School Mission Statement

PS 46k is a Title I SWP implementing the Comer School Development Program to foster continued academic achievement and improved home-school relations. We are committed to maintaining a highly effective environment where best practices of instruction are utilized to achieve the highest levels of academic, social-emotional and physical development of students, including special needs and English Language Learners. Our nurturing school climate and ongoing home-school connections ensure a community of life-long learners. Each student receives the highest standards in a balanced curriculum to promote success in all academic areas, with an emphasis on technology. Our Project Arts focus in art and music, and our Character Education (STAR) curriculum foster positive social/civic growth for all our children.

Principal's Statement

PS46k is a Title I SWP school in the Fort Greene section of Brooklyn serving children in grades Pre Kindergarten through grade five. PS 46k is enrolled in the NYS Honor Roll for Most Improved Schools. Our commitment to the Comer School Development Program and intense relationship with our community based organization, Partnership with Children, has provided us with the perfect vehicle for continued academic achievement and improved social-emotional student growth. The strong infusion of music and art in our curriculum has greatly enriched our students' self esteem and fostered very strong parent involvement.

Special Academic Programs

Academic achievement has been enhanced by our extended day programs in reading and math, ESL and social studies. Title I Intervention services have yielded ongoing success for our special education and ELL populations. Social-emotional partnerships with community organizations have provided much needed support for all students.

Extracurricular Activities

Student Government activities include: Penny Harvest, Canned Food Drive, Clothing Drive, Reading to seniors. Our students participate in the Nutrition Club, Jazz Band, Chorus, School Newspaper, Environmental Committee, Safety Squad, Honor Roll Society. Comer Kids, Art Club, Technology Club, Oratory Club.
