School Mission Statement

P.S. 15 will provide a standards-based comprehensive educational program for all our students. Through intense, ongoing staff development, the Patrick F. Daly School will increase student achievement by delivering programs that are engaging and rigorous for the learner. We encourage strong parent participation as well as a collaborative and professional partnership with community-based organizations that address the physical, intellectual, emotional, moral and social needs of our children. Our instructional programs will enable all children to reach high levels of performance that will prepare them to be successful.

Principal's Statement

P.S.15, the Patrick F. Daly School, is a vibrant peaceful learning community. We rely on many agencies and resources to meet the intellectual, physical, emotional, social, and moral needs of our students. We feel children should be given the opportunity to learn through exploration, language acquisition, and exposure to the vast cultural institutions of our great city. Heavy emphasis is placed on our many partnerships. All curriculum areas are integrated with a special focus on the arts. The Beacon at the Red Hook Community Center complements our purpose of educating the entire child and supports our vision.
