Mock Jocks

Mock Trial is a competition in which competing teams are given a legal case to debate. Each school involved prepares two arguments for that case; one for the Plaintiff and one for the Defense. 12 members of the team must take on the role of an attorney or witness. The team must then prepare opening statements, direct examinations, cross examinations, closing statements and objections.

Each year the Mock Trial team is one of Madison's best teams and this year was no exception. Led by Olga Perakis and guided by two attorneys from Cadwalader Associates, our team this year ranked in the top 35 out of 250 teams.
