The Equity Project (TEP) Charter School believes that teacher quality is the most important factor in achieving educational equity. Spurred by this belief, TEP reallocates its public funds by making an unprecedented investment in attracting and retaining great teachers. TEP students learn from TEP's master teachers in 6 core subjects - English, Math, Music, Social Studies, Science, and Physical Education. TEP's curriculum emphasizes language development and interdisciplinary learning.

The mission of Innovate Manhattan Charter School is to cultivate in our students the unity of knowledge, skills, and personal development that constitute the empowered individual. It is fundamental to our educational concept that all people are different, learn in different ways and at different rates, and have the right to a personal challenge every day. Therefore, we will contribute to the quality and mosaic of educational innovations in New York by offering our 6th-8th graders a coherent model for personalized education that is based on individual coaching, goals, and accountability combined with state-of-the-art learning technology and the international exchange of ideas and experiences. Upon graduation, all IMSC students will have achieved more than they thought possible and be poised for success in high school and college while living a fulfilled, purposeful life.

The organizing principle of The Renaissance Charter School (“Renaissance”) is global citizenship. The mission of Renaissance is best described by our motto, “Developing Leaders for the Renaissance of New York.” We seek to develop committed and capable youth who will usher forth a 21st Century renaissance in their respective families and communities. Renaissance students will be prepared to contribute to the building of a humanistic culture in the local fields of the business, arts & culture, government, health, and not-for-profit sectors.

The mission of the school is to prepare K-5 students living in and around Central Harlem for matriculation to outstanding public, private and parochial middle and high schools by nurturing their intellectual, emotional, artistic and social development. The school is accomplishing this by offering a rigorous and challenging academic curricula taught by a highly-prepared and committed cadre of professional educators. Beginning in kindergarten, we prepare our students for college and a lifetime of achievement, honor and service. Sisulu-Walker is achieving this in a small and supportive learning environment that sets high expectations for all of our students and encourages strong parental and community involvement.
