Harbor Science and Arts Charter School

The Harbor Science and Arts Charter School is located in the Upper East Side of Harlem in New York City and serves students in 1st through 8th grade. The school is committed to providing a challenging, rigorous, standards-based curriculum. By drawing upon the most successful practices in education, students at Harbor Science and Arts Charter School are prepared for success while at the school as well as to succeed in higher level institutions (high school, college, etc.). In our on-going commitment to ensuring our students meet and exceed standards, our curriculum and instructional practices are systematically assessed and renewed by staff and administration on a consistent basis. The school believes in a strong culture of respect for self and others. Routines are in place to ensure the safety of both students and staff, and maximize effective functioning through the course of the school day. Furthermore, clearly defined policies, supported by systems that encourage and acknowledge positive behaviors and efforts, as well as discourage negative actions, permeate the school environment. Additionally, staff and students speak daily about behavioral expectations and the rewards of a positive attitude. Harbor Science and Arts Charter School is proud to be celebrating 10 years of existence and achievement as one of the first charter schools in New York City.

Manhattan Charter School

Manhattan Charter School is a small, independent public elementary school on the Lower East Side operating as a 501c3 nonprofit organization. The school has been consistently high-achieving since its founding in 2005. The private school-style culture and learning environment MCS is known for is evident in the individualized attention children receive from teachers totally committed to seeing each one of them succeed, an arts and culture-rich curriculum that introduces urban public school students to new worlds and ways of seeing, and a philosophy of experience-based learning. The daily mission of Manhattan Charter School is to teach our eager kindergarteners through fifth graders how to learn and love doing it, and to cultivate and challenge their curious minds for the rest of their lives.

Opportunity Charter School

At Opportunity Charter School, we welcome all students in grades 6 through 12, regardless of previous academic success: students who are yearning to learn, students who have fallen behind, students who have been told their aspirations are beyond reach. Through a positive belief in every student’s promise, we are committed to bringing their potential to life. We provide staff and students with a safe, supportive environment in which students can pursue personal development through an individualized plan tailored to their unique needs. We nurture intellectual and personal growth. Students receive differentiated instruction in every curricular area from our highly-trained staff, with the goal of expanding their higher cognitive functioning. Our school culture is performance-driven and results-oriented. Students graduate having achieved a clearly demonstrated academic and social foundation, as well as a deep understanding of their own strengths and weaknesses.
