

Are you or your child without immigration papers?

Did you or your child come to the U.S.
before the age of 16?

Were you or your child under the age of 31
on June 15, 2012?

You may be eligible to apply for temporary relief from deportation and permission to legally work in the U.S. under a new program called “Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals”

You may be eligible even if you don't have a High School Diploma or are not in school

To make an appointment to see if you or your child qualify and get free legal assistance with your application for Deferred Action, please contact the New York Immigration Coalition DACA hotline at 212-627-2227 ext. 243, or email info@thenyic.org

You can also register online at:
<http://thenyic.org/deferredaction/register>

What can your family do with DACA?

- Stop living in fear of deportation! With DACA you are protected from deportation
- Get a work permit and Social Security number which you could use to get a NY State ID or Driver's License
- Qualify for city and state benefits for you and your family
- Work and save for your family's education
- Work in a career that you or your child are studying for

DACA provides a great opportunity to plan for your family's future.

Let us help you determine if you or your child is eligible.

Take advantage of the FREE legal assistance,
don't fall for Notarios.

Help us spread the word, cut and take the contact slips below for your family and friends!
