Opportunities for Women in Federal Contracting

Please join us Wednesday, May 21, 2014 from 08:15am – 12:00pm for ChallengeHER—New York, NY held at the Federal Plaza Conference Center. The U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA), Women Impacting Public Policy (WIPP), and American Express OPEN (OPEN) have partnered to host women business owners for this special contracting event. Join the ChallengeHER movement to help empower the success of the Women-Owned Small Business Federal Contract Program!

WOSB federal contractors can have a unique opportunity to:

- Participate in Federal Contracting 101 and WOSB program workshops.
- Get contracting advice and learn about resources in your local community.
- Receive updates on current Procurement Policy and the WOSB Program
- Hear insightful real-life success stories from women business owners.
- Network with peer mentors and other WOSB and Economically Disadvantaged Women-Owned Small Business (EDWOSB) firms working in your field.

A few special notes on our program:

- A photo I.D. will be required for registration.
- Event registration and networking will begin at 8:15am and the program will begin promptly at 9:00am.
- Remember to bring ample business cards for networking purposes.

LaGuardia Community College Procurement was established in 1999.

Our mission is to assist Queens small businesses, Federal, State, and local governments. We strive to help them fully sell to the government. The center offers pre-bidding workshops to meet the needs of minority, small business (VOSB) and women owned small businesses through the procurement process.

Since 1999 our clients have received a total of over 100 contracts.

The following is a sample of the types of procurement services provided to businesses in the region:

- One on one business counseling
- Training clients on understanding procurement process
- Research and analysis of goods or services
- GSA schedules and contracts
- Access to bid opportunities via our database
- Assisting small businesses in marketing and sales
- Assisting M/WBE's in obtaining Federal, New York State and local contracts
- SBIR Assistance

If interested in an appointment, please contact us at PTAC@lagcc.cuny.edu.

Our services are free of charge. We accept American Express.

DOE COMMITMENT TO EQUAL OPPORTUNITY

The DOE has contracts with vendors to purchase goods and services necessary to ensure that students receive a high quality education. The agency strives to give all businesses, including Minority and Women-Owned Business Enterprises (MWBEs), an equal opportunity to compete for DOE procurements.

DOE's MISSION

- Enhance the ability of MWBEs to compete for contracts
- Ensure that MWBEs have meaningful participation in the procurement process
- Ensure that MWBEs are informed about the purchasing process and procurement opportunities
- Provide assistance to MWBEs on the methods of doing business with the DOE

The Department of Design and Construction builds many of the civic facilities New Yorkers use every day. As the City's primary capital construction project manager, DDC provides communities with new or renovated structures such as firehouses, libraries, police precincts, courthouses and senior centers. To successfully manage this portfolio, valued at nearly $10 billion, DDC partners with other City agencies, as well as with emerging and world-renowned architects and consultants whose experience and creativity bring efficient, innovative, and environmentally-conscious design and construction strategies to the projects that are built.
