School Mission Statement

MISSION

It is our mission to meet the educational needs of all our students in order to achieve academic excellence. We believe that students are individuals and they learn in a variety of ways. We continually use a diagnostic and prescriptive approach to education in order to meet the individual needs of all our students. In full collaboration with parents and the community, we foster the emotional, social, and intellectual growth of our students in order to prepare them for their roles as future leaders and outstanding citizens.

Principal's Statement

Roy H. Mann is home to over 1500 students. We believe in the potential of all students to learn and achieve. We offer three excellent programs for academically enriched students: Center for Intellectually Gifted students (CIG); the challenging Excelsior and CAP (SPE) programs. Gifted students are able to take Living Environment Biology, Earth Science, and 9th grade regents exams. Many of our students are accepted to Specialized High School programs. Our goals are to teach students values, discipline, and life-long learning skills so that they can lead productive, efficient lives.

Special Academic Programs

Special programs include: CIG; Excelsior Academy; Accelerated Mathematics and Science; College Prep; Project Based Learning; Outward Bound; Character Education; Arista/Archon;

Extracurricular Activities

Drama; Chorus; Stock Market Game; Band; Peer Tutoring; Academic Intervention; Bowling Club; Spoken Word Club; Book Club; Step Team

Community Support

We have ongoing associations with the Bergan Beach Civic Association, Washington Mutual Bank, NY Public Library, and Outward Bound.

Parent/School Support

The Parent Association plays an active role in our school leadership team. Our P.T.A. involves parent volunteers who interact with staff and students on a regular basis. Members provide support for parents, and monthly meetings serve to inform parents about various issues and provide information and assistance to all.
