:

- be a member of the elected student government or hold an elected leadership position (e.g., president of a club).

For the Citywide Council on Special Education (CCSE), applicants must:

- have an IEP.

For the Citywide Council for District 75 (CCD75), applicants must:

- attend a District 75 school or program.

For the Citywide Council on English Language Learners (CCELL), applicants must:

- be classified as an English Language Learner currently or in the previous two years.

Interested students should complete the attached application and submit it to The Division of Family and Community Engagement by email to: ccecinfo@schools.nyc.gov

For further information, please email ccecinfo@schools.nyc.gov or call (212) 374 1936.
