

Can I view a copy of my child's Gifted & Talented (G&T) exam?

You can view your child's test and see the answers selected during the test administration. Please note that this is not an appeals process. You can submit a test review request by completing this survey or sending a certified letter postmarked no later than April 24, 2015 to:

The Division of Teaching and Learning
Office of Assessment
52 Chambers Street
New York, NY 10007

Please include:

1. Child's first and last name
2. Child's date of birth
3. Parent/guardian first and last name
4. Current home address
5. Home, work, and mobile phone number (if available)
6. Name, address, and phone number of the school your child currently attends
7. Date, borough, and site where your child was tested

You will receive confirmation of receipt and communication about scheduling an appointment. You can expect to hear from the Office of Assessment by May 1, 2015. If the request is made online, you will receive all communications to the email address provided. If the request is mailed, you will be notified by regular mail or by email if you provided an email address.

Please note the following about the G&T test view appointment:

- Test views will take place in June for pre-k through grade 2 students who tested in the winter of 2015.
- This is not an appeals process, but an opportunity for you to view your child's test.
- Test materials are secure and must remain with the New York City Department of Education (NYCDOE) at the conclusion of the meeting.
