THE NYC DISCIPLINE CODE PROHIBITS HARASSMENT, INTIMIDATION, DISCRIMINATION AND BULLYING BEHAVIOR

Students who believe they have been the victim of harassment, discrimination, intimidation and/or bullying by another student or by a staff member, and all students who see or know of such behavior, should report the incident to a school staff member immediately.

To Report an Incident

If you need help because someone has discriminated against, harassed, bullied or intimidated you, or if you have concerns about such behavior, you can go to:

It is the policy of the Department of Education to maintain a safe and supportive learning environment that is free from harassment, intimidation and/or bullying and from discrimination on account of actual or perceived race, color, ethnicity, national origin, citizenship/immigration status, religion, creed, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, disability or weight. The policy prohibits such behavior by students against other students and by staff against students.

Prohibited behavior includes, but is not limited to: physical violence; verbal or physical conduct that threatens another with harm; hazing; taunting; exclusion from peer groups designed to humiliate or isolate; using derogatory or discriminatory language to humiliate or harass. This policy is set forth in Chancellor's Regulations and the Citywide Standards of Intervention and Discipline Measures (The Discipline Code.)

Staff members who witness harassment, discrimination, bullying and/or intimidating behavior will take appropriate action to intervene to stop such behavior.

Students who violate the Discipline Code will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action as outlined in the Code and Chancellor's Regulation A-443.
