School Mission Statement

The Mission of P.S. 91 is to provide excellence in education by setting goals and high expectations for all in a safe and orderly environment so that our students can excel to their highest potential, and to empower them to utilize world resources as they contribute to and compete in a global community. P.S. 91 has been identified by the City and the State as one of the 100 most improved school for 2003-2004, 2004-2005, 2005-2006. We are also recognized as a New York State "Gap Closing School. We are indeed a school on the rise!!!

Principal's Statement

PS 91 is a school on the cutting edge of computer technology. We are indeed ready for the 21st century. We have two full computer labs and four computers in each fourth and fifth grade class. Every third grade must go to the lab daily. In the fourth and fifth grade classes we have the Successmaker program from Pearson Learning .We have a tutorial program available 8:00 a.m.-8:37 a.m. for all grades. In the afternoons we have the Gary Klinski Program which tutors 250 students from 3:00 p.m. until 5:45 p.m. This program has a rich science, reading and math curriculum. The program also provides instruction in steel pan, dance, vocal music and art.

Special Academic Programs

The Gary Klinski After-School Program tutors 250 children from the hours of 3:00 pm to 5:45pm daily.

Extracurricular Activities

Steel pan Music Program, three days per week.

Community Support

We are partners with the Brooklyn Bureau of Community Services. This program provides the school with the Gary Klinski after school program and a list of counseling services.

Parent/School Support

Our staff has opened a Parent Help Center. All parents are encouraged to participate in training in the use of mathematical techniques to assist students in test taking. We give continuous parent workshops hosted by the Title I Parent Advisory Committee, our Bilingual Dept, Title One personnel and our Literacy and Math staff.

2006-07 School Accountability Status:
