

Principal Position at Automotive High School, 14K610

Posted December 21, 2016

The New York City Department of Education (DOE) is seeking self-motivated, visionary school leaders from inside and outside the New York City public school system to the position of principal.

Led by Chancellor Carmen Fariña, the DOE is committed to accelerating achievement in a system of 1,450+ schools by adopting rigorous curricula for all schools, increasing educational options for students, and holding principals accountable for improving student achievement while giving them strong performance incentives and the authority to make critical instructional decisions.

We invite applications from individuals prepared to improve student learning by:

- Using data to set high learning goals and tracking progress through teams
- Leveraging deep knowledge of curriculum, instruction, and assessment
- Building the capacity of all staff
- Developing a culture of collaborative leadership through shared decision making
- Managing and allocating resources
- Fostering a culture of excellence through positive, motivational leadership
- Elevating the school's College and Career foci, specifically through the modernization of Career and Technical Education (CTE) programs, and
- Collaborating with community stakeholders, including a dedicated Community Based Organization (CBO) to prioritize students' wellness and readiness to learn

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

Applicants must possess a valid New York State certificate in School Administration/Supervision (SAS), School District Administration (SDA), or in School Building Leadership (SBL).

SELECTION PROCESS

The selection, assignment and appointment of Principal for this school is determined by a joint MOA between the UFT, the CSA and the DOE.
