

Team News

Madison's sports teams had an outstanding year.

Bowling	Josh Weinberger was named the number one bowler in NYC. Josh overcame a hearing disability to earn this distinction.
Softball	won the Brooklyn A Division Championship for the ninth year and competed in the City Championship elimination round. Gina Gerone and Kayla Hill were named to the All-City first team and Brittany O'Brien, Marie Oneto and Coach Bill Dumont made the Honorable Mention team.
Baseball	won the Brooklyn A Division Championship, eleven out of the last twelve years. They competed in the semi final City Championship at KeySpan Park. Pitcher, Eddie Lenahan, was named to the Daily News All-City Baseball Team.
Boys Lacrosse	won the NYC Blue Championship.
Girls Lacrosse	became a varsity program in its first year. Madison is one of only two schools in Brooklyn with both a Boys and Girls Varsity Lacrosse program.

Wrestling

won the Brooklyn Divisional Championship with an overall record of 15-2 and improved upon its playoff experience by advancing to the PSAL City Championship. The team took 3rd place overall at the 2009 Mayor's Cup Wrestling Championships, and individually seven Madison wrestlers earned "All-City" honors. Earning gold were Steven Santimauro, Gordei Tchekalenkov and Peter Iacono. Matt Goldberg took the silver.

Boys Soccer

completed an undefeated season and won the Brooklyn A West Division Championship.

Congratulations to ...

Shirley Mui, who was chosen to attend the QuestBridge College Admissions Conference at Yale University.

Carshona Andrews and Ravin Joseph, who each received the Arthur Ashe 1968 Award Scholarship, in the amount of $1,968, for their academic achievement and outstanding service to the community.

Darya Slavina, who is a New York Times Scholarship winner.

Nicole McLean, who is a National Achievement Scholarship winner.

Jasmine Fermin and Kameelah Williams who attended the Kasparov 2009 All-Girls Nationals of the United States Chess Federation, which took place in Dallas, Texas. Together they won the Bughouse Tournament and Jasmine also won first place in the 10-player Blitz Event and third place in the 14 years and under division.

Yeva Sinchugova, who was the overall winner of our school's Literacy Program Reading Challenge. Sara Esmail was the 9th grade winner and Alma Hot was the 10th grade winner of this contest.

All of our 2009 Graduates!

