School Mission Statement

The Horace E. Greene School, working in partnership with parents and the community, will create a society of lifelong learners. We will developing a community of responsible citizens who respect one another and themselves. Demanding performance standards of student literacy, will insure that our students are prepared to meet the challenges of the twenty-first century.

The Horace E. Greene School's vision is the promotion of high expectations and active involvement in learning for the entire school community through collaboration, communication, and mutual respect. With a focus on educational growth, we will ensure that each and every student reaches his or her full potential.

Principal's Statement

Our school is aggressively working toward meeting the Chancellor's State Performance Standards. We have met the designated state standards the last three years. With the combined efforts of the administration, teachers and parents we will succeed. We work very closely with one another to help all our students. The school has a splendid reputation of being a loving and caring educational family. Students come from all areas of Brooklyn. Our music and art programs have recognition throughout the district. We have an active PTA which is reflected in a highly successful parent volunteer program that consistently meets Chancellor's goals.

Special Academic Programs

Our emphasis is on reading and mathematics provided by zero hour AM/PM programs. We conduct art, music, Phys. Ed. programs & educational field trips. We have an outstanding student orchestra. The rolling laptop system, the computer lab and the accelerated computer technology program guarantees that all students have access to computers in school.

Extracurricular Activities

Activities include formal peer mediation and conflict resolution programs. The Project Arts, music and art programs provide zero hour AM/PM programs. The community based Jackie Robinson Program provides our students with dance, chess, drama, chorus, cheerleading, basketball, and stepping. The Community Works program also celebrated the arts.

Community Support

We had 10 partnerships, including: Brooklyn District Attorney, Jackie Robinson Physical Culture, BAM, Lincoln Center, NYC Police Dept, New York Cares, Men of Vision Organization, New Ballet School (Feld), Community Works as well as the following programs: Attendance Improvement Dropout Prevention Program and NYC Learning Leaders Volunteers.

Parent/School Support

Our School Leadership Team and PTA provide an on-going partnership between home & school. They play a key role in school governance, curricular planning and school activities. The PTA holds monthly meetings, PAC workshops, "Family Day", "Get Acquainted" Teas & an Annual Health Fair. ESL and Family Literacy classes are also provided for parents.
