We can help STUDENTS to...

- * Enroll in school. We can help you to return to school the day after release with no interruption to your education.
- * Understand educational options. We can connect you with a counselor to help you understand the GED process, high school alternatives, and college options.
- * Connect with childcare and parenting services, including LYFE (Living for Young Family through Education).

We can help PARENTS to...

- * Understand and Advocate for your son or daughter's rights to DOE educational services and options.
- * Connect to NYC District Family Advocates and District Superintendents to voice your concerns and understand your educational rights.
- * Continue your education. We can help you to access adult and continuing education services.

We can help EMPLOYEES of the COURT BUILDING to...

- * Retrieve student academic records, when appropriate consent forms are provided.
- * Access educational resources pertaining to District 79 and the Department of Education.

DOE Court Liaison Mission Statement

The mission of the DOE Court Liaisons is to assist court-involved students, their families, and the agencies that support them so that students experience minimal interruption to their education. We provide current and applicable information that supports court-involved students in achieving their educational goals. We are available, reliable, and committed to the academic success of every student in the Courts.
