School Mission Statement

The mission of PS 11 is to develop well-balanced children in an environment which is stimulating, diverse, secure, and stable. PS 11 is committed to providing its children with a comprehensive child-centered curriculum which is sensitive to individual children's learning needs and styles. In PS 11, we want children who can deal with the world around them sensitively because they have learned to know and love themselves.

Principal's Statement

We are "Proud to be Learning and Learning to be Proud". The goal for every child at PS 11 is to excel in class work, homework, behavior, and assessment. We are a learning community. We ensure the best education possible for our children.

Special Academic Programs

Special academic programs include chess, chorus, band (grades 4-6), Extended Day Program, Saturday Class, Rigby Reading, and LEAD Program for grades K-6.

Extracurricular Activities

Extended day activities offered are chess, drama, dance, instrumental music, double dutch, basketball, football, homework help, and in the spring an art/music production and assessment pep rally are held.

Community Support

Washington Avenue Block Association, Clinton Hills Landmark Society, Brown Memorial Church, and Friends of P.S. 11.

Parent/School Support

The PTA and the parent component of the School Leadership Team are active. Parents participate in the library media center, classrooms, school tour leaders, reading partners, and chaperone field trips. Breakfast Club provides storytelling and games before morning line-up.
